Enemy Retreat from Belgium Begun

King Albert's Brave Army Driving Hated Hun from Soil of Despoiled Country

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 16 (4:30 p.m.)—The Germans have started a retreat on a tremendous scale from western Belgium. French cavalry is approaching Thielt, seven miles from the banks of the Ghent-Bruges canal. The canal itself is only ten miles from the border of Holland. So fast is the enemy retreating that the French, British and Belgian infantry, at least in the center of the battle front, have lost touch entirely with the enemy. The Belgians advancing astride the Thourout-Bruges and Thourout-Ostend roads have defeated the Germans, who are retreating rapidly.

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 16.—The great German retreat is on. This undoubtedly is one of the greatest and most vital victories, for the gallant little Belgian army, ably assisted by crack French and British troops, now has driven the despoilers of its country from a large section which they have occupied since the early days of the war and which positions of such importance that the Germans may be forced to abandon the entire coast of Belgium.

However, the sweeping advance of the Allied infantry, behind a fan of French cavalry, advancing rapidly, has left the region in which are the important city of Lille and the coal mining and manufacturing districts of Tourcoing, Roubaix and Turcoing in a salient which is growing deeper every hour, and which the enemy cannot hope to hold.

The French cavalry which is engaging one of the Allied advances has done splendid work, today it pushed forward more than ten miles, frequently carrying out what, usually associated with cavalry charges upon isolated posts of enemy machine gunners which had attempted to hold up its advance.

Some of these gunners taken prisoner said they were totally unable to understand why the war was going on and why they were being forced to continue fighting. One officer said:

"We have offered all the terms in the world for peace; nobody seems willing to accept them."

Belgium, where it has been offered by the enemy, has been exceedingly fierce, for in these districts it obviously has been the desire of the commanders of the Germans to gain time in order to remove their materials. Heavy fighting has been reported, however, from the region of Thielt. The battle here has been from street and house to street and large numbers of the Germans have been killed.

The Belgian forces have swept around the city in order to cut the enemy in the rear and easier in both directions, the enemy trying to hold on to the city itself.

The Germans had placed machine guns in the windows of houses and barns and fired murderous streams of bullets into the advancing Belgians, who were unable to stop them. The Belgians fought with a dogged determination, such as only troops fighting to regain their outraged country could display. Nothing could stop them.

The British, following up the retreating Germans and overcoming rear guards, are reported as making steady progress and as having reached Lissenthoek, along the Lys. Dadizeele at the time this dispatch was filed were reported to be in flames and to have reached positions on the other side of Cachtem, both of which they entered. Northeast of Courtrai, Menin was stormed and taken and the Belgians were still going.

The Belgian position is most valuable, for the place being northwest of Turcoing, the Allied troops are gradually outflanking the entire Lille salient, from which there are further signs that the enemy is withdrawing. As a matter of fact his troops in this salient are in an extremely precarious position. They must get out rapidly or face disastrous consequences.

A thousand more prisoners and many more cannon have been captured. The Germans at many places, especially in the northern part of the battle area, seem to be surrendering freely. Many more civilians have been rescued from the towns and districts captured and little processions of these are straggling rearward out of range of the guns and out of the way of the fighting troops. Stories are beginning to come back of how liberated Belgian women have seen their sons, brothers or husbands going forward into battle.

Quite a number of civilians also have been rescued from Roulers and its environs, the Germans having left in such a hurry that they had no time to remove the civilians who wanted to stay and take a chance of being liberated. Today these men, women and children again are walking on free soil.

The Germans appear to be making strenuous efforts to save their munitions and equipment and material, the accumulation of four years, from coast districts of Belgium. The roads behind the Germans are littered with all sorts of transport and Allied airplanes again are playing havoc with the retreating enemy.

The weather today was cloudy, but thus far no more rain has fallen. However, Flanders is mud from one end to the other, and this condition makes movement difficult for the Allied troops. The ooze and soft ground make it doubly difficult for the enemy to move back. Therefore the Allied soldiers have put up with great hardships, for they realize that they have the enemy on the run in the most vital section of the west front and do not desire to let him have a chance to reassemble his battered units.

Outside Courtrai the infantry has progressed about three miles and PEACE REPLY BULLETINS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERNE, (Switzerland) Tuesday, Oct. 15.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace proposals reached Berlin at noon today. It had not been given to the German public, however, up to 8 o'clock tonight.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—According to a source of information not without value, Berlin is considering how Emperor William can disappear without overthrowing the dynasty, says a dispatch from Geneva to the Temps. One solution being considered, it is said, is the abdication of the Emperor in favor of his grandson, William, the eldest son of the German Crown Prince, with the Emperor's brother, Prince Henry, as regent. The Journal des Debats yesterday mentioned editorially the possibility of such a solution but condemned it as unacceptable.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 16.—A movement can be observed in the German press, says a dispatch from Berlin to the Tijd, to bring about a cessation of submarine war as the result of President Wilson's note.

BATTLE SUMMARY

ALLIES SWEEP OVER BELGIUM.

[RESUME BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Hostilities are proceeding without cessation and, as in days past, the forces of the Allies everywhere are defeating the enemy. In Belgian Flanders the British, Belgian and French troops under King Albert are sweeping forward for further material gains in the process of driving the invaders from Belgian soil. On the front in France the British, French and Americans are hard after the Germans and are making progress, though slowly, notwithstanding the strenuous defense that is being offered.

Both in Serbia and Albania the Entente troops are ridding the invaded districts of the Austro-Hungarian and German contingents, in Albania being well to the north of Durazzo, on the Adriatic Sea, and in Serbia a considerable distance beyond Nish, with the enemy falling back toward the frontier of Austria-Hungary.

In the Palestine theater, the British cavalry has driven far to the north and northwest of Damascus, having reached Tripoli, near the Mediterranean coast, forty-five miles north of Beirut, and Homs, eighty-five miles north of Damascus. By this maneuver there seemingly is created for the Ottoman forces the menace of again being caught between Gen. Allenby's armies and crushed, as was the case in the early days of the offensive in the region north of Jerusalem. The maneuvers also may forecast a new drive by the British from the Bagdad region to form a junction with Gen. Allenby at Aleppo, thus taking the Holy Land in its entirety from the Turks.

The great wedge of the Allies in Flanders is being gradually extended eastward along the front of attack. Thourout, at the head of the railway leading to Bruges, and numerous villages to the south, have been taken, while Courtrai, the junction point of the railway to Ghent, is almost entirely surrounded. Large numbers of prisoners and many additional guns have been captured by the Belgian, French and British troops who are carrying out the operation.

To the south of this region the British continue successfully their maneuver which has as its main objective the capture of Douai and Lille and the blotting out of the big salient which is barring the way to Valenciennes and the German defense line in that vicinity. Here the Germans are continuing to withdraw, closely followed by the British, who are within two and a half miles and three and three-quarter miles of Lille, respectively, southwest and west of the city.

In the Champagne region, where the French and Americans are driving their way northward, further good gains have been made, notwithstanding the furious efforts of the Germans to hold their line. Rethel, the important junction point for the railways running to Mezieres and other points inside the enemy-held territory, is all but captured by the French. Eastward the Americans also have again pressed slightly forward.

The French, however, have passed Sissone. Gen. Gouraud's army has crossed the Aisne west of Rethel and this advance renders the enemy position farther east rather perilous.

LOTTIE PICKFORD, FILM ACTRESS, NEAR DEATH

With her sister Mary racing across the continent against time to reach her bedside in Los Angeles, Lottie Pickford, well-known motion-picture actress, at the Sisters' Hospital, suffering from a complication of diseases, received the Sacrament at 5:30 o'clock last night and is near death.

Miss Pickford was taken from a train last Saturday morning immediately upon her arrival, after a tour of the East for the Liberty Loan, and rushed to the Sisters' Hospital. She is suffering from five mastoid abscesses, chronic bronchitis and pneumonia of the right lung.

A corps of physicians and nurses are battling valiantly to prevent the spreading of the congestion of the left lung. Sunday morning, after a night in the hospital, Miss Pickford was reported much better. There was even some discussion Sunday evening of removing her to the Pickford home, but a sudden relapse early in the evening thwarted the plan.

Tuesday the young woman, who with her famed sister had just finished the sale of $1,500,000 in bonds throughout the United States and had ended the tour in New York, was in a serious condition, with a steadily rising temperature. Physicians attending her pronounced her to be in great danger from pneumonia, and steps were taken to prevent the impending attack.

After a bad night Miss Pickford was reported to be suffering from the disease, however, yesterday morning, and at noon yesterday telegrams were sent summoning Mrs. Pickford, Mary Pickford and Jack Pickford, the sick woman's brother. At 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening Father Lucey administered the Sacrament and anointed the young woman. A very few friends, who knew of Miss Pickford's illness, gave up hope, but the attending physicians continued their struggle to prevent the spreading of the pneumonia to the left lung.

Practically none of the friends of the Pickford family knew of the young woman's illness, as every precaution was taken to keep it secret.

The following statement was given out at 2 o'clock this morning by Mabelle A. Lewis, secretary to Mary Pickford:

"Miss Lottie Pickford is at the Sisters' Hospital suffering from a complication of diseases and all hope of her recovery has been abandoned."

GRANDPRE CAPTURED.

Americans Occupy Fortified Town.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 16, 6 p.m.—The Americans troops today occupied the town of Grandpre, on the north bank of the Aire River, north of the Argonne Forest.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE, Oct. 16.—(2:30 p.m.)—Favored by the bad weather and bad roads which are slowing up the advance of the Allied supply trains, the Germans appear disposed to make a stand, for the time at least, on the line from the region north of Sissone to Rethel.

Gen. Debeney's forces have made a slight advance west of Anguilcourt, passing through Serre and arriving before the marshes which the enemy is utilizing with the aid of a well sustained machine-gun fire to stop their further march.

The German artillery has also increased its activity in this sector. North of Sissone the French troops now are along the bank of the immense drainage canal which constitutes the advanced defense positions prepared as a secondary line of retirement from the Hindenburg line.

Farther east the Germans, supported by a violent artillery fire, counter-attacked the French troops This reaction was of no avail, Gen. Guillaumat's men maintaining their line a quarter of a mile east of the road from St. Germainmont to Gersicourt.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. today continued their resistance 16.—(12:10 p.m.)—The Germans against the advance of the American forces on this front, the strength of the opposition fully equaling that of yesterday.

With machine guns, some artillery fire and minor counter-attacks the Germans this morning interposed desperate resistance to Pershing's men all along the line.

All the counter-attacks were easily repulsed. They had the appearance, because of the small numbers of men employed, of being efforts to throw confusion into the American ranks in order to gain time.

The principal American activity this morning was on the left of the battle sector. There was some activity east of the River Meuse. The enemy threw gas shells into the Chatillon Woods last night and bombarded Tuileries farm.

The advance of the Americans yesterday has been maintained everywhere and some slight gains were recorded during the night. The forward elements of the American troops, consisting of machine gunners, are occupying organized shell holes.

The confusion among the German units, due to the amalgamation of various organizations, increases daily. Even this method does not prevent the strength of the units from decreasing steadily.

TRAPS SET FOR BOCHE.

Supplies Arteries Near Capture.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

FRENCH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 16 (Reuter's.)—Gen. Debeney's troops this morning crossed the Oise River at Choigny, three miles north of its junction with the Serre River.

Gen. Gouraud has captured Acy, on the south bank of the Aisne southwest of Rethel. The Germans are shelling the rear areas all along the line and appear to be reinforcing their line strongly with machine guns.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 16, 4:30 p.m.—The entire subsistence of the German armies between Cambrai and the Meuse must pass through two narrow routes by way of Hirson and Mezieres. Upon these two lines the security of the German armies depends and it is toward those that the French and Americans in Champagne and the British and French in the region of Cambrai and Guise have been advancing.

The most plausible reason for a general retreat of the German armies is the necessity of reducing the distance between them and these two points, both of which already are remotely threatened, and to parry the danger of their being bottled up and captured.

The alternative would have been the engagement of their entire reserves in a desperate pitched battle in the forlorn hope of wresting from the Allies the initiative in operations for the balance of the fighting season.

Military experts who regard the German retreat as that of a completely defeated force attribute the German reverse first to the desperate game risked by Ludendorff in the spring in throwing in and compromising the greatest part of his strength in an attempt to gain a quick and decisive result, which left his forces exhausted; second, to the discouragement of the German soldier, disappointed in the promises held out to him in March of an early peace; third, to Ludendorff's tactics of attacks over restricted fronts in mass, pursued to the exhaustion of the forces engaged; and fourth, to the success of Marshal Foch's tactics of harassing the enemy without respite at many different points simultaneously, making it impossible for the enemy to bring up reserves to all the threatened positions.

LOS ANGELES DENTIST DEAD AT CAMP PIKE.

The widow of Dr. Smithers lives at No. 933 East Twenty-ninth street. His father is Rev. John D. Smithers, a retired Baptist minister, who lives at Lompoc with his daughter.

Downfall of Kaiserism is Awaited in Washington; Wild Rumors from Berlin

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 16.—Emperor William has issued a decree saying that martial law in Germany can be administered only by an agreement between the civil and military authorities, according to a report received here.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 15.—News of the German Chancellor's resignation has not yet arrived here but is expected momentarily. The Reichstag meets tomorrow, when it is expected President Wilson's answer to Germany will be discussed.

GERMAN COMMENT

ON PRESIDENT'S ANSWER.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace note produced "a most unfavorable impression" in Berlin, says a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam today. The publication of the reply, it adds, was followed by a panic in Berlin banking circles and on the stock exchange.

The German supreme command, the advices state, will come to Berlin at the end of the present week, "to deliberate on mobilization, concentration of the national strength and the raising of the military age."

The German newspapers point out, the message adds, that President Wilson's note had the effect of a cold douche on the hopes for peace engendered by his first note.

Some of the newspapers comment on the note in the sharpest terms and with unbridled words, adding that the language of President Wilson now has become "excited" after the conferences he has had with the Allies.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 16.—The semiofficial North German Gazette of Berlin says:

"President Wilson's reply has partly carried the discussion farther and partly extended it.

"A fresh counter-utterance by the German government therefore, is necessary, so that the bringing about of an armistice and the inauguration of peace negotiations are not yet immediately attainable."

The Cologne Gazette, which often speaks authoritatively, commenting on President Wilson's reply to Foreign Minister Solf, says:

"After President Wilson's note, hope for peace must be lowered a few pegs."

The Cologne Volks Zeitung takes the same stand.

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung asks:

"What guarantees does President Wilson offer that a military superiority will not be utilized afterward by his allies in a manner opposed to the principles of justice and conciliation?"

"It appears that we are at a stage when it is still possible to warn the enemy that in the history of the world it has often been proved a mistake to drive a strong nation, which in order not to venture its all offered its hand in peace, into summoning all its slumbering forces to the national battle."

The Frankfort Zeitung says:

"President Wilson's reply can not be said to mark an advance on the path of peace. On the contrary another spirit speaks in the note. The spirit of Clemenceau and Lloyd George makes its presence felt and causes doubts to arise whether the path can lead to the goal."

AMERICAN AVIATOR ESCAPES HUN DEATH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Lieut. Frank Llewellyn of Quincy, Ill., former star half-back at Dartmouth, now a member of the air forces of the American Expeditionary Forces, fell while bombing the German lines east of the Meuse recently, but miraculously escaped death, according to a special dispatch today to the Chicago Daily News.

Llewellyn was participating in a bombing raid on Consenvoye, the dispatch said, when his airplane, riddled with bullets, fell into a shell hole in No Man's Land. He managed to fight off German attacks until nightfall, when he escaped to the American lines.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Tonight's news of Germany is regarded everywhere as the shadow of great events being cast before them.

News dispatches this evening under an Amsterdam date line said the Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant had issued a special edition in which the report was published that Germany had capitulated and Emperor William had abdicated.

Another dispatch, under a London date line, quoted Reuter's, Ltd., as reporting the German reply to the President's most recent note was expected to be communicated immediately and was likely to constitute a general acceptance of the conditions outlined by the President as precedent to peace.

Reports also were received in London, dispatches said, through diplomatic channels, from Holland, that the German reply probably would be sent today and would be an acceptance of President Wilson's terms with some stipulation to the effect that the interests of the German people must be respected.

Later, the Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant withdrew its statement while the British Official Press Bureau announced it had been informed officially that such rumors had no foundations, in fact.

There is in Washington no official word that the Kaiser has abdicated or he has been overthrown, or Germany is ready to accept all of President Wilson's terms.

Officials and diplomatists, cautious and conservative by nature and practice, regard with incredulity intimations that one or all of these has happened. Of course, they all hope they have; they all know that one or all of them is inevitable.

The official opinion in the capital tonight is that coming of these things is timed only by the unknown degree to which German military power has been broken. There may be more information on that point in the chancelleries of the Allies than in Washington.

When President Wilson's reply to the German peace proffer went forth Monday night, it was predicted here that if it did not bring a complete and unconditional surrender of the military autocracy, the German people themselves would force one. President Wilson's words were a plain invitation to the German people to take such a step and an ultimatum that there would be no peace with kaiserism.

The coming hours will show how the leaven has worked; the indications in today's dispatches from London, Paris and Holland suggest the progress of the ferment.

Most significant of all is regarded the report from Holland by way of London that Germany will reply immediately to President Wilson accepting all his terms and asking only guarantees for the interests of Germany and the German people.

GUARANTEES NEXT ISSUE.

When the German reply to President Wilson's note comes, this government's only course is to forward it to the co-belligerents.

Guarantees for the interests of Germany and the German people, which may be asked, will not intervene as an obstacle if guarantees are sought in sincere terms.

If they are put forth as another vehicle for quibble, an opportunity of diplomatic evasion and trickery, or a negotiated peace, they will meet only one reply.

If they mean guarantees for the integrity and sovereignty of the Germany which is rightfully German, always considering the determinations of the human beings concerned, no obstacle is foreseen. If they mean guarantees for the right of the German people to live their lives under a peaceful responsible government which does not menace the life of the world, President Wilson's utterances on the subject, officials believe, already have given the answer.

DIFFERENCES SEEN.

Guarantees for the interests of Germany, involving only Germans, it was pointed out, are quite apart from the self-determination of the oppressed nationalities in Austria, for which President Wilson has pledged the peace to secure opportunity for an autonomous development.

There always is the possibility that the conditions President Wilson has laid down as the basis for a peace already have come about in Germany. Diplomats noticed that Chancellor Maximilian sent a note and that when President Wilson answered with an inquiry, it was Foreign Secretary Solf, not the Chancellor, who replied, and that Solf spoke of a new government in Germany. It would be without precedent if the German peace party actually was in possession of an imperial rescript or other secret act renouncing the power of the Kaiser and his party, when the reply to President Wilson's inquiry was sent. It would not be without precedent if the negotiation was begun with a maneuver for the best possible terms, holding back the last card—the downfall of Kaiserism.

"If the conditions for an armistice are accepted the arrangements will be made, not by a mixed commission, but by Marshal Foch and the co-belligerent commanders. These will be the means of taking from Germany every agency with which she could break her word if she would; the occupation by Allied forces of such places as Strassburg, Metz and Coblenz; turning over to the Allies of her fleet and submarine bases; with recall of her submarines (which today's dispatches hinted she was ready to do) and surrender of munitions of war, also the agencies by which others might be produced, and probably the employment of the great war machine plants of Germany to repair industrial damage done in Belgium and France.

The chief question in the minds of public men tonight is: "Is the German military power really so broken as to be ready to accept the Allies' terms?"

BOHEMIA RISES IN REVOLT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A dispatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says in Prague the streets from the suburbs to the city proper are occupied by troops armed with hand grenades and machine guns in consequence of a threat by the Czechs to call a general strike throughout Bohemia.

The dispatch adds that pamphlets have been circulated declaring that a Czech republic will be proclaimed shortly.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—Meetings called by the Czecho-Slovak Council at Prague to protest against the export of foodstuffs from Bohemia resulted in a general strike, which is developing into a revolt, according to dispatches from Zurich to today's Paris newspapers. Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the country, and German and Hungarian troops are occupying Prague, Pilsen, Pisek and Tabor.

The dispatches report that the movement has spread to Moravia, and that there has been fighting at Brunn, the capital; Olmutz and Skoda, the latter the seat of the big Austrian gun plant, where work is said to have been suspended.

Machine guns, it is added, have been posted in the principal streets of Prague, and artillery has been put into position. The population, it is declared, is in no wise intimidated, and there is reason to believe the people have arms. It is reported that fighting is going on in Prague.

Outnumbered, American and Allied Troops in North Russia Hold Gains on Dvina River

NEW FAILURE BY BOLSHEVIKI.

Yanks and British Laugh at Propaganda.

Americans and Russians in New Advance.

Another Attempt is Made on Life of Lenine.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ARCHANGEL, Tuesday, Oct. 15.—Allied forces, including Americans, are engaged in repulsing heavy Bolshevik attacks on both banks of the Dvina, 150 miles north of Ketlass, in the north Russian fighting zone.

The Americans and Russians have advanced in the direction of Welsk, northeast of Vologda.

The Bolsheviki are striving to regain the positions which were won after hard-fought struggles by Americans and Scotch on September 21. Under an almost constant bombardment for more than a week, the Allies have repulsed many infantry attacks and inflicted considerable losses. These positions include villages on opposite sides of the Dvina River, some of which are a high bluff at a strategic bend in the stream. Around this bend Bolshevik gunboats, protected by mine fields and a low, sandy island, have delivered a bombardment with shells of all calibers.

The Allies, meanwhile, have been forced to strive against the rapidly-falling river, which is full of sand bars. The garrison, though greatly outnumbered in men and artillery, have struggled waist deep in the swamps and knee deep in the muddy roads, capturing several guns and machine guns. An American engineer lieutenant and a few men crossed the river under a heavy fire and rescued a gun from a disabled tug on which the Bolsheviki had centered their fire. The next day the same lieutenant, with a sergeant, braved the same dangers in an effort to repair tugs caught under a heavy shower of shrapnel fire. They tried to swim for the shore, but were swept away by the swift current and drowned.

The Bolsheviki now are trying to spread their propaganda among the Allied troops. Captured trenches and villages on the Dvina front were full of proclamations printed in English, asking the British and Americans not to fight. The proclamations were laughed at by the British and Americans as particularly inconsistent with Bolshevik treatment of prisoners, whom they many times have mutilated.

LENINE AGAIN SHOT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 16.—Another attempt has been made upon the life of Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik Premier, according to the Leipsig Abend Zeitung General Anzeiger's Kiev correspondent. Lenine received a bullet in the shoulder from a revolver in the hands of M. Dwanitzke of the information bureau of the Soviets. Dwanitzke was arrested.

UKRAINE REVOLT SPREADS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 16.—Insurrection is spreading in the Ukraine and recently extended throughout the entire government of Podolia, according to dispatches to the Politiken. At several places, it is reported, the German troops are siding with the rebels.

Several thousand troops are declared to have hoisted the red flag near Ekaterinoslav and to have killed their officers. They now are marching to Kharkov to join the revolutionary soldiers who hold the town.

CANADIAN LIST.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15. — The following Californians are included in the Canadian casualty list: Wounded, A. Honeywood, Watts, Cal.; ill, Capt. D. J. K. Turnbull, Los Angeles, Cal.

MICHIGAN CAMPAIGN LEADERS ARE JAILED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Allan A. Templeton, Frank W. Blair and Thomas P. Phillips, leaders of the Republican United States Senatorial campaign in Michigan, were recommitted to jail on charges of contempt in the Federal court here today. On notice of appeal, however, they were immediately paroled in the custody of their counsel.

The parole was subsequently changed by the court to the release of the defendants on their own recognizances for a period of twenty days. Meantime, their counsel, Martin W. Littleton, will appeal the case to the United States Supreme Court.

The alleged contempt involves the refusal of the defendants to testify here in a grand jury investigation of campaign expenses.

TERSE ARMY MESSAGE CARRIES DEATH NEWS.

GUNSHOT WOUNDS IN THIGH KILL MAN IN CANADIAN ENGINEERS CORPS.

"Dear Madam: Regret to inform you that Sapper George Charles Johnson, aged 43 years, Canadian Engineer, officially reported died of wounds October 6. Gunshot wounds in right thigh."

This message, announcing another heroic sacrifice in liberty's cause, was received yesterday by Mrs. G. C. Johnson at her home, No. 941 Georgia street. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson formerly lived in Detroit, from which city Mr. Johnson went to Windsor, Can., to enlist in December of 1917. He was sent to France in January, 1918, as a member of the Canadian Engineers, Fifth Battalion. Mrs. Johnson came to Los Angeles last February and it was the intention of Mr. Johnson to come to this city to live after the end of the war.

Word has been received from the War Department by Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bisbee, No. 2323 West Sixth street, who recently arrived from Oak Park, Ill., that their only son, First Sergeant Earl Brunsen Bisbee of Company A, Third Separate Battalion, Marine Corps, was killed in action in France on September 25.

Sergt. Bisbee was well known in California. He was an instructor at the Davis agricultural school of the University of California when he enlisted as a private in the Marine Corps. He was born at Prairie du Chien, Wis., and was 28 years old. He was a graduate of Ames College, Iowa, and arrived in California four years ago.

Sergt. Bisbee leaves his parents, a sister, Miss Bessie Bisbe, and a widow and a daughter of 4 years.

PASADENA, Oct. 16.—Lieut. Arthur Elton Hamilton, son of City Commissioner and Mrs. A. L. Hamilton, was severely wounded in action September 24, in fighting northwest of Verdun. His father has received a telegram from the War Department to this effect. He is an officer in the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Infantry, and has been in France for more than a year. His condition is not regarded as critical.

Lieut. Hamilton is a graduate of the Pasadena High School and of Stanford University, class of 1911. For two years he was associated with the Los Angeles Insurance and Trust Company. In 1913 he was admitted to the bar. He attended the first officers' training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco.

VENICE, Oct. 15.—Corp. Charles Dewey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Dewey, No. 25 Hamilton avenue, Del Rey, was killed in action September 6, according to a dispatch from Washington. He enlisted in Arizona about two years ago and was sent to Camp Kearny and later to France.

He went to school here and later worked in the Venice Drug Company's store before going to Arizona. He was 19 years old when he enlisted.

Herbert Farnsworth, who used to be in Company E here, is said to be in a hospital somewhere in France. No particulars have been received. His sister, Mrs. Holoway, lives on Elena avenue, this city.

COLTON, Oct. 16.—That their son, Ross Espinosa, who has been in France for the past six months, was reported missing in action, is the news received by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Espinosa, well-known Spanish residents. The young soldier, 21 years old, is the eldest of seven children. He enlisted a year ago in April in Company K at San Bernardino, and was first sent to Arcadia then to Camp Kearny. Later he was transferred to Company G, One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Infantry. His last letter from France was dated August 21. It stated he had been gassed and in the hospital two weeks, but was on his way back to the front. He has fought in the battle of Chateau Thierry.

ONTARIO, Oct. 16.—The War Department has informed Will Straker of South Malcolm street, this city, that his nephew, Charles E. Straker, a well-known Ontario boy, was killed in action in France on September 24. Straker tried several times to enlist in the navy and in the Aviation Corps, but was rejected. He was drafted in May and shortly after he arrived at Camp Lewis he was sent overseas. He was with the Three Hundred and Fourteenth Engineers Corps, which saw action almost immediately and sent back trophies picked up during battle shortly after he arrived in France. He was 26 years old, and is the second Ontario man to fall in action, the first being Ralph Kingery, who was also the first California man to fall on the field of honor.

CANADIAN LIST.

OTTAWA (Ont.) Oct. 16.—The following names of Americans appear in today's overseas casualty list:

Died of wounds: W. D. Karry, Healdsburg, Cal.

Wounded: Lieut. J. Aubrey, San Francisco.

BRITISH ACKNOWLEDGE INDIA'S BIG WAR AID.

CONTRIBUTES 1,115,189 MEN AND NEARLY HUNDRED MILLION POUNDS STERLING.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 16 (British Wireless Service.)—Gen. Allenby's great victories in Palestine and Syria, in which India has played a prominent part, make the time opportune to place on record the answer of India to the call to arms issued by the British empire.

Indian troops have borne their share of the war in France, Mesopotamia, Egypt the Dardanelles, Salohiki, East Africa and in Central Asia. Up to July 31, 1918, India had contributed no fewer than 1,115,189 men to the British army.

The first Indian war loan reached the sum of 40,000,000 pounds sterling and the second loan has reached even a greater amount.

India has sent to the various theaters of war more than 1500 miles of railroad track, 250 engines and 4500 cars.

BONUS TELEGRAPHERS WANTED FOR FRANCE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The Signal Corps needs 750 bonus telegraphers for service in France. Men skilled in telegraphy between the ages of 18 and 55, inclusive, the War Department announced today, should apply at once for details to the chief signal officer of the army, Washington.

Requisitions have been received from Gen. Pershing for this number of bonus Morse telegraph operators to be sent to France between now and June 30, 1919. One hundred and fifty qualified men are to be sent abroad immediately and the balance will go overseas at the rate of about eighty per month.

"Men between the ages mentioned," says an official statement, "who are qualified are needed badly at the front and unusual opportunities are afforded them for early service. Bonus telegraph operators who enter the service will not be kept in training camps for instruction, but only for a sufficient time to outfit them with the necessary clothing and equipment.

"Qualified bonus telegraphers, who have physical disqualifications for active service, will be accepted for this duty overseas. The Signal Corps states specifically that the physical standard will be lowered in cases of men having the necessary technical qualifications, so that practically anyone who is physically able to do his work will be accepted."

BELGIUM SOON REDEEMED

French Officer Points Out Half is Now Being Cleared of Hun Army.

BY PHILLIP GIBBS.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WAR CORRESPONDENTS' HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 15.—The battle in Flanders, which began yesterday morning, is being fought by combined Belgian, French and British armies under the supreme command of King Albert.

Belgium soon will be redeemed. French officers see half of the task near completion.

The British Second Army, under Gen. Sir Herbert Plumer, is on the right of the group of armies, with the Belgians on the left, between Roulers and Menin, and the French are in the center around Roulers itself, which they had the honor of taking, in touch with the Belgians.

This international action gained important success along the whole line of attack, and it is interesting that the number of prisoners captured were almost exactly the same for the troops of each nation, amounting to about 4000, that is, some 12,000 in all. Our own troops also captured some fifty guns.

When I went into the French area while the battle was in progress yesterday, French officers were watching its progress as far as any view could be had through the screen of wet mist. Batches of prisoners trudged back, and lightly-wounded men came into the field dressing stations. Thousands of French soldiers passed and passed, followed by their light transport. It was a pageant of men with hard, bronzed faces and a veteran look under their steel casques.

After four years of war in the fields, they are stern and grim looking, in the mass, these English soldiers, who still manage to find a joke or two along the line of march, and they are looking more shapely out in profile than Belgians in their yellow helmets.

Seeing them, one marvels that after all these years of war France could still put in the field such wonderful battalions. Each man seemed picked because of his hardihood and fitness.

A French officer observing the pile of ruins offered me a light for a cigarette, and, pointing to the flashes around Roulers, said:

"We are getting on. If all goes well we shall soon have half of Belgium. If the enemy does not come out we shall drive him out."

It is certain that the enemy does not mean to get out yet without a heavy fight for it. I have been told how on our line of attack he held his front far more strongly than usual, putting his weight and strength there rather than in the zones of resistance farther back.

It is the same on the British and French front. There was hard fighting before the German defense lines could be broken over the Lys rivers, Winkelsteler and Gheluvelt, with Flemish names hard to spell and to say.

All this country between the Flanders ridges is in flats cut up by canals, hedges and ditches, with avenues of poplars, and the enemy has made use of these natural features for defensive purposes.

BRITISH OCCUPY TRIPOLI

Germany Warns Turkey of Destruction at Sign of Defection.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 16.—British cavalry has occupied Tripoli, forty-five miles north of Beirut and Homa, about eighty-five miles north of Damascus, according to an official statement on operations in Palestine, issued tonight. The communication says:

"On the occupation of Beirut by our troops, October 8, sixty Turkish officers and 600 men of other ranks were made prisoner. Ballbek was entered by our armored car batteries October 9, and it was ascertained that a force of about 500 Turks had surrendered to the local inhabitants.

"Our advanced cavalry and armored cars also occupied Tripoli Sunday and Homs Tuesday without opposition, the latter town having been reported by our air service as evacuated and in flames, October 12.

"Turkish cavalry detachments retiring through Homs have been located at El Rastan, eleven miles north. Satisfactory conditions prevail in the recently-occupied territory."

CONTROL TURKS FROM SEA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—With the Berlin-Constantinople Railroad cut by the Allied occupation of Nish, Germany is relying upon its Black Sea fleet to hold Turkey in line.

Information has been received at the State Department that the Turkish government has been told by Berlin that the fleet will open fire on the Ottoman capital at the first sign of defection.

This German fleet consists largely of warships captured from the Russians, but is believed to be strong enough to control, at present at least, the Turkish government. It was pointed out that with the British forces clearing Palestine and Mesopotamia of Turkish control, Turkey must hold to Constantinople as a last hope of maint

Russians, but is believed here to be strong enough to control, for the present at least, the Turkish government. It was pointed out today that with the British forces rapidly clearing Palestine and Mesopotamia of Turkish control, Turkey must hold to Constantinople as its only hope of maintaining any power as a government.

News from Copenhagen that Said Pasha has been appointed Premier and Minister of War in the new Turkish Cabinet was interpreted as meaning that Berlin still is not without a friend at court. Because of his long service as the chief of the Turkish army staff and his connection with Germans officers, Said is looked upon as friendly to Germany.

The accuracy of reports that the Union and Progress Club, the most powerful organization in Turkey, had been closed at the demand of the Turkish army staff, was doubted by officials here, who said such action would be tantamount to a military revolution. If the report is true, they declared, anything might happen in Constantinople.

MY EPIDEMIC EST REACHED.

Says Influenza Definitely Under Control.

Fall in Cities Continues to Mount Unabated.

Reports 6500 Cases Up to October 14.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—While influenza continues to spread in the civilian population generally, a continued decrease in new cases in army camps tonight led medical officers to believe the back of the epidemic among soldiers is broken. Secretary Baker tonight indicated measures taken by the Surgeon-General's office to fight the disease under control.

Cases of influenza among the troops reported during the twenty-four hours ending at noon today, 6498 against 6498 yesterday, were more than twice that number reported a week ago. Pneumonia cases totaled 1895, compared with 1895 yesterday, and deaths were the same, a total of 179. Influenza cases reported from all camps since the beginning of the epidemic total 257,000 pneumonia cases 39,276 and deaths 6500.

Reports to the public health service showed influenza cases in many parts of the country. An improvement was noted in some cities, particularly Vermont, New Hampshire and Tennessee.

It is estimated there are at least 100,000 cases of the disease in Virginia, the estimate for Connecticut placed at 110,000 up to today. Epidemics continued to spread in many parts of Arkansas, while new cases were reported from practically all sections of Kansas, Oklahoma and other states.

Over 6500 cases had been reported to October 14. No sharp decline was noted in any of the cities, but the number of deaths continued to rise steadily. In some cities new cases have appeared where the disease was mild.

The epidemic continued unabated in

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Public schools in 16 cities, which have been closed for three weeks because of influenza, will reopen Monday. The School Board announced that physicians and nurses would be in attendance and take steps to protect the health of children. Theaters and other places of amusement, soda fountains and liquor saloons also will be closed, restrictions having been lifted at midnight Saturday.

SALT LAKE.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 16.—The epidemic appears to be increasing, according to Dr. T. [illegible] Health Commissioner, who announced today that there have been 1000 cases throughout the city. About 1000 of these are in Salt Lake and Ogden in which one town, one person has succumbed to the disease, while the other is [illegible] the community without any medical aid. Deaths from influenza reported to the Board of Health total more than fifty.

EL PASO.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EL PASO, Oct. 16.—Spanish influenza is spreading rapidly through Northern Mexico. The death toll of the epidemic is reported to be heavy because of living conditions among the poorer classes.

In the valley settlements on the American and Mexican sides of the border many Mexicans are dying of the disease. Native carpenters are working night and day to make coffins for the victims.

NEW MEXICO.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLOVIS (N. M.) Oct. 16.—Owing to the presence of 1000 cases of Spanish influenza here, the city authorities have ordered all business houses closed until further notice except drug, grocery, meat, hardware and dry goods stores, garages and restaurants, which will be allowed to remain open for two hours daily.

MODESTO.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MODESTO, Oct. 16.—The city health officer issued an order here today that because of the spread of influenza in Modesto the health of the community demands that there be no public gatherings of any character. The theaters were closed here tonight and the pastors of all local churches announced there would be no services until the disease was checked. Fifty-seven cases of influenza have been reported to the health department. Only one death has occurred.

MANY CASES IN ARIZONA.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Oct. 16.—The State health officer, on duty at Winslow, telegraphs that 316 cases of influenza are under treatment at that point, where it is felt that the worst has passed. There have been twenty deaths. Several nurses are prostrated from overwork and one nurse, from Phoenix, is suffering from influenza. Teachers and high school girls have volunteered as helper nurses and merchants have organized an ambulance service for the conveyance of patients to hospitals that have been created in two schoolhouses. Only a few new cases now are being reported daily.

At Holbrook, the county seat of Navajo county, the situation is even worse, for there are 200 prostrations, representing more than a third of the village population. Dr. W. W. Wilkinson of Phoenix is in charge, hurried there to help an overburdened local practitioner.

Conditions in the Globe-Miami district are considered alarming, as no less than 300 new cases were reported to County Physician Fox within forty-eight hours, as well as two deaths. The mining companies are establishing annexes to their hospitals to care for influenza that develops among their workmen and their families, and Dr. Fox will use the East Globe schoolhouse as a hospital. The disease has invaded the Apache Indian reservation, whence there is report of several deaths, mainly due to lack of proper sanitation.

Relatively few cases have been known in Phoenix thus far, as the authorities acted quickly in closing the schools and forbidding all public gatherings.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL TO OPEN DOORS TODAY.

TWENTY CASES OF INFLUENZA ARE REPORTED AMONG JAIL PRISONERS.

Twenty-two deaths attributed to influenza or pneumonia that developed from attacks of that malady were reported to the health department yesterday. The total number of new cases said to be influenza reported was 631. This included twenty cases among prisoners at the East Side Jail.

Health Commissioner Powers stated last evening that he has prohibited the general gathering of employees of the large department stores in Liberty Bond campaign work.

The capacity of the County Hospital's influenza wards to handle emergency cases was reached yesterday. It is expected that the influenza isolation hospital at No. 936 Yale street will be ready to care for patients at noon today. One hundred beds were set up at this hospital yesterday. Mrs. Harriet Cochrane is to be the superintendent of nurses, and Mrs. West, dietitian at the Los Angeles High School, will have charge of the cooking for patients.

Managers of the French Hospital, on College street, announced yesterday that this hospital will receive influenza patients. Several other hospitals have taken similar action, although others do not admit patients of this character.

DELIVER EIGHT SHIPS; LAST WEEK IS RECORD.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Eight ships of 42,350 deadweight tons, five steel, three wood, were delivered to the Shipping Board for the week ending October 11, the board announced today.

SUCCESS SEEN IN LOAN DRIVE.

Largest Day of Campaign Nets Total of $315,000,000.

Three Days Left to Get Remaining $2,730,000,000.

Twelfth District has Sixty-four Per Cent. Quota.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The largest single day's subscription—$315,000,000—reported to the Treasury Department tonight, raised hopes that the optimism of the twelve district Liberty Loan campaign managers may be justified and the fourth war loan prove an unqualified success.

Tonight the total of subscriptions had mounted to $3,269,001,500, leaving $2,730,000,000 to be gathered tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Officials believe a billion or more will be counted up after the campaign has closed Saturday night from the flood of last-minute subscriptions. But they fear that unless the officially-tabulated total runs considerably above the $4,000,000,000 mark on the latest reports Saturday, the loan may fail to reach its goal.

Official reports do not show any Federal reserve district above 100 per cent., but Minneapolis district managers, with a recognized showing of 80 per cent., assert they have enough pledges to put them over.

SHOWING BY DISTRICTS.

By districts showings tonight were as follows:

District—	Subscriptions.	Per ct.
St. Louis	$221,704,650	105
Minneapolis	168,215,950	100
Boston	397,063,950	67
Dallas	77,850,250	61
San Francisco	237,070,400	59
Chicago	500,000,000	57
Richmond	133,080,200	54
Kansas City	133,152,400	51
Cleveland	300,487,700	50
New York	947,000,000	47
Atlanta	81,319,400	44
Philadelphia	210,984,600	42

This was Navy Day in the campaign. Throughout the world American sailors and naval officers turned in pledges of part of their small earnings to help pay the war's expenses. Even without today's additions, the navy has subscribed more than $22,000,000, Rear-Admiral T. J. Cowie, Navy Liberty Loan officer, reported today.

M'ADOO ISSUES STATEMENT.

Secretary McAdoo tonight issued this statement:

"In the coming three days the American people must decide whether the Fourth Liberty Loan shall be a success or a failure.

"It would be fatal to minimize the gravity of the nation's problem. In three days we must raise almost $3,000,000,000.

"The American people should face this stupendous task with the spirit of the American navy, in honor of which we have just celebrated Navy Day. On land and sea all over the world the men of the American navy do not regard this Liberty Loan merely as a campaign to raise money; they look upon it rather as a battle, and they are plunging into this battle with the spirit of Manila Bay.

"Navy men are doubling their subscriptions. Many battleships are reporting many men already on the honor roll.

"Let every individual American take fresh inspiration from the thrilling record of the navy.

"Let us convoy the navy's ships into the Kiel Canal with our Liberty Loan dollars.

"Match the navy!"

ARMY BUYS $30,000,000.

For the fighting men on land, Brig.-Gen. Lord, army Liberty Loan officer, reported that soldiers, exclusive of the American Expeditionary Forces, had bought $30,000,000 in bonds up to last Monday, and Capt. Robert W. Daniel, assistant army Liberty Loan officer, estimated that this would be raised to $45,000,000 by the end of the week.

"The demand by members of the American Expeditionary Force in France for facilities through which to subscribe was met by the branch offices in Paris of the Equitable Trust Company, the Guaranty Trust Company and the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York," the War Department announcement says.

"One of these companies provided an exceptional opportunity when, through its arrangement with the Societe de Generale, 400 branches of that bank, scattered throughout France, were put at the disposal of our soldiers for the receiving of subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

A telegram received from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., said numbers of interned German prisoners wished to invest in Liberty Bonds. Permission was given by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

Reports from all sections of the country show that railroad men had subscribed for $109,638,000 at the close of business October 11.

TWELFTH DISTRICT.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Subscriptions in the Twelfth Federal Reserve Bank district up to tonight totaled $258,229,850, or 64 per cent. of its quota of $402,000,000 of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

According to loan campaign officials, subscribers in the district numbered 1,154,938, compared with 1,272,585 for the entire third loan campaign. California reported 596,615 subscribers.

Every State in the district was reported to have passed the 50 per cent. mark. The States, with their percentages, ranked as follows:

Oregon, 95; Idaho, 84; Utah, 83; Washington, 72; Arizona, 66; Southern California, 63; Nevada, 57; Northern California, 53.

In the contest to name fighting tanks on the basis of oversubscriptions to the loan, counties in each State were reported waging a spirited contest.

Trinity county led in Northern California. In Southern California Imperial county led. Orange was second and Inyo third.

San Francisco up to tonight only had subscribed $61,766,900 of its quota of $107,876,500. This did not include $15,000,000 subscribed today by business men at a loan rally.

Northern California subscribed $1,876,000, bringing the section's total subscription to $64,666,550, or 83 per cent. of its quota of $77,000,000 exclusive of San Francisco's allotment.

NEW YORK.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—With only three days remaining before the end of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, the New York Federal reserve district tonight was credited officially with only $847,520,850, or 47.1 per cent. of its $1,800,000,000 quota. Tonight's total showed a gain for the day of $132,532,350, the greatest since the drive began.

New York City has raised $597,757,700, or 44.7 per cent. of its allotment.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey today made an additional subscription of $4,000,000, bringing its total to $8,000,000. Other large subscriptions include: Guaranty Trust Company (additional,) $21,047,700; E. I. Du Pont de Nemours Company, $7,000,000; Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company (additional,) $5,000,000; Utah Copper Company (additional,) $2,000,000; Western Electric Company (additional,) $1,230,000; Phelps-Dodge Corporation (additional,) Nevada Consolidated Copper Company (additional,) Ray Consolidated Copper Company (additional,) Chino Copper Company (additional,) $1,000,000 each.

The New York Stock Exchange for the first time in its history today pledged its credit for public purposes by borrowing $1,000,000 "to back up President Wilson" by buying bonds. In establishing this precedent, governors of the exchange expressed the hope that they had set an example for similar institutions throughout the country.

CHICAGO.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The Seventh Federal Reserve District has approximately $113,000,000 still to raise to reach its Fourth Liberty Loan quota, it was announced tonight. Of this deficiency Chicago has to make up $84,000,000. Subscriptions in Chicago today totaled $10,000,000.

Iowa, after making its quota in three days following the start of the campaign, now has $155,000,000, $7,100,000 over its allotment. All counties of that State are over.

BOSTON.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Charles D. Haines of New York announced today that virtually all State Governors had indorsed the plan of the National Council of American Patriots, of which he is president, for country-wide observance of next Saturday as "Pershing Day," to give a fitting climax to the loan campaign.

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Philippine Islands have oversubscribed their quota of $6,000,000, and expect to exceed it by 50 per cent. before the campaign closes, according to information received today by the New York agency of the Philippine National Bank.

DANES ASK SCHLESWIG TAKEN FROM PRUSSIA.

ANOTHER PEOPLE, UNDER YOKE OF KAISER SEEKING FREEDOM.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 16.—The Goeteborg Handels of Sjoefartstidning, a Swedish paper, says there has been bitter disappointment to many Scandinavians in President Wilson's peace programme at not finding one word about Danish Schleswig.

The paper cites the book of Haulvereiere of the Sorbonne, which gives an imperishable picture of Schleswig's silent struggle and its heroes, and continues:

"We hope President Wilson and his allies will not forget to add as item 15, reparation of the violation of justice committed by Prussia with regard to Danish Schleswig. As long as a part of a peace and liberty-loving nation is trampled down by the conqueror the world is not a good and safe place to live in, and the time of conquest and destruction is not over."

The Tidends of Copenhagen prints an article by a Danish jurist of high standing, Supreme Court barrister Asmussen, who speaks about the hopes connected with the peace conference:

"The peoples or parts of peoples suffering now under foreign rule must be liberated and now is the right moment to put in a claim."

DISMISS CHARGE AGAINST PACKER

Wilson & Company Exonerated in Meat Scandal.

Searching Inquiry Fails to Substantiate Claims.

Head of Concern Corrects Wrongful Impression.

The following telegram has been received by The Times from Thomas E. Wilson of Wilson & Co., Chicago:

UNION STOCKYARDS (Ill.) Oct. 15.—The Federal Trade Commission, finding that the charges made against Wilson & Co. of furnishing unwholesome meats to the army and navy were based on wrong information, has dismissed the charges. Please refer to your files of May and June of this year and you will appreciate the harm done Wilson & Co. by the stories published concerning the charges. I am sure that you will wish to be as fair as the Federal Trade Commission, which after the most searching and prolonged investigation, has fully exonerated us, and that you will give the news of the exoneration the same importance and prominence given the charges and the reports of the investigation itself.

We have never been in doubt as to the outcome of the investigation, but we have realized the wide extent of the damage done us in the minds of the public by the sensational headlines and stories concerning both charges and hearings especially in the minds of the parents and relatives of our soldiers and sailors who are depending largely upon the American packers for their food supplies, challenging as these statements did the very patriotism of this company. At the time I asked the public to withhold judgment until we could present our side of the case, knowing that we would fully convince the Federal Trade Commission that its information was incorrect.

I believe that you will appreciate the harm done Wilson & Co. by the published reports and their headlines, and that you will in both news and editorial columns give full justice to us at this time.

[Signed] THOS. E. WILSON,
President, Wilson & Co.

Thomas E. Wilson, president of Wilson & Co., made the following statement last night concerning the Federal Trade Commission's exoneration of his company through its order dated October 11:

Full details of the Federal Trade Commission's decision have not yet reached me, but we have never had the slightest doubt that we would be completely exonerated the moment the charges were made. I personally asked the commission for an immediate hearing and investigation. This request was granted, and the first hearing was in New York, while the concluding hearing was in Washington.

I am glad to say that the hearings were ably and fairly conducted by the commission. They certainly investigated every charge against us in the most searching way and left no avenue of possible evidence unnoticed.

On our part I believe I am right in saying that not only did we present all the evidence we had in our own defense, but that we freely offered every available bit of information to the commission which would enable it to sift the charges to the bottom and arrive at a definite final decision.

Without criticising the Federal Trade Commission, which acted within its powers, I am more than justified in saying that the publiahed reports of the charges and the hearings both in newspapers and in various other periodicals worked incalculable harm to Wilson & Co. This injury is in the minds of the public and was occasioned by the impression given the average individual by what seemed to be valid statements that Wilson & Co. had been guilty of flagrant disregard of the rights of the people, as well as of the common decencies of business. It will take a long time, years in fact, before this impression wears out of the public mind, but we are relying upon the fair-mindedness of the press to see to it that both in the news and editorial columns our exoneration is given just as much prominence and importance as were given the reports of the charges and hearings.

This decision, coming at this time, will strengthen the faith of the public in the ability and integrity of those officials of the army and navy whose duty it is to purchase food supplies for our forces, as well as, I hope, in the carefulness and exactness with which Wilson & Co. is and has been carrying out its enormous tasks in providing the meats and meat food products which the government requires of it. The exoneration is gratifying to us, even though it was fully anticipated. I believe those officials of the commission who directly participated in the hearings will say that our side of the case was conducted as rigidly and impartially as was theirs.

APPEAL FREES THREE FROM STATE PRISON.

MANY PRISONERS AFFECTED BY INDETERMINATE SENTENCE DECISION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Immediate release from San Quentin penitentiary was granted Edwin Bouchard, Oscar Jacobson and John Turek by the State District Court of Appeal here today, when a petition protesting the right of the State to incarcerate them further under the indeterminate sentence law was upheld. Approximately 150 prisoners in San Quentin and Folsom penitentiaries will be affected in like measure in forthcoming petitions, the Attorney-General's office announced.

The men committed their offenses before the indeterminate sentence law was passed, but were sentenced under that law. They appealed and were given a definite sentence of a year. In their latest petition they held that this definite sentence should start from the date of their original incarceration. As the sentences computed from that date have expired, the men were given their liberty.

Bouchard and Jacobson were sent up from San Diego and Alameda counties, respectively, for grand larceny and Turek from Fresno county for burglary.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair becomes charming, wavy, lustrous and thick in few moments.

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

For a few cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes lighty wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excess oil, and in just a few moments you have double the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

DUCK HUNTING BEATS RECORD.

Nothing Like it Ever Seen in Southland.

Hunters Get the Limit Inside of Half-Hour.

Sprig by the Million, Report from Everywhere.

The early-morning drives on the ducks, when the duck season opened at daybreak yesterday morning, resembled the recent drives of the American doughboys on the west front—the duck hunters, like the doughboys, reached their objectives quickly, so quickly, in fact, that they were sorry they could not go on. Never since records have been kept in the Southland regarding duck season openings have the first-day reports been so good. In the old days of the pioneers, when anyone could shoot anything or any old time, there probably was some shooting that can compare with yesterday's duck shooting, but this generation has never seen nor heard of anything like it. One hunter returning from one of the clubs said: "There are sprig by the million; that's all I can say."

Louis Mellus, at the Casaderes Gun Club, probably hung up the best record made at any of the gun clubs. He got the limit in twenty minutes and was back in town at 8:30 in the morning.

FROM THE MOUNTAINS.

Credit for bringing about this state of affairs is due in a large measure to the State Fish and Game Commission, whose eternal vigilance in enforcing the fish and game laws with a heavy hand during the past few years deserves commendation. The Federal government has also lent a hand in the good work.

The best reports come from the gun clubs in lower Los Angeles and Orange counties, although there was good shooting reported from Buena Vista Lake, Owens Valley, Bear Valley and Elsinore. At these places it was impossible to get the limit as quickly, but it was bang-up sport, nevertheless.

Over in Imperial county anyone who didn't have duck for supper last night wasn't considered respectable. The most optimistic predictions regarding the shooting were fulfilled. The ducks have been having a gay old time with the crops of late, and yesterday morning the Imperial Valley farmer got his revenge. The Imperial Valley ducks shot were all fat ones, which showed the good living they have had at the expense of the ranchers.

The Tufts-Lyons Arms Company reports the following on what some of their customers did with their shotguns yesterday:

C. P. Mandaville got the limit as the new club near Mallard. He brought down nineteen sprig, two spoonies and four teal, and says that most of the hunters he talked with reported about that average, sprig being very much in evidence.

LOTS OF 'EM.

Others who got the limit early were:

Ed Golter and son, at Chico Land and Water Company; Ed Tufts, Cerritos Gun Club; Louis Mellus, Ed Houser, Dave Smith, Guy West, Casadores Gun Club; Frank Mellus, Bert West, Sunset; Ralph Sebree, W. Hopperstead, Sam McKee, L. P. Collette and Mell Nordlinger, Bixby Gun Club; Johnny Powers, Frank Chance, Jack Doyle, West Shore Gun Club.

Lea Myers at Lake View Inn, Elsinore, says he saw more birds yesterday morning than he has ever seen before at a season's opening.

The B. H. Dyas Company reports the following who got the limit early:

Jess Brown, Dr. Dixon, Matt Everhardy, A. K. Brauer, Charles Lick and Ed Zobelin, Casadores Gun Club; Ed Featherstone, Canvas Back Club; Theo Lohman, Andy Marshall, Dr. Hardy, Sunset; Joe Amestoy, Mike Amestoy, Frank Young, Walter Kays, Earl Mueller, Lomita Gun Club.

The Cline-Cline Company reports that Dr. W. L. Cooper and C. H. Rapp got some good birds at Sunset Beach, and Ed Trainor, the Lincoln High football coach, got the limit at Del Rey.

NO LOOPHOLE IN BERLIN ANSWER, SAYS ASQUITH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Ex-Premier Asquith in a speech today referred to President Wilson's latest note in reply to the peace proposals of Germany, saying:

"The reply which President Wilson has given to Germany is exactly what was required. It is terse, dignified and outspoken and goes to the root of the matter. It leaves no loophole to escape."

"We cannot imperil the ascendancy we have gained on sea and land or give breathing time to an enemy who could not be trusted to observe the rules of honor or humanity," he added.

Mr. Asquith said the main objective of the Allies was the destruction of Prussian militarism. "There is no one in the civilized world who does not feel the doom of war is sealed," he added.

Mr. Asquith declared overtures of the enemy came from people who knew in their hearts they would have to give up the game. The reply must come from the German people themselves. He said there was no one better qualified than President Wilson to be spokesman for the common cause.

ATHLETICS ON WEST FRONT.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.
Staff Correspondent of The Times.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.—The Knights of Columbus now have a representative with our division in the person of Attorney E. M. Leonard of San Francisco. He is planning to install a camionette by means of which he will distribute writing paper and cigarettes to the various units. This is really a job for about twenty men, as the division as a rule is distributed over a wide territory, which means that Mr. Leonard has his work cut out for him. Mr. Leonard is a personal friend of Attorney Joe Ford of Los Angeles.

Athletics are receiving considerable attention and providing relaxation for the men. Otto Emmanuel Friedland, formerly in charge of athletics, has resigned and gone back to the States. William Nelson, division Y director, was fortunate in picking a live one in Frank Ryan of New York. Ryan is a Catholic, but does not draw denominational lines when it comes to helping win the war. He formerly caught for the Washington club and played utility roles for the New York Giants. More recently he was scout for the New York Americans.

One of his first steps on taking over the job was to dig Louie Guisto out of the woods. His instinct as a trained scout enabled Ryan to do this, as Guisto's unit was literally in the bushes. Guisto is now a sergeant. Los Angeles fans will remember him as having played with Portland, though he left the Cleveland club to enter the service. He is the man around whom Ryan plans to build a divisional baseball team when he gets a line on the available talent. There are a number of other players in the division, although few as widely known as Guisto. Among them may be mentioned Joe Parker, Joe Perroni, Bud Sharpe (not the original,) Martin Tirrold and Pat Cummings, all products of Southern California sand lots.

Today a consignment of boxing gloves was received, and the gloves are being distributed. There are a number of clever mitt artists in our midst and the manly art of self-defense will soon be all the rage.

Eddie Flannigan of Los Angeles is pining for a scrap, and Leo Baierski stands ready to defend the 125-pound championship of California in France. Then there is Harry Zipperly and Danny O'Brien, who say they will ferment if they don't get a fight.

Battling Chico proved a great deep sea fighter on the way across. He had three fights on shipboard, and won them all by a knockout. His name, it is believed, will go down in history with that of Nelson and Farragut and Dewey. Willie Rooney's brother, Harry, is with us and claims to be some scrapper. Then there is "Pickles" Martin, who established himself as the best 132-pounder at Camp Lewis. He yearns to place a few opponents in brine. Eddie Shannon, who fought Leonard and Kilbane, is in a soak 'em mood, and Bert Forbes says they all look alike to him.

Lonnie Burke, who trained Roy Moore and took him East, says he can imagine DeWitt Van Court puffing out his cheeks and pawing at his mustache when he reads this list of talent and realizes what is coming off. It wouldn't surprise him if Van took the next boat across. Van is a few days over the draft age, but the army could give him a job teaching soldiers the best way to beat up Germans with their fists.

MILITARY HONORS FOR DEAD BRITISH ATTACHE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16. — With full military honors, the body of Capt. A. A. Mackintosh, assistant military attache at the British Embassy, who died recently from Spanish influenza, was buried today in Arlington National Cemetery.

Col. James Lockett attended the services as the personal representative of Secretary Baker and American soldiers with British sailors and marines accompanied the body to the grave.

Capt. Mackintosh was a son-in-law of the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, who was represented at the funeral by Lord Richard Nevill.

The Duke of Connaught, former Governor-General of Canada, under whom Capt. Mackintosh had served, was represented by Brig.-Gen. C. F. Trotter.

STANDARD BAGGAGE RULES FOR RAILROADS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Standardized baggage rules and rates will be made effective by all railroads December 1, the Railroad Administration announced today. No change will be made in the excess baggage rate, the free allowance of 150 pounds, the maximum weight per piece, nor the maximum dimensions of baggage. A convenience for commercial travelers will be the privilege of checking baggage to a point short of the final destination. Baby carriages, go-carts and bicycles will be checked at a small charge as heretofore, and invalid chairs will be checked free.

NOTED FRENCH FLYER KILLED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 16.—Lieut. Roland G. Garros, the noted French aviator, who was posted as missing on October 7 after a flight over the German lines, was shot down and killed October 4, a Berlin message today announced.

OUTBOUND ALASKANS CHOKE SHIP TRAFFIC.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 16.—Outbound Alaskans and Yukon Territory residents are pouring into White Horse, Y. T., and Skagway, Alaska, in such lrge numbers that a serious problem is being faced, C. J. Rogers, purchasing agent of the White Pass and Yukon Railway Company declared here today. A special steamer may be sent north to relieve the traffic congestion.

Between October 14 and 21, fully 800 people from Fairbanks, Tanana, Ruby, Dawson and other Yukon Valley points will reach White Horse on Yukon River steamboats. At White Horse they will take trains for Skagway, where they will await the southbound steamers.

High costs in the interior and high wages on the outside, it is said, are bringing this unprecedented number out.

O.E.S. GRAND CHAPTER NAMES NEW OFFICERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, Sacramento, was elected today Grand Worthy Matron of the California Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in its annual convention here. Other officers elected were:

Worthy Patron, B. W. Pierce, Los Angeles; Associated Grand Patron, S. C. Haake, Mill Valley; Grand Treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Beckley, Berkeley; Grand Secretary, Mrs. Kate J. Willitts, San Francisco.

SPAIN RE-ESTABLISHES CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MADRID, Tuesday, Oct. 15.—Constitutional guarantees have been re-established by the Cabinet. There has been a modification of the rules of censorship by the government. The Cabinet has authorized the floating of a loan of 250,000,000 pesetas.

LIBERTY FAIR TENNIS DRAWS NEW ENTRIES.

Many new entries have been turned in for the Liberty Fair Tennis tournament which is to be played on the Exposition Park courts October 26, 27, 31, November 1, 2 and 3. The county championships are at stake and all the Southern Californian experts and near-experts have signed up for the tourney.

It has been decided to hold junior doubles and boys' doubles, as the absence of older players will give the newer players a chance to make good. The entries in the junior doubles, boys from 16 to 19 years, are as follows: Huneke and Booth, Godshall and Wolff, Chambers and B. Hinkley, D. Hinkley and Barry, Ephlin and Troyer, Brown and Moore, Pickett and Myers. Those who are entered in the boys' doubles, under 15 years, are: Stillwell and Ephlin, Price and Smith, Houser and partner, Vasques and partner.

In the junior singles, a few names have been added to the list. Ralph Stillwell, Max Hunley, Ed Berry, Elwyn Brown and Walter Moore. Men's singles drew five new ones: S. E. Philpott, Ed Berry, Selly Balano and Harold Dickenson. William Price, Henry Duque, William Davies and Donald McCalla will play in the boys' singles.

In the list of names for the boys' doubles is found little Hawley Smith, Jr., the 10-year-old who surprised the fans by playing such a steady and heady game for a youngster in the recent city tournament, played on the Exposition Park courts.

SNOWY BAKER IS TEA PARTY GUEST.

"Snowy" Baker, Australia's famous athletic promoter, was the guest of honor at an informal tea (?) party given by Julian Eltinge, at his beautiful home overlooking Silver Lake, yesterday. Stars of the movie firmament were on hand and were thrilled by Snowy's vivid tales of his experiences in the Antipodes. Baker plans to enter the cinema industry as an actor.

Olive Thomas, Miss "Billie" Allen, Alma Francis, Mrs. William Selig of Chicago, Mrs. Bulah Barnes, Rosita Maristini, Mary Thurman, Juanita Hansen, Harry Mestayer and J. P. Barton were among the prominent motion picture and theatrical people present. Baker and Eltinge boxed several rounds in the latter's private gymnasium yesterday morning.

Trained Nurse Gives Recipe for Gray Hair

Gives Recipe for Simple Home-Made Remedy That Quickly Darkens It.

Mrs. A. Dixon, a well-known Brooklyn trained nurse, made the following statement regarding gray hair: "Streaked, faded or gray hair can be quickly turned black, brown or light brown, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a small box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for mixing and use come in each box.

"You need not hesitate to use Orlex as a $100.00 gold bond comes in each box guaranteeing the user that Orlex does not contain silver, lead, zinc, mercury, aniline, coal-tar products or their derivatives.

"It does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger."

COMMITTEE APPROVES ENGINEER'S REPORT.

AGENT DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF PROBE OF CRISWELL'S ALLEGED STATEMENTS.

Chief Engineer Howell of the Public Utilities Commission filed a report with the Public Service Committee of the Council yesterday defending the attitude of city officials in connection with the natural gas ordinance.

Last week the Council was requested by D. M. Folsom, director for the Pacific Coast of the United States Fuel Administration, Oil Division, to rescind the ordinance which provides that only natural gas be served in the city. The Council took no action, and the proposition will be presented to the people at the November election for their approval or disapproval.

Engineer Howell asserts in his report that the ordinance does not conflict with the government regulations, and charges that the Fuel Administration received its information about the gas situation from "outside" sources, rather than from the City Attorney or Public Utilities Commission.

The Engineer's report was approved by the committee and will be forwarded to National Fuel Administrator Garfield.

At the same time the City Council's Public Service Committee, composed of Councilmen Criswell, Conoway and Cleaveland, was approving the Howell report, which asserts that the Fuel Administration received its information from "outside" sources, the rumor was current that Federal authorities were investigating complaints made against Councilman Criswell.

The rumor was to the effect that Councilman Criswell's statements in open session of the City Council were such as to tend to throw discredit upon the actions of Federal officials and to militate against their recommendations for the conservation of fuel and material and labor. The rumor also had it that the investigation was to include statements published in the Evening Express, that were said to reflect upon the motives of Prof. D. M. Folsom in his recommendations regarding the use of natural gas here.

Special Agent Keep, who, it was alleged, was conducting the probe, last evening denied any knowledge of such an investigation being under way.

WORD FROM WINNE.

Word comes from Frank Winne, the six-foot expert, well known to local fans, that he is in line for a commission in the tank service. Winne enlisted in this branch of the service some time ago and is now stationed at Camp Polk, Raleigh, N. C.

FIND YOUR PRECINCT HERE---IS IT HUNDRED PER CENT. AMERICAN?

Deeds, not words, are the proof of loyalty. Figures, not slogans, are the proof of deeds. By the subscription lists, shall each Precinct in Los Angeles be known and recorded here-. Find your Precinct in the following list and ascertain whether you live in a district that is 100 per cent. American. If you find your neighborhood is not absolutely American, clean it IT'S UP TO YOU. IT'S YOUR JOB. Go to your precinct headquarters and SEE FOR YOURSELF. Read the list of sales and registrations, and find which of your neighbors are miss- and which are just buying a "Passport" bond—enough to save their faces. The following list shows the direct sales in every precinct in the city, and the registration of subscriptions le through banks, organizations and employers for the first two weeks of the campaign. A few of these precincts represent the poor and lowly districts of the city. But only a few. w is YOUR precinct? PRECINCT STRENGTH DEPENDS ON ITS INDIVIDUALS. YOU ARE PART OF YOUR PRECINCT.

We are publishing now the preliminary list of the district totals for which all districts have not reported the total subscriptions registered. A final list will be prepared for publication at close of the campaign.

Classified Liners.

CLASSIFIED RATES.

Minimum space, 2 lines, or 12 words.
No transaction of less than 25 cents daily or 30 cents Sunday.
Ten cents a line each insertion daily.
Fifteen cents a line each insertion Sunday.
EXCEPTIONS—A rate of 10 cents a line daily and 20 cents a line Sunday applies to advertisements under the headings of "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Special Notices," "Stocks and Bonds" "Street Improvement Bonds," "Money to Loan, Salaries, Collateral," "Automobiles," "Money to Loan, Diamonds and Jewelry," "Medical," "Instructions," and "Baths and Massage."
Minimum charge for any one of these exceptions is one-time line. Count five average words for each additional line in advertisements as indented, lined-up or capitalized.
The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time. The inadvertent omission of advertising will be rectified only by the cancellation of the charge made for the service ordered. Adjustments for errors will be made only when such errors are brought to our attention promptly and in accordance with established rules and regulations. No adjustment will be made, however, for advertising items not affected by an error or errors which occur in other items in the same advertisement. The right is reserved to classify all advertisements under appropriate headings, and to reject objectionable advertising.

"WANT AD" SUPREMACY.

The Times regularly prints practically all of the "Want Ads" published in all of the other Los Angeles newspapers in addition to a large amount of exclusive 'ads not printed in any other newspaper.

In all classifications—Help Wanted, Situations Wanted, To Let, Automobiles, Real Estate, Business Opportunities, LEADERSHIP is ENGLISH-TIONED.

BY using THE TIMES ALONE, classified advertising in the corner of Los Angeles and Southern California at one cost.

PERSONAL—CONSULT THE MASTER MIND.
The World's Foremost Seer. Healer, Teacher.
50c WHAT HE DOES FOR 50c
He calls you by name, tells your age, how long you will live, what condition your social, domestic or business affairs are in; how to improve them. Tells you all about your sweetheart, wife or husband; how to win the love of anyone you desire. He tells you of journeys, changes, wills, deeds, speculations, investments, how to obtain best results when to trust, and whom to shun, whom to marry and what they are like. He sees all and tells all without asking a question. If you are ill in mind or body, he will help you or make no charge.
No matter what your desires, doubts or troubles may be, consult this strangely gifted man. He stands supreme, endowed by nature with a marvelous power, no different from all others, the recognized leader of all clairvoyants. He will lift you out of your difficulties and perplexities, and lead you to health, peace, success and happiness. Kind, honorable and confidential treatment to all. The publicity guarantees results or no pay. Permanently located in his own home, 2406½ S. Grand ave. Hours 10 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 3.

PERSONAL—
SEE THE SAND GAZER—no.
DR. MUNDO DARE, ORDAINED.
Different from all others. 14 years in Los Angeles. Tells what you wish to know or no charge. Any clairvoyant can tell your name, past, and present; if wife, husband, sweetheart or friend is true—the wizard of the shifting sands tells all this at a glance. You must see him eventually; why not now? IN HIS DEPARTMENT HE STANDS SUPREME. Come, test him and be convinced. The only psychic who really proves his power to help you. Hours, 12 to 8 daily. Closed Sundays. Special readings this week. 50c. Maid in attendance. 1020 S. FIGUEROA. Take W. Washington car. University or La Salle-avenue car. Phone 22141. No sign. Come today.

PERSONAL—
PEERLESS PALMER.
50c READINGS THIS WEEK. 50c
The greatest psychic the world has ever known, tells you by name, tells exactly what you wish to know, if the one you love loves you, if wife or sweetheart is false, tells how to overcome evil influences, how to win the one you love, how to be successful in business, courtship and marriage. He gives more success, more facts and more information, more help, more satisfaction than all other combined.

WANTED—DRAFT MEN.
You should fit yourself NOW for a classified mechanical position in the army. Be ready when the call comes. The army needs men for instructors and training work.

PARENTS
Note the inducement our Government is giving vocational training. Train your boy now. Give him a TRADE. It is more important than a literary accomplishment. Insure him against financial disaster.
MEN IN NON-ESSENTIAL OCCUPATIONS
You owe it to yourself and your country to train for more efficient, more essential, more profitable service. Select one of the following courses and start NOW:

AUTO MECHANICS.—We offer you a complete course in Auto Repairing and Driving. You will receive technical instruction and practical training in our public repair shop under experts.

TRACTOR.—We teach Tractor Engineering thoroughly, practically — affording you actual field experience on various types of tractors—Holt Caterpillar, International Harvester and Sampson Sieve Grip. This is a big, growing industry and offers wonderful opportunities to the trained Tractor Engineer, Mechanic, Demonstrator and Salesman.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING.—This practical course embraces Welding, Cutting and Hard Surfacing by the various methods. O-Lite, Burdett, D-R and Oxweld systems. Thorough training for practical welding and commercial work. Day and night classes in this course.

IGNITION.—An advanced course in Electricity and Magnetism as applied to Auto and Tractor Ignition. Thorough training for most thorough and practical training.

VULCANIZING.—An easily learned, profitable trade, very attractive to one able to operate the small investment necessary to operate his own plant.

MACHINE SHOP.—We give a practical course on lathes, shapers, milling machines, etc., including bench and vise work.

SPECIAL COURSE FOR LADIES.
The Oldest and Most Efficient School in the Country.
Over 5000 Successful Graduates.

GERMANS FLEE FROM BELGIUM.

here have been compelled to fight their way forward, for the Germans had orders to hold on to the last and they did so. Not many of those who had been stationed with machine guns to try to hold up the advance of the Allied troops managed to escape.

At the Thielt positions the French cavalry has begun to come into a country where the ground and roads are harder, allowing them to operate more freely. It is through this gap that the Germans throughout the entire Belgian coast system must go if they wish to save themselves, providing, of course, the advance continues. Incidentally, every yard of advance here narrows the enemy's escape gap.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FLANDERS, Oct. 16.—Throughout last night in the moonlight the Allies continued tirelessly to follow up their splendid successes in Belgium.

At 8 a.m. today Belgian cavalry patrols were reported within a kilometer of Thielt. Previously cavalry had been reported to be working toward Thourout. The Allies were said to be more than half way through the Wynendael Wood and the infantry to have reached a point near Lichtervelde, where they were said to be advancing all along the northern outskirts of Courtrai and through the center of Iseghem.

Last night the Franco-Belgian infantry were on the general line of Boschewester, Edenwalle, Zwartegot and Haentze, thence to a point 1000 yards east of the Thourout-Roulers road and to the Wynendael station, by Beve to the south of Iseghem, the Landelede station, Hulste and Bavinchove to Harlebeke.

This morning the capture of Boscheeweter and Edenwalle seemed to have been confirmed, and French troops were reported to be along the railway west of Lichtervelde. Iseghem station apparently has been occupied and the Courtrai railway reached, east of Cappelle Ste. Catherine.

The British were reported to be across the Lys, east of Comines, with their posts established beyond Le Busserville.

Yesterday the Germans attacked from Iseghem and forced the Belgian line back to Boschmolens, but a counter-attack drove them to and beyond their starting point. Prisoners and guns continue to be gathered in, but there has been no time to count the latest captures.

Between Lens and Armentieres the Germans continued to fall back and the British are drawing near Lille. During the night they crossed the Haute Deule Canal, 2000 yards east of Pont-a-Vendin, and threw out strong patrols which have maintained harassing touch with the enemy. The British are reported as entering Pont-Hault, Pont-a-Vendin, today is burning Santesles-Haubourdin, and today were pushing toward Adnoculin. Hawadry Chateau is in possession of the British. The weather is fine but misty.

The British have established a bridgehead south of the Lys, near Wervick. After fighting all night and smashing forward for a gain of 7000 yards, one British corps continued its advance until it reached the banks of the Lys, south of Courtrai. Another corps established itself between Heule and Courtrai.

The village of Heetjen was captured after severe fighting in which the Germans suffered tremendous losses.

WITH THE FRENCH FORCES IN FLANDERS, Oct. 16.—(Havas.)—The Germans today resumed their long-range bombardment of the French seaport of Dunkirk on the Strait of Dover. There were some civilian victims.

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Tuesday, Oct. 15, 9 p.m. —Menin has fallen. Allied troops are a mile east of Roulers, and advanced patrols are within a mile of Courtrai. The Lys River has been crossed between Comines, which has been captured, and Warneton. Reports indicate another crossing effected at Wervick.

South of the zone where mud-spattered Allied troops are fighting forward through rain and mist and over sticky ground, the enemy has begun a withdrawal. His troops are being moved backward from Pont-a-Vennin and Berclau and from the Rolleghem front. Here British patrols have reached the outskirts of Neurchin.

Everywhere the Germans are fighting rear-guard actions, with large numbers of men involved. Troops storming ahead lose their footing in the ooze, some sinking in as far as their knees. The wounded returning from the front are plastered with mud.

Cuerne has been stormed and taken and the Belgians have captured Bevern station. They are east and north of the Bevuren Canal and are before Iseghem.

Today's gains have further turned the German lines north and south of the area under attack, and the enemy retirement reported from the southward is the result. Further withdrawals on a broad scale may be expected unless the weather continues so bad as to prevent further advance. The enemy is showing signs of great nervousness, and more fires and explosions are reported.

Elsewhere along the front other British forces are gaining, but their progress has been merely to strengthen the lines and to carry out consolidating operations.

Enemy defenses of great strength were encountered during the day by the British. There were wired entanglements of great depth and innumerable pill boxes which had to be reduced.

There was an impressive scene at Roulers when the place was taken. A French major gathered the rescued civilians and German prisoners around a battered piano in the square, and as the shells screamed overhead he played the "Marseillaise."

"Did you ever hear that before?" he asked the people of the city.

The civilians cheered themselves hoarse.

Roulers was in good condition after the German retirement. East of the city the Ingelmunster road has been crossed. It appears that the enemy withdrawal southward of the area under attack will involve the whole Lille salient.

Definite information has been received that the Germans removed Spanish and American ratlens worth 15,000 francs before abandoning Roulers. The civilians there ceased rejoicing over their liberation long enough to show the French troops where there were some enemy mines which were designed to destroy a large part of the town. They also revealed the hiding places of some Germans.

Tonight's reports indicate the French have managed to get through the German lines. It is said they have reached Lichtervelde and now are probably beyond that place.

LONDON, Tuesday, Oct. 15.—Describing the first days of the new offensive in Flanders the correspondent of the Mail at British headquarters writes as follows:

"The German front line was held strongly. The Bavarians advanced in the face of the British barrage and calmly set up their machine guns. They did all that was asked of them, but they met a division which, in its charge, went clean through and around the enemy and reached the Roulers railroad before the Germans' supports could arrive. Highly valuable ground was thus taken at the outset and bigger objectives thrown open.

"The enemy has put the most and the best of his men in the front ranks, and when these were forced back the British had much less trouble in advancing. German forces at Wervick and Menin, which guarded the right of the British attack, apparently made only slight resistance and surrendered at once. The canal was behind them and when the British artillery had destroyed the bridges the enemy troops felt that they were being sacrificed and ran toward the British lines.

"Before the end of the first day all the principal industrial towns in Western Belgium were being threatened. To the north the Germans along the coast are also in peril. During the day there was plenty of evidence that peace was expected by the enemy and that this expectation was operating toward lowering the morale of the German forces. The issues of the battle are immense and are already visible on the field."

SIX BILLION FOR WAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Immediate consideration was given by the House today to the Military Deficiency Bill, carrying $6,345,755,000, reported by the Appropriations Committee to provide for the enlarged war programme during the coming nine months. Leaders said the measure would be passed tomorrow.

Ceaseless prosecution of the war is the underlying thought back of the bill, said Chairman Sherley in submitting his report.

"This is a measure providing for the prosecution of the war with the utmost vigor and dispatch," he added. "In its preparation no consideration was given to recent peace events. No money has been denied that is believed necessary to carry on the war."

The bill provides $6,152,962,000 for the army, $107,217,000 for the navy, and $70,000,000 for family allowances of soldiers and sailors.

An army of about 5,000,000 men, eighty divisions in France and eighteen in training at home by July 1, next, is what the new programme calls for. To prepare and maintain it, the amount now proposed is sought in addition to seventeen and a half billion dollars provided by the annual army bill and the fortifications bill. It will bring the total of appropriations and authorizations for the year up to $36,000,000,000.

CITES MORAL EFFECT.

Gen. March, appearing before the committee when the bill was drafted, described it as the "maximum effort for a definite maximum performance." He pointed to the moral effect of such a measure.

"It is the best propaganda in the world for Germany," he said, "because they can not keep their people from knowing that the United States is putting these billions of dollars into this war. It is a concrete, tangible thing and is very important from that standpoint. They know they are becoming impoverished. They know they are getting down to bedrock and here is a nation throwing its whole strength into it."

Legislative features of the bill include a section authorizing President Wilson to establish a war salvage commission which would recommend to Congress what disposition shall be made of property acquired by the government during the war.

The powers of the Shipping Board would be increased so as to authorize extension of the facilities of shipyards, dry docks, marine railways and piers.

Authority is granted to the War Department to use $250,000 in developing agricultural activities on land controlled by the army.

BIG ORDNANCE OUTLAY.

More than half of the total amount carried in the bill is for the ordnance department to permit the ordnance needs until December 31, 1919, to be planned by the War Department.

The new programme calls for 14,000 new guns for the increased artillery.

The Neville Island ordnance plant near Pittsburgh for constructing fourteen, sixteen and eighteen-inch guns will be increased, so that it will provide for the entire Coast Artillery needs as also a part of the navy's demands. The output of ammunition at the plant will begin in December, next year, with the first gun being finished early in 1920.

Only on the question of immediate enlargement plans of the Neville Island plant did the Appropriation Committee take issue with the War Department, declared Chairman Sherley. The committee, he said, believed it unwise to authorize an increased expenditure of $93,000,000 there because the army programme, without this, will test the productive capacity of the country and the plant's output will not start until 1920. Meanwhile, work will proceed under a previous $46,000,000 appropriation.

ESTIMATES REDUCED.

Reduction of the estimates by the committee totalled $2,540,375,935, the various departments asking for $8,886,121,651. While all the money was asked in cash, the committee granted the bulk in contract authorizations, the total of these being $3,858,349,776 with the cash limited to $2,487,405,890.

Requests of various departments for $3,000,000 for additional clerk hire was refused by the committee. Mr. Sherley explained, saying "the remedy for the shortage of clerks in some departments is a rearrangement of clerks among departments." The House applauded this action.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

Meetings Postponed.

The "book review" given at the public library on the first and third Thursdays in each month will not be given today. There will be no meetings for the present of any of the organizations connected with the Church of the People.

Dr. Selecman Returns.

Dr. Charles C. Selecman, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, will return to the city via the Santa Fe this morning at 8:30 o'clock from a trip to the battlefields of France. He has had six months' leave of absence. It is announced that he will probably resume his pulpit.

Receive Congratulations.

General Passenger Agent Felix S. McGinnis of the Southern Pacific, and his wife, who was formerly Miss Clara Leonardt, are receiving congratulations because of the birth of an eight-pound son, at 8:15 a.m. Tuesday at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He has been named Felix S. McGinnis, Jr.

To Attend Convention.

L. J. Christopher has left for Columbus, O., where the annual convention of the National Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers will be held today and tomorrow. Mr. Christopher was appointed delegate for the California Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers and is also a director in the national association.

For Narcotic Act Positions.

Internal Revenue Collector Carter is desirous of securing qualified persons for the positions of deputy collector, inspector and agent under the Harrison Narcotic Act. Appointments to this position must be made from the civil service eligible list and an examination is advertised for applicants on October 22.

To Welcome Prince Axel.

Dr. A. J. Scott, a prominent member of the Chamber of Commerce, was appointed yesterday by Mayor Woodman to serve as chairman of a committee which will arrange for the reception and entertainment of Prince Axel of Denmark. Councilman Olsen, who is a native of Denmark, will assist the committee. The Prince, who is making a tour of the United States, will be here on the 24th inst.

Elect Officers.

Officers, as follows, were elected by the Wisconsin State Association at a meeting Monday evening: President, Edgar L. Thompson; first vice-president, Conrad D. P. Cummings; second vice-president, Clarence Pates; third vice-president, Frank Mead; secretary, Mrs. T. L. O'Brien; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Helen Humphrey, and treasurer, William Preeder.

Workers Needed.

Volunteer workers to pack clothing for the Belgians are needed at the salvage warehouse of the Red Cross at Sixth and Alameda streets, according to an announcement made yesterday. The officials also call attention to the fact that newspapers to wrap bundles, to take the place of white wrapping paper, as a conservation measure, can be used at the warehouse

UNCONDITIONAL PEACE DEMAND OF NEW MEXICO

UNALTERABLY OPPOSED TO ANY ARMISTICE WHICH MAY MENACE VICTORY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA FE (N. M.) Oct. 16.—New Mexico pleads for the denial of any armistice and urges the demand for unconditional surrender. The following message has been telegraphed by Charles Springer, chairman of the Executive Committee of the New Mexico Council of Defense to the Council of National Defense.

"Please convey to the President the following message expressing the sentiment of the people of the State of New Mexico:

"As we interpret it, we are unalterably opposed to any armistice which would halt the victorious advance of the Allied armies and permit safe withdrawal of enemy troops to their own country and to any settlement which will not require and guarantee reparation for the frightful wrongs done during this war, and just punishment of the persons responsible therefore. We believe it is not safe to treat with the Central Powers until they have laid down their arms in unconditional surrender.

"We are behind the President with all our energy and resources for the speedy winning of the war and establishment of a permanent peace."

METHODIST MINISTER PRIVATE IN MARINES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Rev. Daniel William Stevens, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of South San Francisco, was inducted as a private into the Marine Corps here today.

According to marine authorities Rev. Stevens was the first man west of the Mississippi River to be accepted for induction into the marines since recruiting in that corps was reopened recently. The enlistment papers of all recruits must be sent to the Provost-Marshal-General before acceptance.

JORDAN COMING TO CAMPAIGN FOR BELL.

SECRETARY OF STATE WILL MAKE TOUR OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Secretary of State Jordan will be in Los Angeles in a few days on a tour of Southern California in the interest of Theodore A. Bell, independent candidate for Governor.

Mr. Jordan has been making speeches in the northern part of the State against the present administration, and has carried on a systematic campaign against extravagance in State affairs. In every Assembly district where he has appeared, the Secretary of State has urged the election of candidates committed to a policy of retrenchment at the coming session of the Legislature.

In Southern California, Secretary of State Jordan will urge that the voters send to Sacramento every candidate indorsed by the Association for the Betterment of Public Service. In Los Angeles fifteen Assemblymen are to be elected, and a majority of them are pledged to vote against official extravagance.

Mr. Jordan contends that there is no regular Republican candidate for Governor and that thousands of Republicans throughout the State are voicing their protest against Gov. Stephens and the present administration by supporting Mr. Bell.

WANTED IT AS A PRECAUTION

Knew from Own Experience What Tanlac Would Do.

Had Tried It Three Years Ago With Great Success.

Got a Supply Soon As It Was Introduced Here.

"Just as soon as Tanlac was put on sale here I got me a bottle, for I had taken it before and knew it was such a splendid medicine that I just wanted to keep it in the house," said Mrs. Lea Kipp, of 1324 Bond street, the other day.

"About three years ago," she continued, "while living in Denver, Colo., I became very much run down and it was there I became acquainted with this wonderful medicine. My stomach was in an awful condition, I suffered terribly from digestion and what little I managed to eat did not do me any good. My nerves went all to pieces and I could hardly sleep at night. My liver, too, did not act right. I was badly constipated and felt so weak and miserable that I was hardy fit for a thing.

"As soon as I saw Tanlac advertised I got me a bottle and felt better right after starting on it. I took several bottles of the medicine and my appetite soon picked up so I could eat and enjoy good hearty meals and digest everything I ate. My nerves became calm and quiet and I was able to obtain restful and refreshing sleep at night. In fact, Tanlac fixed me up in fine shape and when we moved out here shortly afterwards, I was disappointed not to find Tanlac on sale. However, I kept in pretty fair condition but this spring when Tanlac was introduced, I didn't lose a minute in getting some, for I wanted to have it on hand as a precaution against trouble. I have taken two bottles recently and it has done me a world of good in building me up. I simply wouldn't be without Tanlac for anything, for it is undoubtedly the best medicines I have ever used."

HOME-MADE COUGH SYRUP

Helps Whole Family, Quickly. Woman's Interesting Letter.

Mrs. M. H. Van Wart, Lents, Or., writes:

"I feel it a duty to write to you. Four years ago my husband had a bad cough and found no relief from any cough medicines he tried. Finally tried your Mentho-Laxene and made it up as cough syrup and it quickly cured him. Now, this last winter, my two boys had fearful coughs and it has cured them. It also gives me great relief from asthma, from which I suffer in winter time, as you know here we have it so rainy instead of snow, as back East, etc."

This concentrated essence, called Mentho-Laxene, is sold by druggists in 2½-ounce bottles. You mix it at home with syrup, making a whole pint very cheaply, as per directions with each bottle.—[Advertisement.

Ruinous Curling Iron No Longer Necessary

The woman whose hair has been burnt dreads the hot curling iron. She knows only too well how destructive to the life and beauty of the hair this instrument of torture is. She will therefore welcome the information that a simple product to be found at any drug store will not only give her tresses the desired wavy effect, but without burning, discoloring, streaking or injuring hair or scalp in any way. It is nothing more than plain slumerine in liquid form. It should be applied to the hair with a clean tooth brush, preferably at night.

A convenient way is to divide the hair into strands and moisten these one at a time from root to tip. In the morning the hair will be found beautifully wavy and curly, having the appearance of perfect naturalness, no matter how the hair is done up. The effect lasts a considerable time and one need get only a few ounces of the liquid slumerine. This, by the way, is neither greasy nor sticky.

FRENCH INDORSE PLAN FOR HUN PUNISHMENT.

SENATE GIVES FOREIGN MINISTER FREE REIN IN SECURING REPARATION.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Tuesday, Oct. 15.—(Havas.)—The French Senate today unanimously adopted a resolution proposed by the government permitting the government to proceed actively in co-operation with the Allies with plans to obtain reparation for damage committed by the Germans.

Stephen Pichon, the Foreign Minister, declared that he should have more power to insist on the just claims against Germany. The atrocities which Germany had committed, he added, will have other atonement than moral condemnation. The Germans must be punished sufficiently to prevent forever the possible recurrence of such crimes as the world recently has witnessed.

The Senate voted that the Foreign Minister's speech be posted over all the country.

THE WEATHER.
[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Oct. 16.—[Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Meteorologist.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.97; at 5 p.m., 29.94. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 61 deg. and 70 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 83 per cent.; 5 p.m., 56 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., northeast, velocity 10 miles. Highest temperature, 75 deg.; lowest, 59 deg. Rainfall for season, .67 of an inch. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—The location of the barometric areas remains practically unchanged since yesterday, but the low area deepened and caused heavy rain on the coast of Louisiana and also in the Northwest. New Orleans reported 1.74 inches of rain, and Portland, Or., 1.54 inches, since yesterday. An area of high pressure is entering the California coast, making a trough of low pressure paralleling the coast. This condition gives cooler weather throughout Southern California, especially in the higher elevations.

ORCHARD REPORTS.—Minimum and maximum temperatures from orchards reported to the Los Angeles office of the U. S. Weather Bureau yesterday are as follows:

The City and Environs—California's Costa Rica. Editorials—News—Business—Society—The Drama

The Los Angeles Times

VOL. XXXVII. THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17, 1918.—PART II: 8 PAGES. POPULATION { By the Federal Census—(1910)—319,198 By the City Director—(1918)—497,

BUY A BOND FOR YOUR SOLDIER.

Put it in the Bank as Nest Egg Against His Return, but Let Him Know of Your Gift—Presentation Cards are Free at "The Times" Offices.

Are you grateful to the American soldiers who are fighting your fight in France? Would you like to do something for YOUR soldier over there as a token, however inadequate, of your appreciation of what his sacrifice means to you—to let him know that you are thinking of him and of his future and that you are trying to bear a little of his mighty burden? Would you make, perhaps, a little personal sacrifice if you knew that he—your own son, or brother, husband or intimate friend—will directly and personally benefit at a time when he needs it most?

THEN BUY A LIBERTY BOND AS A GIFT TO HIM, PUT IT SAFELY AWAY IN THE BANK TODAY TO AWAIT HIS RETURN FROM THE BATTLE FRONT AND LET HIM KNOW THAT YOU HAVE DONE IT.

The Times this morning is printing handsome gift cards in the national colors which will be given free to all purchasing bonds for this purpose. A replica of this card, which is the proper size for mailing, appears herewith. They will be ready for distribution at The Times business office, First and Broadway, and The Times branch office, No. 619 South Spring street, at 1 o'clock p.m. today.

If you cannot pay cash for even a $50 bond to give to your soldier, pay $5 down, the investment will trust you for the rest, and the card will be yours for the asking if you show the first payment receipt bearing date of October 17, 18 or 19.

Would YOUR Yank appreciate a Christmas gift like this?

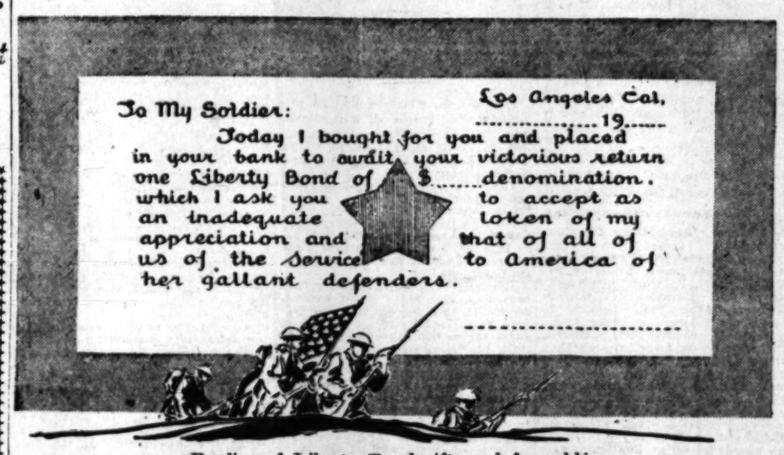
No space to speak of taken up in the mails. A reminder that the folks at home are thinking of HIM. A nest egg in the bank when he comes back. A genuine aid to the Government before he comes back.

OUR 6000 SOLDIERS FROM LOS ANGELES HAVE GIVEN UP EVERYTHING FOR US. POSITION, FAMILY, EDUCATION, OPPORTUNITY. THEY HAVE GONE THAT WE MIGHT STAY. SOME OF THEM WILL NEVER COME BACK. OTHERS WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO TAKE THEIR PLACE IN THE BUSY WORLD ON AN EQUAL BASIS WITH THE REST OF US. SOME WILL FIND THEIR FORMER ANCHORAGE SWEPT AWAY IN THE WAR TIDE.

Put a bond in HIS bank for YOUR boy.

Some of us will pinch just a bit harder for him than we might for ourselves, and there is nothing in all the world, next to seeing his own kin again, that your representative on the battle line will prize as much.

Would Your Boy Like a Christmas Gift Such as This?



Replica of Liberty Bond-gift card for soldier.

The actual cards are of proper mailing size and are printed with red borders and a blue star. The type is somewhat different and runs through the star. The Times is printing them and will give them away free to all who buy these bond-gifts for their soldier sons, brothers, husbands and friends.

All last night Los Angeles subscribed 53 per cent. of its quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

With the opening of business today and midnight Saturday the people of this city had put up 91 per cent. American [illegible] $30,000,000 additional.

The Liberty Loan organization has been rushed up to top notch [illegible] wide open. Fifteen [illegible] are combing the city for the last male.

MILLION FROM COUNTY.

The Board of Supervisors by resolution yesterday unanimously voted to invest $1,000,000, representing the surplus in the general fund of 1916-1917, and 1917-1918, in the Fourth Liberty Loan bond issue. The suggestion was made by Supervisor Woodley, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Supervisors.

In less than two years, the Supervisors, by a system of economy, management and retrenchment, have accumulated a surplus in the general fund amounting to $1,300,000. At the same time the deficit of more than $1,000,000 was reduced to approximately $200,000. The deficit for the fiscal year 1915-1916 now represents only $930,000.

Constitutional Amendment No. 7, which will be on the ballot at the November election, authorizes the Supervisors to transfer the surplus accumulated during the fiscal years 1916-1917 and 1917-1918 to the year 1915-1916, thereby wiping out the deficit by repaying to various trust and other funds moneys which were spent on account of the general fund.

This amendment, if carried, cannot become effective for two years, and in order to properly safeguard the accumulated surplus so that the money will be available when needed, it was decided to help out the Liberty Loan drive.

WHERE ARE YOU?

So far 83,302 individuals, firms and corporations have subscribed. This is only a few more than one-half the number of subscribers to the third loan. These have taken approximately the amount apportioned to this city in that loan. At least 100,000 more individuals, firms and corporations must pledge at least $20,000,000 more in the next three days, or the 83,032 must double up.

Director Riley of the industrial organizations announced that the total subscriptions turned in by his workers up to Monday night, which is as far as the present tabulation goes, is $6,632,450.

The intensive work now being done, he says, is producing big increases in the average subscription. The best individual record among the industrials to date is made in the accounting department of the Salt Lake Railroad, where the 118 employees have averaged $301. Other fine records are submitted by the Southern California Edison Company, an average per employee of $123; Southern California Gas Company, $106; Los Angeles Gas and Electric, $90; Southern Counties Gas Company, $160; Midway Gas Company, $126; Axelson Machinery Company, $101. All of these companies show a 100 per cent. list.

AT SHIP PLANT.

At the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company yesterday afternoon, the Flying Squadron, assisted by the Naval Reserve Band, held a meeting that resulted in an additional subscription from the employees of this big shipbuilding works of $120,000. This makes a grand total for the employees of nearly $900,000. The Flying Squadrons were in command of P. N. Boggs, director of sales, and were assisted by the captains and stars of the two big Liberty Loan tanks, "Liberty" and "Democracy." Two big meetings were held, one inside and one outside of the plant, and the two popular movie stars, Mary Miles Minter and William Duncan, carried the vtial Liberty Loan message to the workers, which resulted in the splendid additional honor subscription.

A meeting was also held yesterday at the plant of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company at San Pedro and subscriptions totaling $40,000 were turned in by the employees. This additional subscription, together with the subscriptions already made, makes a grand total for the employees of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Plant of $275,000. This Liberty Loan meeting was in charge of J. Stitt Wilson, and another meeting was held last night (Wednesday) at the same plant which was in charge of Dr. W. B. Thompson. The subscriptions taken at the latter meeting have not yet been tabulated at headquarters.

PURE AMERICAN.

A story of pure Americanism comes from the Barlow Sanatorium, whose inmates are sufferers with tuberculosis, whose worldly means are not great. The sixty-four patients at this institution yesterday subscribed $1400 in addition to $600 previously subscribed. The nurses and other attendants have taken $500 and the management $1000, a total of $3500. One patient had received a remittance from a sister with which to purchase clothing. He decided that the clothes could wait, and turned the amount over to the government.

The Finance Committee of the Council yesterday deferred action upon the request of City Treasurer Powell that the city purchase $100,000 worth of Liberty Loan Bonds. Action probably will be taken this morning.

FORECLOSING ON LLANO.

Defunct Socialist Utopia is Again Sued; Harriman Rushes Here.

Two suits aggregating $130,000 were filed in the Superior Court yesterday by the Llano Investment Company to foreclose on the real and personal property of Job Harriman's Socialistic colony, now defunct, at Llano, near Palmdale. The first suit was against the Llano Del Rio Company of Nevada, which bought about 1000 acres from the Mescal Land and Water Company and disposed of the property to the Llano Del Rio Company, a California corporation, at the head of which was Mr. Harriman.

Under an agreement, about $50,000 was paid on the mortgage covering the real property, leaving a balance of $125,000 under which the foreclosure is brought.

The second suit is against the California corporation and various Does to foreclose on a chattel mortgage of $5000. The promissory note, secured by the chattel mortgage, is dated March 23, last, and is due January 1, next. All of the cows, horses, farming implements and machinery are covered by the chattel mortgage.

Mr. Harriman, it is understood, is now on his way from Louisiana to represent the defunct colony at Llano in the legal proceedings.

The Llano Investment Company, according to Attorney W. T. Kendricks, who prepared the suits, financed Mr. Harriman's colony, furnishing money from time to time.

NEW PROCEDURE.

Pursuant to the terms of the two mortgages the Llano Investment Company, according to G. P. McCorkle, its secretary, has already placed men on the colony land for purpose of future development, minus the Socialist element. This company's directors are W. T. Cason, president; G. P. McCorkle, secretary and manager; C. M. Cason, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Cason and Mrs. McCorkle.

According to Mr. Kendricks and Mr. McCorkle, the blanket mortgage was obtained in July, 1917, when the Llano Investment Company bought up numerous mortgages given to settlers in the valley in payment for their land. All these mortgages were merged into one.

LAST MATRANGA ARRESTED

Father of Murdered Black-Hand Members Charged with Deadly Assault.

Recalling to police officials the series of murders and fires attributed to the two Matranga brothers, Pietro and Sam, who, before they were murdered, were supposed to be agents of the Mafia in Los Angeles, Tony Matranga, father of the two dead men, was arrested last evening on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The man, who is 65 years of age and bent almost double by the loss of his two sons and fear of the dread Black Hand, is in the City Jail in default of $5000 bail. He was arrested at his ranch near Roscoe by Officers Hickey and McAuley.

The arrest was made on a warrant issued by Deputy District Attorney Becker on Monday, but which could not be served before because of the disappearance of the aged man. The complaint was sworn to by Stephen Ardizzone of No. 441 South Avenue Eighteen, who alleges that on last Saturday Matranga shot at him three times with a high-powered rifle. None of the bullets, according to the police, took effect, except for the damage done to Ardizzone's truck, which was nearly wrecked by the shells.

LAST OF FAMILY.

Tony Matranga is the last member, except his wife and the widows of his two sons, of the famous Matranga family, the male members of which are alleged to have committed numerous murders while agents of the Black Hand and to have been murdered, in turn, for giving information concerning the Mafia.

The last crime connected in any way with the murder of the Matrangas was the sudden killing of Joseppy Lapaglia, who was shot and killed on March 17 while walking at Fifty-second street and Central avenue. Lapaglia is alleged to have given information to the police concerning the murderers of the two Matranga brothers and is supposed to have been shot for that reason. In his death and those of the Matrangas, the police have never been able to find clews to the identities of the murderers.

STORY OF KILLINGS.

Sam Matranga, the first of the two brothers to be done away with, was shot and killed while driving his machine into his garage at No. 1227 Darwin avenue, on November 9, 1917. He was found dead in the automobile by his wife. A charge of buckshot had nearly blown his head away.

Pietro Matranga, the second brother, was also killed by a shotgun, which was operated by a man in a big green automobile. This big green car was long sought by the police in connection with crimes supposed to have been committed by the two Matrangas. Pietro was murdered on December 19, 1917, while approaching his home at No. 1510 Biggy street. In the Lapaglia murder, the green automobile and a shotgun also figured.

For several months police officers of the Pacific Coast searched for Mike Marino, alleged to be the chief assassin of the Mafia, and his name was connected with the two brothers and Lapaglia, but nothing to substantiate the theory could be found.

The reason for the shooting by Tony Matranga, at Stephen Ardizzone, the police say, is that the father of the two brothers believes Ardizzone killed his sons.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Defense League Secretary is Arrested; Twenty Thousand Missing.

Mason L. Williams was arrested at San Francisco last night on a Federal warrant charging conspiracy to defraud through the United States mails in connection with the alleged embezzlement of $20,000 from the funds of the National Defense League of California, of which he was field secretary.

It is set out in the complaint, which was made against Williams by Milton A. Nathan of San Francisco, second vice-president of the league, that Williams and a woman companion whose name has not been disclosed, obtained about $20,000 by soliciting through the mails subscriptions for the league. Nathan charges that this money was kept by Williams and the woman. Bail for Williams has been fixed at $10,000.

J. C. Drake of Los Angeles, who is president of the second division of the National Defense League of California, which is the organization for the southern part of the State, says that a Mrs. A. F. Rogers was field secretary for the State, and that she came here from San Francisco for the purpose of carrying on organization work, but that this was closed down about two months ago.

So far as funds of this section are concerned, said Mr. Drake, there would have been no opportunity for anyone other than the authorized persons to have handled them, and if there has been any embezzlement he believed it must be in connection with funds in the San Francisco district.

Representatives of the United States District Attorney's office say that no investigation into the league's activities here has been asked for nor instituted.

The league is a war activity organization featuring a preparedness programme as one of its big issues. Among its members are several prominent retired army officers.

PILLORY FOR SLACKERS.

"Hun Hunts" to be Held Everywhere for Shirkers of Loan Duty.

BY LESLIE B. HENRY,
Local Representative of Twelfth Federal Reserve Bank.

Big as is the present deficit and pitifully short as is the working time available to us, there is not a single acceptable reason why Los Angeles city should fail to make its quota of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Only one simple condition has to be met and acted on by those who have purchased their fair share of the bonds to preserve the good name of the city, and it is absolutely up to them to meet that condition. It is:

THAT THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO EITHER HAVE NOT SUBSCRIBED THAT COULD OR HAVE, THROUGH INADEQUATE SUBSCRIPTIONS, VERY ACTUALLY CHEATED THEIR FELLOWS OF BOTH SEXES, THE CITY AND THE NATION HAVE EVERY CENT OF THE MONEY AND CREDIT REPRESENTED BY THE DEFICIT.

THE PRECINCT HONOR ROLL DISPLAYED PUBLICLY IN EVERY PRECINCT HEADQUARTERS IN THE CITY TELLS PLAINLY TO ANYBODY WHO LOOKS AT IT NOT ONLY WHO THE SLACKERS OR CRIMINALLY CARELESS AND INDIFFERENT ONES ARE, BUT EXACTLY WHERE THEY LIVE.

If this city receives the scorn of America as a slacker city, every man and woman here who have done the right thing will want to know why, and will want the names of the financial slackers responsible for the result published.

THEY ARE PUBLISHED NOW AT YOUR PRECINCT HEADQUARTERS; WHY WAIT UNTIL THE SHAME COMES TO FIND THOSE RESPONSIBLE. LOOK THEM UP NOW AND WIN THE NATIONAL HONOR WE DESERVE BY BRINGING TO BAR THOSE WHO ARE TAKING THE FREE RIDE ON YOUR BACK. EVERY PERSON WHOSE NAME ON THAT HONOR ROLL IN YOUR PRECINCT AGAINST WHICH EITHER NO SUBSCRIPTION OR AN INADEQUATE ONE IS SET DOWN IS A SUBJECT FOR IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION NOW; AFTER THE LOAN IS CLOSED WILL BE TOO LATE.

We have sent so many men out of this city to fight and die for us and have drafted so many more that it is high time individual citizens who have done the decent thing themselves feel a little of that righteous wrath that will send them off in their respective neighborhoods to carry on with or without the precinct committeemen and women "Hun-hunts" of their own.

If these seem extreme methods, always considering that the only deficit existing rests in the pockets and bank credit of those who are taking the free rides, then take a look at the recent casualty lists among the American troops; cast a thought or just how much you as a good subscriber to the loan are entitled to the national scorn you are threatened with, and then see whether THOSE WHO HAVE SUBSCRIBED NOTHING OR ONLY ENOUGH TO MAKE GOOD A CHEAT SHOULD ESCAPE.

Precinct committeemen will make every effort to fix immediately the responsibility for "slacking" where it belongs, but until every man and woman in the precincts who having done the right thing themselves will refuse to be the real victims of the careless, the selfish and the indifferent who live in their own vicinity, and will both submit the needed information about the slacking ones they know and help to nail the others, precinct work cannot be 100 per cent. efficient. Until it is that all hope of making our city quota is slim.

LIBERTY FAIR IS CERTAINTY.

Exhibitors Agree to Keep up Displays Intact.

Postponement will Result in Bigger Programme.

Directors to Decide Opening Date Later On.

The California Liberty Fair, the opening of which was postponed because of the threat of influenza, will not be abandoned. This was definitely decided upon yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the board of directors.

At this meeting signatures of practically all of the principal exhibitors were secured to an agreement to hold their exhibits intact for the opening date. Nearly all of the magnificent collection of livestock exhibits will also be held at the stock department at Exposition Park for the opening of the fair.

In fact, because of the delay in the opening date, it is expected that the exposition, when its gates are thrown open to the public, will be a more finished production than it could have been had it started on the date originally planned.

TO FIX DATE LATER.

No definite date for the opening can be announced at this time, but it is set tentatively for the 26th inst.—although this must be subject to the decision of the health commissioner. It is the general belief that the decline of the desease will be fully as rapid as was its development, so that the way may be clear within a few days to announce definitely the date for the opening of the fair.

It is probable that the events of the first Liberty Fair will be crowded into nine days, with a snappy programme providing for some special feature every hour. By this curtailment of time, it is expected that several of the important exhibits, especially in the live-stock sections, may be retained up to the very close and yet have time to reach the live-stock show at San Francisco and other fairs that are scheduled to open soon.

LIVE STOCK ON HAND.

Live-stock exhibits are continuing to arrive at Exposition Park daily, and are being assigned to quarters provided for the stock show. More than ninety horsemen with race horse entries are on the grounds, and concessionaires and exhibitors have continued with the work of installing the exhibits.

Representatives of the government exhibit, which is to be one of the big features of the Liberty Fair, have given assurances that this display will remain throughout the entire length of the fair. The Great Wortham Shows have set up their quarters on the "sawdust trail" and other activities are in progress.

With the postponement of the opening date, a rearrangement of the big features for that day has been made, and it is now planned to have a mammoth victory demonstration, in celebration of America's victorious armies. One of the features of this event will be a pageant depicting California's history.

THUMBS DOWN FOR DEMON RUM.

Local Liquor Men Decide to Conserve and Let State Go Dry Without Protest.

Los Angeles brewers and liquor dealers yesterday agreed to keep their hands on their pocketbooks and let California go dry without protest, financially speaking.

The brewers, who have heretofore set the pace, formally decided to spend no money on advertising or in propaganda to induce voters to vote against Statewide prohibition. As the wholesalers have long since seen the handwriting on the wall, and the retailers have flown from quarters where high rents and high proof were kindred spirits, the indications are that no concerted effort will be made by the liquor interests to prevent bone-dryness being transformed from a dedicated dream into a parched reality.

Notwithstanding the action of the Los Angeles "wet" interests billboards yesterday, began to bristle with full sheets in colored type urging the voters to defeat bone-dry prohibition. The brewers declared that they had nothing to do with it, and that if any work is done at all to keep California's tonsils from being parched, it is being done from the north.

PLAN NEW ADDITION TO COUNTY HOSPITAL.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH SAID TO HAVE URGED IMMEDIATE ERECTION.

A new addition to the County Hospital will soon be started, according to reports received concerning the meeting of the Board of Supervisors with the grand jury and District Attorney Woolwine, yesterday afternoon. It is said that the grand jury has received a communication from the State Board of Health requesting that body to recommend to the Board of Supervisors that such an addition be immediately erected.

It is also believed that further plans for the transfer of the County Motor Squad from the supervision of the Sheriff's office to that of the District Attorney were discussed. Sheriff Cline stated last night that he would fight any attempt on the part of the District Attorney to control county speed officers.

Affidavits in the Livingston Case are Received Here.

Will be Used Against Three in Trial Under Draft Law.

Mother Denies Son When Found in Venezuela.

Important documents bearing on the case of Mrs. Matilda Livingston and her sons, Benjamin and Robert, who are due here in a few days from New York to answer Federal charges in connection with the alleged attempts of the two sons to escape service under the selective draft law, were received yesterday by Assistant United States District Attorney Lawson, and will be used during the coming hearing, either in the United States District Court or before the military court martial.

The papers include statements made by all three of the defendants when they applied to the Salvadorean Consul at Cristobal, Canal Zone, for passports that would allow them to go through Panama on their way to Venezuela in their alleged flight from the secret service agents of the Department of Justice.

These were sworn to September 15, 1918, before Lawrence C. Galloway, a notary public. The affidavit of Benjamin Livingston, it is said, gives his name as Julio Moreno, claiming to be a citizen of San Salvador, where he stated that he was born, July 3, 1884. His residence in the United States is given at No. 1756 One Hundred and Seventy-eighth street, New York.

The statement said to have been sworn to by Robert Livingston gives his name as Julio de Jesus Crus, and that of the mother, Matilda Livingston, as Amie Rykoff de Crus. Her occupation is given as a housewife, and that of Ben Livingston as a cook.

Accompanying the copy of the affidavits is a confession said to have been signed by each of the defendants, giving their proper names and the story of their wanderings after they slipped out of Los Angeles. The location of the father, Nathan Livingston, is given as Laguayra, Venezuela. The sisters, Clara and Elsie Livingston, are said to be still in Los Angeles.

In the affidavit, said to have been signed by Mrs. Livingston, she states that they left Los Angeles together last July, going to Philadelphia, where they appeared before the Salvadorean Consul and secured passports to that country. The mother says that she secured two strangers to attest to the fact that they were citizens of San Salvador, and that she did not know who they were and they were paid nothing for their services.

From Philadelphia the party went to New Orleans, and thence on the steamer Catago to Costa Rica, landing at Port Limon, and thence to Cristobal. After their capture in Venezuela, where they were found to be traveling under false passports, they were brought back to Cristobal, where a sensational scene was enacted, it is said, Robert passionately embracing the mother, but the latter denied knowing him, and the boy broke down and wept.

In her affidavit Mrs. Livingston said she did this in order to shield the boy, if possible. She states further that the family left Los Angeles because the family feared unjust persecution on account of the evasion of the draft law charged against her sons. She admits, it is said, that Robert is registered for service in Pasadena, and Ben in Los Angeles, and that both are of military age.

In her statement before the Salvadorean Consul in Philadelphia, the mother swore, it is said, that she was born in Odessa, Russia, but she retracted this, Federal agents state, and declares that she is a native of Austria, born in Mirowitz, province of Pisek. She gives the complete details of her life in her confession, and admits that she, with the boys and her husband, left the United States to keep Robert and Ben out of the American army. There is no information here as to just when the Livingstons will arrive from New York.

BIG TOURIST SEASON IS LOOKED FOR HERE.

FUEL SHORTAGE IN EAST WILL BRING VISITORS TO SOUTHLAND.

Returning from a trip in the North visiting several of the larger hotels, J. Russell Miller, president of the Read-Miller Company, Inc., is very optimistic over the outlook for the tourist travel to California this winter.

Mr. Miller declares that many Coast hotel managers are entertaining hopes of a good winter tourist season, notwithstanding the high cost of traveling.

"I have made arrangements to place large announcements of California hotels and resorts in newspapers having a large circulation throughout Western Canada, the Northwest and the Middle West. We will spend thousands of dollars in advertising California salubrious climate this winter to the people of the cold States.

"I have made a thorough study of traveling conditions. The high prices obtained for grain and live stock have made the farmer and stockman of the Western States and Canada very prosperous. Incidentally, the merchant and business man likewise have had a good year. While it costs more to travel now than a year ago, this is accepted by the tourist in proportion to the great increase in price of all commodities. Then again, the great scarcity of fuel for domestic purposes owing to the fact that the government needs the fuel for the successful prosecution of the war, will necessitate many of the wealthy residents closing up their homes and departing during the late fall, winter and early spring, for warmer climes."

CANT IDENTIFY SACKS.

Police Officials Seek Owners of Bean Bags Alleged to Have Been Stolen.

To whom do 5000 bean sacks, valued at $1120, now in the custody of the Sheriff's office, belong. This question is puzzling the police and Deputy Sheriffs Andersen and Van Fleet who recovered them yesterday from a North Main-street junk dealer as stolen property.

Three men are in jail on charges of having stolen them, but as bean sacks have no identification on them it is impossible to know to whom they belong. Louis Hicks, Roy Green and Ted Driver are now in the County Jail, and the junk dealer is out $250. W. A. Vetter is supposed to be the owner, but he cannot positively identify them.

SPOUSE'S HUG SPRINGS RIB.

Dislocation Following Embrace Given as Reason for Desertion.

Judge Avery signed an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday in favor of Charles T. Hall, an oil driller, on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Florence Hall, who was charged with desertion, had testified that after one experience of her husband's hugging, she would not allow him another embrace. She said that Mr. Hall dislocated one of her ribs and she was afraid of a repetition.

She also said that she thought she loved her husband, but was not quite sure.

MARRIAGE AND COLOR DISPUTED

Clemens Estate Claimant in Negro Barber Shop.

Says He's White; Opponents that He's Black.

Nuptial Record in East will be Investigated.

John Guyot, who has filed an application for letters of administration of Henrietta Clement Clemens, last night declared that he is of French and Spanish parentage and is not a negro.

"I was married thirty-five years ago to Henrietta Clemens, as she was known here," he said, "and I shall come into court with the necessary papers to show my marriage and also to answer the charges that I am colored. I am of French and Spanish parentage."

Guyot is employed at Allen's barber shop, No. 916 Central avenue, conducted by a colored man for colored men's patronage. He is a slight rather Spanish-looking man of light brown, nearly white complexion, and of fiery temper. He said that he will punish those members of his wife's family who have made statements about him.

"We have investigations under way in Altoona, Pa.," said Attorney Dennis, "where Guyot says he was a wealthy oil man, and where it is claimed there are records of Guyot's alleged marriage to my client's sister. We dispute his claim that he married Henrietta Clemens. During the last two years of her life she was not responsible, and she died past the age of 60 years, of softening of the brain. We shall be ready in court on November 18, when the case is called."

The sisters who are asking the probate court for letters of administration of the estate and that Guyot be prevented from disposing of the property, which includes several thousand dollars worth of diamonds, are Emma A. Craig, wife of David L. Craig, a well-known retired city detective, Annie M. Newton and Jane E. Hampel.

"We, too, shall be ready, and with proofs," said Hugh Macbeth, a colored member of the bar, who represents Guyot. "We have proofs of Guyot being a white man of French and Spanish extraction and of his marriage to Henrietta Clemens. They lived together and were known as man and wife in Altoona, and after they came to Los Angeles two years ago. Incidentally, Mrs. Guyot's name was not Clemens before her marriage, but was Churchill. She was a very beautiful young woman, and her married life with her husband was very happy. She was known as Mrs. Guyot in the neighborhood of No. 203 West Fifty-first street, where she lived here up to the time of her death, and where her husband lives now. He has given me for safe keeping all her property, her diamonds, her mortgages and valuable deeds, and as her husband he has every right to that property, and we believe that the court will so hold."

The hearing on November 18 is on the question whether Guyot or the sisters, through David L. Craig, shall be given letters of administration of the estate. Both have filed requests for the authority to administer the estate.

MAN AND WIFE DEAD.

Influenza Takes Two in South Pasadena Family Within Thirty-six Hours.

Edson W. Rogers and his wife, Mrs. Agnes W. Rogers, of No. 1105 Oxley court, South Pasadena, died of influenza within thirty-six hours of one another, and will be buried side by side in Mountain View Cemetery Saturday afternoon. A third member of the household, Jack Reid, 15-year-old brother of Mrs. Rogers, is seriously ill with the malady.

Mr. Rogers was a pharmacist employed by one of the Pasadena Owl drug stores. His only relatives are in the East. He was 29 years old and his wife was two years younger. They had no children. Mrs. Rogers's father, John Reid, and another brother, F. S. Reid, live in Pasadena.

The double funeral will be held at the chapel of Turner, Stevens & Berry.

SET UP FLAG POLE.

In preparation for the flying of the Allied flags which was scheduled for next Saturday, city employees planted on the lawn of the Courthouse a flag pole seventy-five feet high yesterday. This is their share of the patriotic demonstration planned by the Los Angeles County Employees' League and postponed owing to the influenza epidemic.

FOR FLOOD CONTROL.

The Title Guarantee and Trust Company yesterday delivered to County Counsel Hill the descriptions of 338 parcels of land upon which Mr. Hill will base condemnation proceedings to obtain a right of way for the flood control channel through Long Beach. This number of parcels comprises one-third of the right of way desired.

The War at Home

Convict Actor.

Armin von Harder, a motion-picture actor, who is well known in the cinema world as an impersonator of German characters, was convicted by a jury in United States District Judge Bledsoe's court yesterday, of violation of the Espionage Act. He was sentenced to five years in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island. The jury was out but ten minutes.

Von Harder is German born, but has been in this country thirty years. He is not naturalized. It was shown that the prisoner had been guilty of uttering many seditious and unpatriotic remarks, lauding the German people and predicting that the war would end in favor of the Germans for the reason that the Allies had no brains. He rejoiced in the Lusitania disaster, and admitted on the stand that before the declaration of war between the United States and Germany his sympathies were with his native land. He said that he had left Germany as a boy to avoid service in the army. Von Harder was taken into custody by an agent of the American Protective League.

Haven't the Evidence.

United States District Judge Bledsoe yesterday ordered the release, on his own recognizance, of C. E. Fischer, who several months ago was charged with violation of the Espionage Act. Fischer was taken to the psycopathic ward of the County Hospital, but later on was pronounced sane. It now develops that the government has not sufficient evidence to convict, hence the action of the court.

LABOR UNIONS SEEN BEHIND LICENSE PLAN.

BUSINESS MEN TO PROTEST TAXING OF ELEVATOR OPERATOR TEACHERS.

Representatives of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, the Building Owners' Association and other organizations will appear before the Public Safety Committee of the City Council at 11 o'clock next Monday forenoon, to make protest against the proposed placing of a license fee of $100 per year, or $25 per quarter upon elevator operator instructors.

In this connection, it was said yesterday, the protestants will show that back of this movement to place a high license upon this class of instructors is the purpose to unionize the elevator operators, and force all who seek this class of employment to attend the vocational school at the Labor Temple, where they would be required to sign application cards for admission to the union.

There are now two outside instructors, one at the Grant Building, and another at the Union Oil Building, who instruct prospective elevator operators without requiring them to affiliate with the union. The boast has been made, it was reported yesterday, that the scheme under way would soon place every elevator operator in Los Angeles within the union, and that immediately thereafter the union would force a wage schedule of from $90 to $100 per month for elevator operators.

LINGUIST'S WIFE SUES TO ANNUL MARRIAGE.

WOMAN SAYS HUSBAND VIRTUALLY FORCED HER TO WED HIM.

Mrs. Beatrice B. Perhach Angelou, daughter of Count Gesa S. de Perhach, Hungarian artist, filed suit to annul her marriage to Talamaha Angelou, a professor of languages, yesterday. The complaint, prepared by Attorney James Donovan, is based on the fact that at the time the marriage license was obtained Mrs. Angelou was only 17 years old and did not have the consent of her parents to wed.

The real story appears to be that by threats and intimidation, Prof. Angelou forced the young girl to accompany him to the Courthouse in San Francisco, October 13, 1916. There he obtained a marriage license. Mrs. Angelou claims that Prof. Angelou informed her she was married. Because of her youth and ignorance of the world, she says she believed him.

Ten days later, Mrs. Angelou exhibited the license to a friend. The friend told her it was not a certificate of marriage. Mrs. Angelou repeated this statement to her husband, and he consented to a legal marriage, which was performed October 23, 1916. Prof. Angelou, according to the complaint, left his bride the same day, and she declares she has not seen him since.

Mrs. Angelou and her father are now in Los Angeles. Among other pictures he has painted, Count de Perhach is the creator of "Visions of My Youth."

KILLED BY CAR.

While signaling a car to stop, E. B. Sleeper of Graham Station was instantly killed at that place yesterday afternoon by a Pacific Electric car. Mr. Sleeper was so absorbed, apparently, in stopping the car he intended to board that he did not see another one approaching. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Pierce Bros.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable merit properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourself we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher H advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly ex receive his reward.

FEAR BUTTER SHORTAGE.

To prevent a butter famine throughout the country, no cream containing more than 20 per cent. butter fat can be sold. Such is the dictum of the Food Administration.

An announcement was received yesterday by Frank H. Suffel of the local Administration, from Federal Food Commissioner Ralph P. Merritt of San Francisco, to the effect that correlative with the order there comes a reduction in price.

This will go into effect at once. Under the new ruling quarter pints of cream will hereafter sell for 8 cents, halves for 14, and pints for 26. In bulk gallons will sell for from $1.65 to $1.70 wholesale. Quart bottles will bring 50 cents, or $2 a gallon at retail.

The new prices, it was explained, are to last until butter is no higher than 65 nor lower than 50 cents a pound. Dealers will meet the 25th of every month with the Food Administration to readjust prices. This regulation of prices, however, does not affect butter cream, but only to that of less than 20 per cent. butter fat, all that can be sold for other than churning purposes.

"The country is facing an acute shortage of fat butter during the coming winter," said Mr. Suffel yesterday. "There is in sight for the civilian population somewhat less than 40 per cent. of the normal supply, the government having commandeered practically 60 per cent of the visible supply of cold storage butter for our armed forces and the Allies.

"No relief can be expected from the producers until next spring. It is expected that the butter fat that will be released as the result of the enforcement of the foregoing rule will, in connection with other regulations, present and prospective, aid to some extent in relieving the acute butter shortage, and in restraining the price.

"This office confidently expects that distributors will immediately reduce their price for sweet cream in the same proportion that the butter fat content of the cream is reduced. This is the first specific rule that affects them."

Mr. Suffel left the city last evening for San Francisco, where he will attend a meeting held by Mr. Merritt with the Food Administration for twelve Western States. This will be held Friday and Saturday, and it was stated that the principal question will be that relating to stock feed and production.

What Is Rheumatism? Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection and Can Be Permanently Relieved.

Rheumatism means that the blood has become saturated with uric acid poison.

It does not require medical advice to know that good health is absolutely dependent upon pure blood. When the muscles and joints become sore and drawn with rheumatism, it is not a wise thing to take a little salve and by rubbing it on the sore spot, expect to get rid of your rheumatics. You must go deeper than that, down deep into the blood where the poison lurks and which is not affected by salves and ointments. It is important that you rid yourself of this terrible disease before it goes too far. S.S.S. is the blood purifier that has stood the test of time, having been in constant use for more than fifty years. It will do for you what it has done for thousands of others, drive the rheumatic poisons out of your blood, making it pure and strong, and enabling it to make you well. S. S. S. is guarantted purely vegetable, it will do the work and not harm the most delicate stomach.

Write the physician of this Company and let him advise with you. Advice is furnished without charge. Address Swift Specific Company, 435 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

NEW ACTRESS-MANAGER.

OUR OWN ZOE BARNETT WILL PRODUCE NEW OPERA.

By Grace Kingsley.

It would appear to be the open season for lady managers of theatrical companies. First it was Maude Fulton who bought a whole theater, up in Oakland; and now our own Zoe Barnett, who used to wake the rural echoes of Glendale with her beautiful voice, is going to be a sure-enough actress-manager, and will come West November 1.

Word was received by this department yesterday that Miss Barnett's venture is an operatic one, and that she will present "Carmencita," a new opera by Anthony Warren and William H. Powell, opening first in San Francisco.

After a few weeks in San Francisco, Miss Barnett will tour the Coast cities, including Los Angeles, Oakland and Portland, and will probably revive "The Red Rose" and "Nobody Home" in the course of her tour. In her company are George Kinnear, Richard Pyle, George Burnett, Florence Earle, Mignon McGibney, Jean Shelby and Danny Murphy.

Will Manage Charlie.

There's going to be a regularly touching little family reunion out at Charlie Chaplin's studio next week. An announcement from the Chaplin studio stating that Alfred Reeves, who originally managed the famous vaudeville act, "A Night in an English Music Hall," with which Charlie Chaplin first came to the United States, in 1910, has taken over the management of the Hollywood Chaplin studio, and has indeed already entered upon his executive duties.

Mr. Reeves returned to England in 1913, when Charlie Chaplin entered the pictures, and has only recently returned to this country.

Wonderful Polly Moran.

A letter from the gay and festive Polly Moran, former Keystone favorite, informs us that Miss Moran, who left Los Angeles with an idea of going to Australia in her own vaudeville act, is remaining in New York, where she is scattering her own delightful brand of sunshine as an entertainer of the wounded boys from overseas who are in the New York hospitals. Now she expects to go to France as a member of one of the Over There Entertainment Forces.

"I expect to sail about December 1 if it isn't all over. They say I am needed over there," writes Miss Moran, "but in the meantime it would make your heart ache to see our poor lads in the hospitals, who, however, are wonderfully bright and cheerful."

Toots Kaiser to Death.

Charles Winninger, Blanche Ring's current husband, is going to war. He's not going to try to shoot anybody, however, but is going to apply for the job of bandmaster, and even now is doing an hour's tooting practice each day on his trombone.

Nell Shipman, Patriot.

Down in Riverside, the other night, at a Liberty Loan meeting, Nell Shipman, Vitagraph star, sold a kiss to a man, on the understanding he would buy a nice fat bond. She says he looked entirely influenzaless, and so she took a chance. But she made him promise that for one of those celebrated Shipman kisses, which have been wont to set the inflammable picture fans ablaze, he should buy no less than a $10,000 bond, which he was good enough sport to do.

Dix May Remain.

Take heart, girls. It is just possible that Richard Dix may not take himself away from our midst, after all. He may instead remain here in pictures. It is understood that tests of Mr. Dix have been made at the Lois Weber Studio, and that the same being pleasing in the extreme, Mr. Dix may be engaged to play the lead in Lois Weber's next picture.

They're Vacationing.

Members of the "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" company, which play was to have opened at Clune's Auditorium last Monday evening, are spending pleasant vacations in Southern California while they wait more or less hopefully for the lights to flash up in front of Clune's.

Miss Gertrude Webster, who hasn't been with us for four years, is spending her days motoring with friends and catching up with her correspondence, while Edna Luke has motored to San Diego.

Corrigan's Son Ill.

Lillian Elliott and James Corrigan of the Morosco received word upon returning from a short trip, that their eldest son, Lloyd, is seriously ill at his grandmother's home in Berkeley. Lloyd had been nursing a boy friend who was stricken with Spanish influenza, and after his pal's recovery himself contracted the malady. Lillian Elliott will make a flying trip north this evening if no word of betterment is received. Lloyd has just passed his eighteenth birthday and entered the military training camp of the University of California.

"I earnestly request every patriotic American to leave to the governments of the United States and the Allies the momentous discussions initiated by Germany, and to remember that for each man his duty is to strengthen the hands of these governments and to do it in the most important way now immediately presented by subscribing to the utmost of his ability for bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan."

How Much of the Liberty Loan Should You Buy?

It is because people have not yet realized the correct basis for answering that question that the Loan is gravely theatened with failure.

The amount of bonds you should buy has absolutely nothing to do with the amount of CASH you have on hand. IT MUST BE IN PROPORTION TO YOUR WEALTH.

It may be that just now your wealth consists of property bringing you little or no income. That, of course, is only temporary. You have the wealth just the same and you are obligated physically and morally to buy bonds in proportion to that wealth.

Cash surpluses are inconsequential. Ninety per cent of the money can be borrowed on the bonds as security. Over half of it need not even be borrowed until the latter part of January because the government only asks you to pay 10 per cent of your subscription now; 20 per cent in November; 20 per cent in December; 20 per cent on January 16 and 30 per cent January 30.

There should be no consideration for anything in connection with this matter that smacks the slightest of either profit or loss, but for those who will weigh this side of the proposition that they borrow to buy their proper share the following opposed situations are submitted. That only the almost immediate re-sale of the bonds to meet some unavoidable situation could net on thousands of dollars invested a paltry loss, while retention of the same investment until accomplishment of that decisive peace-by-victory so rapidly approaching will result in a handsome profit. Good business and good citizenship demand the bonds be retained until the war's close.

Finally, there is absolute safety in U.S. Government bonds. You need not hesitate about asking your bank to loan you 90 per cent of your subscription for them.

I Am Public Opinion

All men fear me —

I declare that Uncle Sam shall not go to his knees to beg you to buy his bonds. That is no position for a fighting man. But if you have the money to buy, and you do not buy, I will make this No Man's Land for you.

I will judge you not by an allegiance expressed in mere words.

I will judge you not by your mad cheers as our boys march away to whatever Fate may have in store for them.

I will judge you not by the warmth of the tears you shed over the lists of the dead and the injured that come to us from time to time.

I will judge you not by your uncovered head and solemn mien as our maimed in battle return to our shores for loving care.

But, as wise as I am just, I will judge you by the material aid you give to the fighting men who are facing death that you may live and move and have your being in a world made safe.

I warn you—don't talk patriotism over here, unless your money is talking victory Over There.

I am Public Opinion—

As I judge, all men stand or fall.

BY WAY OF REPRISAL.

Now that the women have boldly taken our overalls, we men hope to goodness the day will soon come when we can wear their beads.

WILL NEED IT.

The Kaiser's income is four million dollars a year. Gen. Pershing ought to trap him and make him put half of it in Liberty Bonds. He would be mighty glad of it some day.

LEST WE FORGET.

Another thing not to be overlooked in the bill of reckoning is the wrecking and destruction as far as possible of the great coal mines around Lens when the Germans evacuated. Just because the Germans will not need coal in the place they are headed for is no reason why they should take it out on the rest of a suffering world.

WHERE GLORY WAITS.

"All I ask is to go through one big battle." So writes a Polytechnic High School student from his place behind the firing lines in France. His unit is in position but has not yet met the enemy in force. Men who go into action carrying that spirit never know defeat. They sleep on the night of their first battle in the trenches of the enemy or in the Elysian fields beyond the sunset.

A LA HOHENZOLLERN.

Chester Rowell's unreasoned campaign in favor of compulsory health insurance has chiefly served to call attention of the electorate of the State to the fact that he is himself the product of a German university and that ever since he received his degree he has looked upon men and things through the glasses of a German college professor. Compulsory medical attention is forced upon men in Germany and upon beasts in California.

UNION-MADE WASTE.

Statistics issued by the American Federation of Labor purport to show that the unions affiliated with that organization have spent $16,754,544.22 on strikes in the last five years. Before that money was expended it had to be collected in tribute from the workers belonging to the unions. The gross loss occasioned by those strikes has been estimated at $400,000,000. That is the cost of fighting for the closed shop. If the whole system of walking delegates and union labor despots could be wiped out, the sum might be applied to the purchase of Liberty Bonds.

THE PRISONERS' LOT.

One of the officers in charge of a camp for German prisoners back of the American lines in France mentions the bill of fare provided there for all captive Huns. It seems that they are supposed to have fresh meat twice a day, with plenty of good white wheat bread, creamery butter, coffee, milk, sugar, potatoes, beans and fruit. We can see where this war will wind up with all the Germans as prisoners in American camps and the Kaiser on the outside knocking loudly for admittance. People who would rather eat than fight would find this a good time to break into the German army.

INCREASED PRESTIGE.

President Wilson's reply to Germany's peace offer has won the British press as has no other document penned by any statesman since the beginning of the war. Beside the eulogies of the British editors, the utterances of the American press seem to lack enthusiasm; yet the American encomiums are couched in superlatives seldom used in editorial expression. The British press became incensed at President Wilson during our period of neutrality and the Britons have been a bit slow to acknowledge the injustice of their estimates at that time. But the President has finally broken through the British reserve and the enthusiasm his reply evoked is boundless. The Morning Post, a paper whose conservatism is proverbial, says that it is "the hardest hitting communication ever given out in the form of diplomacy." While the Daily News hails it as "the most momentous declaration of world policy ever uttered and it has behind it the embattled strength of civilization and the sanction of democracy in every land. No more kings in shining armor must be tolerated in this planet." But it required the comradeship of a world war to convince the stolid British press that it was possible for any good to come out of the American Nazareth.

A number of girls from France will matriculate in American colleges. It won't be necessary for the impressionable young men to go to France to be interested and delighted.

Why worry about whether there will be sugar enough for the crop of cranberries? There never was.

EFFECTS OF PEACE TALK.

If it is disturbing for the Allies, in the triumph of victory, to consider peace too optimistically, it is reasonable to suppose that the peace negotiations must be almost irredeemably demoralizing to the German army, suffering under the ignominy of defeat and frantic retreat.

If, therefore, the German government hoped, by its peace pourparlers, to secure a "trick peace," it was nevertheless staking the morale of the German army and civilian population in the plunge. The effect of the German peace offer in the face of persistent defeat, after four years of supermannish arrogance, can have nothing but a blighting effect on the already weakening morale of the Hun. The Kaiser must have been fully aware that he was putting up his last stake, his crown. President Wilson's reply has called the Hohenzollern, and whether Germany surrenders now or at a later date, the cold fact stands before the world that Germany knows she is beaten, and the army knows that, no matter what its heroism or endurance, no matter what efforts it may now put forth, whatever sacrifice it may make, it can win nothing but defeat for its portion.

If the Allied governments consider it essential for the maintenance of their victorious supremacy to avoid confidence in an early peace, how much more essential it must be for the German government to avoid the subtle germination of the peace idea in its own army! Yet this fatal germ has been inoculated into the German army and populace by the German government itself—sufficient evidence that it has long since given up all hope of victory, sufficient evidence that it has cast all caution to the winds and relies only upon such mercy as can be wrung from the Allies.

Germany knew full well that its reckless quest of peace could be nothing but a boomerang if it failed of its purpose. It has failed of its purpose and the beaten German army stands naked and forlorn before the Allies today as insidious demoralization sets in.

The Allied army, on the other hand, with sure and certain victory for its portion, with hundreds of thousands of men in the home camps itching to get into the fray before the scrap is over, with its abiding faith in its cause and the ultimate triumph thereof, runs precious little risk of demoralization by peace talk. It is meat to the Allied armies; poison to the German armies.

AS TO EVACUATION.

If they don't hurry up Gen. Foch isn't going to leave even the core for the diplomats.

While they negotiate in flowing periods, with many "have the honor to be's" and "distinguished considerations" about the problem of evacuating France and Belgium, Gen. Foch is applying a little diplomacy to the situation himself. His diplomatic notes are delivered from the big guns of the Allies. By the time the diplomats finally agree upon the solution of the evacuation problem there won't be any problem left to solute.

If it keeps up like this the diplomats will have to work in pairs. One will inform the Germans where they will have to evacuate; the other will sit on the end of a telephone line trying to find out where the Germans are by the time they get down to the end of the treaty-signing.

As to an armistice, it looks as though it would be an armistice between the innocent-looking French lion and the tough old German sheep. It will be an armistice with the sheep inside of the lion. In fact, a mere problem of digestion.

As far as our demand upon the Germans—that they evacuate occupied territory is concerned—their desire to evacuate is about equal to the willingness of a fox to instantly evacuate a trap in which he has been caught.

What troubles the German heart is not that the Allies demand their evacuation; but that Foch won't let them do it.

With the French and American forces hurling northward from the Argonne, and the left wing of the Allies driving in behind Ostend, it is a serious question whether the German army can manage to retreat from French soil without being annihilated.

They can't draw back through Alsace-Lorraine on account of the American operations. Their withdrawal through Belgium in the face of this terrible flanking operation before Ostend is about the most difficult operation ever offered to a defeated general.

Nothing but a military miracle could now save the German forces from being cut to pieces and destroyed.

Thoroughly disheartened by the desperation of their position, discouraged by the bad conditions of affairs at home in Germany, it is a foregone conclusion that we shall presently see wholesale surrenders of German forces in the field.

It looks very much as though the soldiers were going to settle this thing themselves. While the diplomats are talking as to whether or not the German forces should surrender, the defeated German soldiers will very likely take it in their own hands and surrender.

As a solver of diplomatic entanglements Gen. Foch is a man of talent.

Speaking of the conservation of paper, there is the sample of ballot sent out this week by County Registrar David B. Lyons, to the 308,551 registered voters in Los Angeles county. It might not have been a bad idea to have declared a moratorium on that law during the continuance of the war.

We should not imagine that the task of supplying books to our soldiers overseas is completed. It is, in fact, but hardly begun.

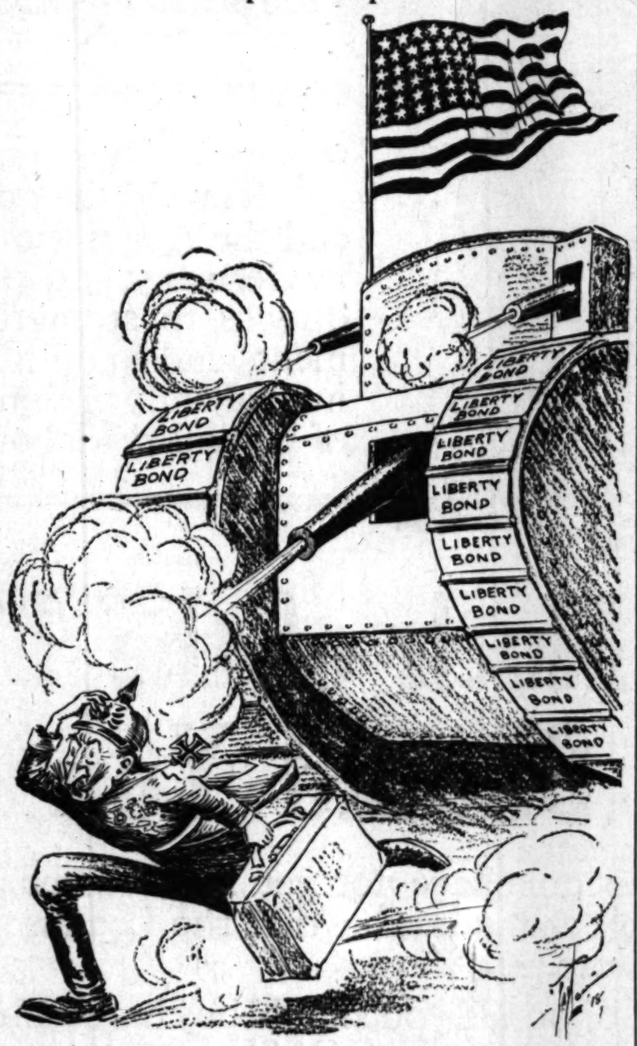
Speed Up!



NOT MADE WITH HANDS.

In Belgium and Northern France the retreating and routed Hun armies are razing to the ground, damaging, disfiguring or rendering uninhabitable every cottage, villa, hostelry, mansion, meeting house and church edifice on which the speed of their flight and the engines of destruction at their disposal enable them to wreak their vengeance.

In their blind fury they are dashing their heads against the stone walls of their victims and so making the day of reckoning more intolerable for themselves.

Americans read with horror and indignation how thousands of French and Belgian homes are being ruthlessly sacrificed. No horror was ever more natural; no indignation ever more justifiable. For the most holy and sacred word in the language of mankind is the word "home."

But in supposing that by these acts of vandalism and petty hatred they are destroying the homes of their adversaries the Prussian military commanders are repeating another of their innumerable psychological mistakes.

German materialism must ever defeat itself. That is the curse laid upon it. For every act of material destruction it will be compelled to make reparation to the uttermost farthing of the damage inflicted. And in that day of retribution there will be no yellow journalist in the United States to attempt to shift the burden of the rebuilding from the shoulders of the malefactors to those of the judges.

But in the higher and grander sense Prussian materialism is not destroying French and Belgian homes. That is another part of the curse laid upon it. It cannot touch the spiritual. For home is where the heart is, and the hearts of these martyred people are safe in God's keeping.

That gaunt chimney, to which clings the ragged remnant of what was once a humble, vine-clad cottage, the total worldly belongings of an honest, simple-minded, frugal French peasant, represents lifetimes of loving labor consecrated to the ideal of home. Hun malice has left it no longer a human habitation, just a chimney, a few fragments of powder-burnt masonry.

And yet, at the heels of the army of rescue, the old peasant proprietor creeps back to that cherished ruin to snuggle beneath the shelter of that gaunt chimney—the old wife burns some fagots on the hearthstone—the children gather round in the rubble and dust and litter of the piled-up debris.

Again the smell of hot coffee and sizzling bacon fills the wrecked inglenook beneath the gaunt, stark chimney. The old man turns his face toward the blank space where once stood the spire of the village church and with tears of gratitude on his care-worn cheeks asks a blessing on the food sent by the kind hearts of strangers from miles away across the seas for the relief of thousands of such desolated families. So on the old hearth these returned wanderers once more eat the accustomed morning meal.

Have the Huns destroyed this old French home? Has not the spiritual again shown itself invulnerable to the forces of material destruction? Home is something more than walls and roofs and gables, red tiles and rose-covered porches. The Son of Man, the greatest of all home-builders, "had no place to lay his head." Yet, unless his spirit resides there, no true home life is possible.

In Belgium and Northern France the retreating and routed Hun armies are destroying buildings with high explosive bombs and liquid fire. But they can never touch the homes that are built in the hearts of these martyred people, for those homes are not built by mortal hands.

COALHEAVER VS. TYPEWRITER.

The typist who is operating her machine does not appear to be doing very heavy physical labor, as compared with the brawny individual in a stokehold who is shoveling coal into a hungry furnace, but this is one of the many instances in which superficial appearances are deceptive, as a comparison of the force expended by the two will show.

The stoker may be credited with handling one ton of coal per hour, or eight tons per day, plus the weight of his shovel. Adding the shovel to his 17,960 pounds of coal, he expends about 20,000 pounds of energy.

For each key struck on the typewriting machine there is an expenditure of something like three ounces of energy, or day, one pound to the average word. A fair operator will average 1500 words an hour, or, in eight hours, 12,000 words—12,000 pounds of energy. To throw over the carriage for each new line requires, on an average, three pounds of force. Twelve thousand words will make 1000 lines, so there are 3000 pounds of energy to be added to the 12,000, making 15,000 pounds of energy expended—which compares pretty well with the stoker's 20,000, all things considered. A really fast operator would push the expenditure of energy up to 25,000 pounds, or more.

A PRAYER FOR VICTORY.

O Almighty Lord God of Hosts, be with our armies on the field of battle and give them victory as Thou seest their cause to be just. Mercifully pity all who fall in battle. Have their souls in Thy keeping and bring them to Thine eternal glory. Comfort by the grace of Thy Divine Spirit the sick and wounded and console by the same grace all who grieve for the dead, wounded and sick in all the war zones of this afflicted world wherein Thy children undergo untold agony in the terrible war prevailing. Finally, bring quickly peace again in our time, O Lord. We pray in the name of Thy Beloved Son our Blessed Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen. G. W. BURTON.

A Hint for Unions.

Labor will be in a strong position after the war. If it acts as a political force to maintain wages on an artificially high level countries that take a more sensible position will gain trade, and there will be less work for those who ask too much. We have before us the experience of Russia, where factory workers demanded such high pay that the workshops were forced to close. If labor became more efficient as wages advanced the outlook would be better, but the contrary is the case in our shipyards and workshops. More pay for less work will not keep the wheels of industry in motion. Some point to Henry Ford as proof to the contrary but he succeeds in getting more and better work for more pay, and his shops are not unionized.—[New York Commercial.

New Capitalists Coming.

The difficulty with the war industries is too much undertime as the result of too much overtime and of more wages than some men know how to spend. The saving men will form a new crop of capitalists, and the spenders will form a crop of Coal Oil Johnnies who will be found at the public soup kitchen a few years hence.—[Portland Oregonian.

Flowers for Ferdy.

Ferdinand, late of the Bulgar throne, announces his intention of devoting himself hereafter to the study of botany. Here is an opportunity for the German Kaiser. He might be put to "picking violets" for Ferdy. —[New York Herald.

Cause for Thanks.

"I met a real optimist the other day," said the war hospital surgeon, "a fellow to whom I certainly doff my hat. He had lost a leg, and when they picked him up the first thing he said was: 'Thank God, it was the leg with the rheumatism!'"—[Detroit Free Press.

COMPULSORY HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN.

BY P. S. RISHEL.

The proposed compulsory health insurance scheme, to be voted on at the November election, is full of dangerous German kultured poison. If adopted the Legislature can enact laws giving insurance against sickness, disability, support of dependents and general industrial welfare.

This new scheme is vicious and dangerous. It will encourage idleness instead of thrift, and sickness instead of health. It will not encourage industry or economy, but create a large number of worthless dependents who will not work, but play the sick role to the injury of honest people that they may be fed at the State crib.

Under the clause of the proposed act entitled, "General Welfare," the Legislature could do almost anything, even to the inaugurating of moving-picture shows or the conduct of a matrimonial bureau.

This scheme would no doubt furnish one or more fat commissions with big salaries, a large office force in many cities, the rental of many offices, much stationery and liberal advertising. Then it would give an easy place for several thousand State doctors at liberal salaries, to examine everybody and to give the people a dose of castor oil or squills.

It should be remembered that the proposed law is for enforced health insurance. If you are sick, disabled or a dependent you could get no insurance money or relief unless these State doctors prescribed for you.

Think of an American being forced to pay for insurance they do not want, and have doctors treat them, no matter how ignorant or distasteful they might be.

With such an autocratic law in force here, who would want to come to California from any eastern State and make a home here, knowing that they would be compelled to pay out their money and submit to such a wild visionary scheme of insurance?

Under the proposed new law the lazy slacker would often secure insurance money upon the claim that he was sick while the industrious man would work and pay for the worthless one's pretended sickness or disability.

If this amendment to the State Constitution, known as No. 20 (on your ballot,) carries at the election headaches, gout and laziness will be at a premium, for these ailments and others will secure insurance money from the State.

The vagabond and the fellow who will not work will no longer go hungry or tramp the roads, for they will live at ease, play sick or claim disability and get insurance money.

If this amendment carries it cannot be set aside or repealed by any Legislature, so you see we would have the yoke of bondage until such time as the matter would be again submitted to a vote at some State election.

With a great war on our hands and its enormous needs and demands, why saddle ourselves with additional burdens to try this new scheme, one that has never been a success anywhere? Many of our best lawyers say that this proposed amendment would be unconstitutional and revolutionary.

If this proposed amendment to the Constitution carries at the election the Legislature can enact laws as unreasonable and proscriptive as the old Blue Laws of New England.

Our Constitution is the safeguard of our personal rights, but if it is broken down or impaired we may never regain them.

The men who urge the adoption of this amendment are theorists willing to exchange value and substance for a shadow. They are much like the man who once earnestly asked the government to make money out of moonshine and declare it a legal tender for debt and the government taxes and revenues.

Under this scheme as contemplated in the social welfare clause the unemployed would be fed and housed at State expense, so why work when the government will support you and carry you on flowery beds of ease?

Social insurance cannot remove or prevent poverty or sickness, but would create paupers and indolence. It would make our homes subject to invasion by political inspectors and compel gentle wives and daughters to submit to personal physical examinations.

Vote against this socialistic insurance which was born in Prussia.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

AUTUMN CHILL.

The chilly wind begins to sing,
It's been on ice, I trow; the overcoat I soaked last spring would be a blessing now. But it will have to stay in pawn; the cost of living's high, and all my bank account is gone, there's not a kopeck nigh. The wailing winds of which you've heard blow cold across the lea; gone southward is the dicky-bird that used to sing to me; the gentle flowers are in the hole, o'er their dead stalks I weep; and in the elm tree's hollow hole the aardvark lies asleep.
The night wind has a dismal note, a sort of piercing whine; and I bewail the overcoat my uncle has in brine. The clouds are hanging low today, there is a threat of rain; the trees are gaunt and bare and gray, and in the blast complain. The leaves are flying everywhere, they soar and swoop like bats; and all the chill October air seems full of dust and hats. As though it had a human throat, that cold wind pipes its tune; alas, the good old overcoat
I soaked the tenth of June! Oh, other men may face the storm, the biting, arctic breeze, and keep their slats and innards warm, but I must shake and freeze. In my sad grange that has no moat, all winter I must stay, and wish I had the overcoat
I soaked one vernal day.

MARY JANE IN WASHINGTON.

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Oct. 3.—"Oh, here is my civil service appointment!" cried Mary Jane as the postman handed her a long, white envelope. She turned a radiant face to her companions, "I will be leaving for Washington in a few days. I do hope you all get your appointments soon, so we can be together."

But the other two girls did not respond to her enthusiasm. They said that they had decided not to accept appointments in Washington because of the stories and rumors they had heard of crowded rooms and expensive poor food.

"Oh, yes, I've heard all those things, too," said Mary Jane. "I probably will have a hard time; it will be hard to get used to—but so are the trenches. This is my big opportunity to do real war work and I am not going to turn it down just because of a few rumors or because it may mean sacrifice on my part."

So Mary Jane left her comfortable home in the West and journeyed to Washington to take her place in the war programme. If her friends expected her to be discouraged they were disappointed. Mary Jane did have troubles, but it turned out to be a case of "the last laugh" being the best, because she found out that the hardships were only temporary.

The United States Employment Service of the Department of Labor is looking for more Mary Janes to come to Washington to fill government positions as stenographers, typists and clerks. It would also like to tell Mary Jane and her friends that through the Housing Bureau of the Department of Labor every effort is being made to provide suitable accommodations for all women summoned to Washington for war work. Early in the year sufficient accommodations will be arranged so that girls will find themselves in as comfortable an atmosphere as prevails in any city under war conditions.

The first thing the war worker sees when coming out of the Union Station is a group of unfinished buildings which lie over to the right between the Capitol and the Union Station. To the left of the buildings and the station is a huge frame structure which was built last winter for Billy Sunday's campaign in the capital. It now bears the familiar triangular sign of the Y.M.C.A. Adjoining this enormous hut is a large and very reasonable cafeteria maintained by the Y.W.C.A. for the benefit of those who have come to Washington for war work. But the newcomer will be more interested in the unfinished buildings. She will be informed by the person who meets her, whether friend, relative or a representative of the Room Renting Bureau, that these are the residence halls which the government is erecting for her and her fellow-workers.

Each residence hall will be built in fourteen units and will house two thousand girls. One of the halls will be completed and ready to be occupied by December.

The residence halls will be open only to workers in the government departments. Application for rooms may be made through the heads of the departments. No individual applications will be received by the Housing Bureau.

Uncle Sam does not propose to house his girl workers in barracks. Neither does he expect them to live in dormitories with all the restrictions that the word implies. Of course, the girls will be chaperoned. Arrangements will be made for a house-mother or matron for each unit, but this does not mean that the girls must be in their rooms or put lights out at a certain hour, or that they will not be allowed to entertain friends. The new residence halls will be operated on the plan of an apartment hotel. Two meals a day will be served, breakfast and dinner. There will be a diet kitchen in each unit, where girls coming in late at night may prepare their own suppers. This will be of special interest to those girls who are assigned to night work.

The rooms are eight by ten. There will be a few double rooms, but those who have studied the problem have found that most of the war workers prefer to room alone. The furnishings will be simple, but everything is to be new and comfortable.

Not only has Uncle Sam turned boarding-house-keeper, but he has also turned his attention to entertaining the girls, or rather to giving them a chance to entertain themselves. The government knows that a place to sleep and three meals a day, alone, are not sufficient to keep young girls satisfied. Each unit of the residence halls will have a large auditorium and ballroom, where moving pictures, dances, lectures or some other form of amusement will be offered every night. When the Man from Home comes to see the Girl That Left Him Behind, they will not have far to go for entertainment.

Washington offers an opportunity for real service. The girls who come here must realize that this is war work and they must be prepared to make the best of unusual conditions. Living conditions in every war capital are difficult. Paris and London are crowded, and prices are even higher than in this country.

Saxony Least Cruel.

The Prussians are the cruelest and vainest of German soldiers. The Bavarians are scarcely less brutal and domineering. The Saxons are the best. The Saxons have never, we believe, been accused of atrocity.

Saxony ranks next to Prussia and Bavaria in population, wealth and power among the states of the German Empire. It is there we should naturally look first for a repudiation of Pan-Prussianism.

The German government keeps a closed fist, and the Saxons will not be able to force their hand. The Prussians and Bavarians are too powerful. But there is a glimmer of encouragement in the peace demonstrations of Saxony. It is there that we naturally look for the rebellion to Prussianism to break

THE MEANING OF 100% WAR WORK

An Analysis by the Packard Motor Car Company

THE four bed-rock essentials of war are Coal, Steel, Labor and Transportation. You cannot have any of the four without the other three.

You cannot feed and clothe the Nation—cannot ship men and munitions, cannot produce a dollar of wealth—without all four.

Transportation Specialists

The essential work of the Packard Motor Car Company lies in the field of Motor Transportation.

Throughout its twenty years' career it has always regarded the motor car as primarily a means of transportation—whether of passengers or of merchandise.

If the 45,000 Packard passenger cars show any advantages in speed, any unusual economy in gasoline, tires and upkeep—it is because the Packard has always been built to transportation standards.

Speed and economy are the most important factors in transportation.

There are seven sizes of Packard Trucks—from one ton to six-and-one-half tons—because transportation economy demands fitting the equipment to the load. The light truck for the light load—the heavy truck for the heavy load.

This company was the first in the world to design and perfect the 12-cylinder motor—the new and higher embodiment of the transportation principle of flexibility, power and economy.

100% War-work Program

The 100% war-work program recently announced by the Packard Company is an extension of the Packard war-essential program adopted when war broke out.

Seventy per cent of Packard man-power and equipment were devoted to such work the first year of the war.

Ninety per cent in the second year.

The manufacture of passenger cars has been discontinued.

And from now on One Hundred per cent devoted exclusively to war-essential work.

This work will take many forms, commanding the man-power and equipment of the entire Packard plant of sixty-one factory buildings covering fifty-six acres of ground, working eighteen and twenty-four hours a day. A production capacity of One Hundred Million Dollars a year devoted to war essentials exclusively:

WAR MOTORS TRUCKS
AIRPLANES TRACTORS

Packard Service to Owners

Not the least important of the Packard war-essential activities will be the production of replacement parts for Service Stations and Dealers.

There are many thousands of Packard Trucks in industrial service. They are not only keeping essential business going, but they are taking a heavy load off the over-burdened railroads.

And of the 45,000 Packard passenger cars in use—many are devoted to war work, most of them to essential transportation.

These wheels must be kept turning—not only to hold faith with the Packard owners, whose confidence and good will are the finest assets of the Packard Company; but because the Nation cannot afford to have its transportation contracted.

Packard a Permanent Institution

Its Motor Transport Department is a permanent organization for the development of industrial motor transportation.

Its Branches and Dealers are permanent agencies for service.

It has inspired most of the developments of motor transportation, and has made vital contributions to all.

The far-reaching meaning of the 12-cylinder engine—Packard's newest contribution to motor transport—will be better known after the war.

It feels today that its highest service now to the individual American, whether a Packard owner or not, is to put all its resources back of the National program—100% Win-the-war.

UNCLE SAM GOOD PARTNER.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

In spite of discussion and explanations there is still a good deal of uncertainty over the status of government war bonds, and because of this misunderstanding Liberty Loan managers feel that some subscriptions may be lost.

Incredible as it may seem, there remain a not inconsiderable fraction of investors who appear to think that when they subscribe for these bonds they are in some manner patronizing the government or performing an act of charity. This attitude is taken, according to bank officials and others active in the Loan work, by individuals who are ordinarily astute enough in the handling of profit sharing securities, but who for some reason seem unable to grasp the fact that a government bond has within it potential force which carries it above the ordinary every-day municipal or corporate bond and puts it in a niche of its own as a profitable investment.

In the first place these bonds, up to $30,000, are tax exempt, and this fact alone is sufficient to place them, soon after the war, in the above par class, which will have the same effect so far as the holder is concerned of increasing the interest rate.

Another phase that is not generally understood is that which provides for certain exemptions to apply on purchases of previous loans dependent upon subscriptions to the present issue. The law governing the Fourth Liberty Loan contains the following provisions as set forth by the official Treasury Department circular:

(1.) The interest on an amount of bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan the principal of which does not exceed $30,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association or corporation, shall be exempt from graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations or corporations;

(2.) The interest received after January 1, 1919, on an amount of bonds of the First Liberty Loan converted, dated either November 15, 1917, or May 9, 1918; the Second Liberty Loan, converted and unconverted, and the Third Liberty Loan, the principal of which does not exceed $45,000 in the aggregate owned by any individual, partnership, association or corporation, shall be exempt from such taxes; provided, however, that no owner of such bonds shall be entitled to such exemption in respect to the interest on an aggregate principal amount of such bonds exceeding one and one-half times the principal amount of bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan originally subscribed for by such owner and still owned by him at the date of his tax return."

Under these various provisions it will be possible to hold a total of $110,000 Liberty bonds, yielding a total annual income of $4675 (4 1-4 per cent.) without payment of any Federal income tax. This amount is made up as follows:

Original exemption	$ 6,000
Third loan 4¼s purchased by conversion of 4s	30,000
Aggregate of old 4s or 4½s, not exceeding 7½ times subscription to fourth loan	45,000
Fourth loan 4¼s issued upon conversion of 3½s	30,000
Total	$110,000

Regarding the prospective value of Liberty Loan Bonds, including those of the Fourth Loan, the Wall Street Journal says that it is calculated on the assumption that a 4 per cent. rate of interest may reasonably represent the credit basis of the United States shortly after the return of peace (say two years hence) the different issues then should be quoted as follows:

First (converted) 4¼s (due 1947, redeemable 1932) 103¾
Second (converted) 4¼s (due 1942, redeemable 1927) 101¾
Third 4¼s (due 1928) 101¾
Fourth 4¼s (due 1938, redeemable 1933).. 102¾

"The present rate of 4 1-4 per cent. should be certainly regarded as amply justified in consideration of the fact that the citizens of this country should welcome an opportunity to even loan their money without any interest return whatever in order to bring about a victorious peace and the perpetuation of the democracy which we all wish to continue to enjoy."

It is difficult to see how the present issue, 4 1-4 per cent., Federal, sur, excess and war profits, normal State and inheritance tax exempt can fail to appeal to the investor even without the added incentive of patriotism.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—On an enormous volume of business, today's stock market witnessed another series of upward movements in numerous issues, mostly of the "peace" group, while recognized "war" shares remained heavy or at least backward.

Some of the buying which was unusually diffuse in that it comprehended stock of obscure origin, was attributed to revival of public interest, predicated upon latest phases of the war situation.

In the main, however, trading derived its stimulus from pools and kindred factors, some of which evidently found it expedient to finance commitments on the long side by extending their operations for the short account.

In addition to the resumption of activity in oils, and marines at higher levels, motors and their accessories developed unwonted prominence and strength and metals and gas shares were in process of further accumulation.

Wilson Packing, Virginia and Carolina Chemical, General Electric, American Ice, American Tobacco, Sears-Roebuck and Woolworth embraced the stronger specialties.

Rails started a belated advance with Union Pacific's two-point gain and Canadian Pacific's sharp rally of 3½ points, grangers, coalers and the southern division rising 1 to 1½ points.

Among the striking features were Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch and Pan-American Petroleum preferred at gross advances of six to nine points, Marine preferred 4 1-4, Studebaker 5, United States Rubber 5½, Goodrich 5, American Ice 5, and Ohio Gas 4 1-4.

These were reduced by 1 to 2 points at the end. United States Steel lost a small fraction, related issues forfeiting 1 to 2 points. Total sales amounted to 935,000 shares.

Bonds, notably Liberty issues, were irregular, French government 5½s making a new high record at 102 1-8. Total sales (par value) aggregated $9,825,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Liberty Bond closing prices: 3½s, 99.96; first convertible 4s, 97.84; second 4s, 97.14; first convertible 4 1-4s, 97.96; second convertible 4 1-4s, 97.12; third 4 1-4s, 97.16.

Hodgeson, ...of the Arizona chapter of ...an Mining Congress. An ...has been sent to Ray D. ...ector of the United States ...Washington.

...the main purposes of the convention is to organize a chapter of our national organization here," Mr. Burns stated. "The mining situation is critical and of tremendous importance to Californians. Of intense interest is the gold question. It costs 60 per cent. more to produce gold today than when the standard was adopted. Gold was about $20.67 an ounce then. It amounts to something more than $30 now. The shortage of labor is such that it precludes any possibility of exploration and extension, and the increased cost of production has made a decrease of 35 per cent. in production. This is really alarming, especially at this time, when every ounce of gold is needed."

The American Mining Congress, he stated, represents all of the mining industry's political and development interests. Should a chapter be established in California, it will probably result that the mining interests will have their headquarters in San Francisco, while the oil operators will be in Los Angeles.

The local committee that has sent out invitations to the convention to all oil producers of the State is composed of E. A. Montgomery, I. E. Fuqua and W. B. Robb. The State committee, which is working on the chapter establishment, comprises Capt. Albert Burch, John Barneson, L. D. Gerdon, Fletcher Hamilton, State mineralogist of San Francisco, Philip Wiseman and E. A. Montgomery.

"We want to see what we can do when our men come home, and when we no longer need steel for cannon and lead for bullets," Mr. Burns declared. "We must avoid a panic."

ASK HELP ON DRESSINGS.

The Westlake Auxiliary of the Red Cross, which meets at the Westlake Presbyterian Church, West Ninth street and Grand View avenue, is badly in need of additional helpers to work on surgical dressing pads. They have a quota of 500 pads which must be finished by Saturday. Workers meet every morning, afternoon and evening at the church.

ITALY AFTER SHIPS HERE?

Navy Captain will Arrive Today with American Board Official.

Advices from San Francisco last evening stated that Robert L. Hague, head of the department of design, inspection survey and repairs, of the United States Shipping Board, under direct charge of John H. Rossiter, director-general of operations, will arrive in Los Angeles this morning to investigate shipbuilding and report on conditions here.

The dispatch also states that Mr. Hague is escorting Capt. Como of the Italian navy, who is investigating shipbuilding conditions for the Italian government.

TO FORECLOSE AGAINST LLANO.

Mr. McConkie says it is the intention of his company to develop the colony land, build concrete ditches and thus water it, and to plant pear trees. He says that the new plans call for no Socialists, or colony of them.

The Llano del Rio colony, in the hey day of its fame, had more than 1000 persons living in the Antelope Valley structures. Very soon after its establishment the internal bickerings began. Then there was serious trouble over the water rights, and finally, through court decisions, it was shown that there never would be water available for the lands secured for colonization purposes.

Meanwhile, large sums of money had been invested in a community dining-room, men's dormitories, plunge and the laying of foundations for various industries that soon pined away. The colony was not able to raise enough feed for its stock or vegetables for its own tables; internal dissatisfaction constantly grew, and finally the State Commissioner of Corporations had an investigation made of the affairs of Llano del Rio, and its management was severely criticised. It was required that this report must be shown to any person purposing to buy stock in the Socialist colony. The result was obvious.

After many vicissitudes the colony dwindled away to small proportions, and finally a portion of its members were moved to a new location at Stables, La., where the headquarters of the Llano del Rio colony were established. Since then constant reports have come from Stables as to internal difficulties, and several of the colony members have been able to make their way back to California.

With the abandonment of the colony in Antelope Valley, the announcement was made that this property would be developed by a holding company, as one of the Llano enterprises. A considerable quantity of pears trees has been set out on the land that can be irrigated.

ORANGE LOAN QUOTA ASSURED

Expect an Oversubscription in Next Few Days.

Many Towns in County are Now Well "Over the Top."

Drive at Pasadena Nearing an Interesting Close.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 16.—Santa Ana and Orange county are coming into the Fourth Liberty Loan home stretch, with confident hopes of oversubscribing the quotas within a day or two. Santa Ana's total today is $1,156,400 against a quota of $1,472,250. The county's total is $2,500,000 against a quota of $2,-907,150.

Substantial subscriptions were secured at a community sing last night, following a graphic description of modern-day fighting by Capt. H. F. Taylor, who commanded the tank Britannia when the land battleship went into action under command of Gen. Byng. "A dollar buys a bomb that will send a Hun to hell," said Capt. Taylor, and the citizens immediately killed 50,000 Huns.

The Orange County Supervisors yesterday increased the county's subscription by $50,000, making a total purchase of $100,000 worth of the Fourth Loan by county funds.

Upon solicitation by Chairman R. L. Bixby of Santa Ana, James Irvine, owner of the big Irvine ranch, who is now in San Francisco, has agreed to increase his subscription by $50,000. If Tom Santa Ana men will increase theirs by $5000 each, and the ten $5000 men are now being secured, assuring a $100,000 additional subscription.

Most of the Orange county communities have already exceeded their quotas, the subscriptions in the various communities being as follows:

Anaheim, $322,950; Orange, $321,150; Fullerton, $265,250; Huntington Beach, $43,450; Garden Grove, $42,000; Buena Park, $15,000; Brea, $37,900; La Habra, $25,000; Newport Beach, $28,900; Olive, $20,750; Placentia, $54,200; Tustin, $61,000; Yorba Linda, $21,850. Smaller communities clearing through banks at above places have subscribed. Bulsa, $8000; Balboa, $7950; East Newport, $3400; El Toro, $24,000; Greenville, $14,550; Glorsetta, $5300; Harper, $8800; Irvine, $82,500; Laguna Beach, $8260; Olinda, $29,000; San Juan Capistrano, $37,800; Talbert, $2300; Wintersburg, $5750; Westminster, $6450.

AT PASADENA.

PASADENA, Oct. 16.—Pasadena's subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan now amount to $1,200,000. With only three days left, the Pasadena War Finance Committee, of which S. W. French is chairman, is bending every effort to put the Crown City "over the top." Following the example of Los Angeles, Pasadena is planning a campaign of pitiless publicity for persons that fail to support the bond campaign.

LONG BEACH NEAR GOAL.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 16.—With but $200,000 yet to raise, this city expects to go over the top in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive with a quota of $2,303,050 by Friday night at the latest. Friday has been designated as "clean-up" day by the local campaign committee, and an extra effort will be made on that day to place Long Beach over the line twenty-four hours before the national drive is scheduled to close.

ALHAMBRA HONOR CITY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ALHAMBRA, Oct. 16.—This city has subscribed $288,000 to the Fourth Liberty Loan. Its quota is $190,960. While the city will be unable to uphold its record of "Three times over the top" attained in the Third Loan drive, nevertheless it is fully expected that the subscriptions will reach the quarter-million mark by Saturday.

ONTARIO EXPECTS $300,000.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, Oct. 16.—J. O. Mills, chairman of the Ontario Liberty Loan Committee, tonight announced Ontario's total subscription to the Fourth Loan at $281,300, with a total of 1630 subscribers. This puts Ontario more than $20,000 over the top, the quota for this city being $258,600. It is expected the total will pass the $300,000 mark before the end of the week. More than $50,000 worth of bonds were sold when the tank "Democracy" was here.

CALEXICO HAS QUOTA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CALEXICO, Oct. 16.—Calexico's allotment in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, amounting to $260,000, has been oversubscribed. A committee from the general committee announced at 4 o'clock today. Since subscriptions are yet easy to obtain, the solicitors will keep up their work until the time for the drive to close.

The steam caves at Arrowhead have been rated for the gassed soldiers and found 100 per cent. efficient.—[Advertisement.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 16.—Lieut. W. H. Bradford of the San Diego Aviation Camp, met with an accident here yesterday afternoon while attempting to take to the air again after stopping to replenish his petrol tank. The birdman had made a trip from San Diego to the Arcadia Aviation Camp with a student flyer on Monday. Tuesday morning he left on the return trip, but lost his course, and running low on gasoline, landed on the beach between Newport and Balboa.

When he attempted to resume the journey, one wheel of the machine struck a soft spot on the beach and headed the plane toward the ocean just as a large breaker came in and dashed over the machine, partially blinding the aviator. The breaker, combined with a stiff breeze, threw the plane in towards shore and before the flyer could gain control the plane crashed into the piling of an old bulkhead, breaking the propeller and damaging the left wing. Fortunately Bradford was not injured. Further flight being out of the question, he phoned to San Diego and a truck was dispatched to take the wrecked plane back to camp.

UTAH COAL DEALER VISITS THE HARBOR.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Oct. 16.—W. D. McLean of Salt Lake City is here investigating the need of coal bunkers. It is the theory of Mr. McLean that the lessening of the fuel oil supply and the greater demand will force many oil-burning engines both on land and sea to be converted into coal burners. Today he spent looking over harbor maps and prospective sites for coal bunkers. While coal is not now being extensively used at this port, Mr. McLean believes the time is coming when Utah coal will find a big market here. The present freight rate is $5.04 per ton, which he believes will be lowered with an increased tonnage.

TO PRECINCT WORKERS.

With the Fourth Liberty Loan now rapidly coming to a close full responsibility for the results in the city rests on your shoulders.

Through the precinct honor rolls placed in your charge you not only know who it is that have not done their duty by the loan, but exactly where they live. Between their indifference or selfishness and the city's threatened honor you now stand as the last line of defense.

Your individual tasks are yours alone to perform. It is upon your personal force, tact and power that the reputation of your neighborhood and your city depends for safety from being victimized by those within your power to reach and convert to full participating citizenship with yourself in the financial support of this war.

If you do your work with all of the zeal and purpose that you expect of others, there will be no result but success, and the good name of the city will have been preserved as you and all who have done their full share by the loan deserve.

RUSSELL H. BALLARD,
Director of Precinct Organization.

MRS. J. T. ANDERSON,
Chairman Woman's Committee.

ities at the City Hall has just completed its third drive on the Fourth Liberty Loan; the total subscriptions from its total of twelve employees $750, the 100 per cent. honor emblem was awarded the department on the first drive and every employee has subscribed on each of the three drives.

Although the organization has already subscribed to several thousand of dollars worth of Liberty Bonds, the Austrian Military Benevolent Association of this city yesterday subscribed new bonds to the total of $500. The subscription was made through the Bank of Italy. The organization is composed mostly of men who have seen some military service in the Austrian army, but who are now naturalized American citizens.

It's Nine to One!

How many soldiers of German extraction
Will each stalwart Sammy put clear out of action?
And the answer comes wailing from over the Rhine,
"Nine, O mine gott, O mine gott, it vas nine."

"Bally right," said a Tommy—from a Frenchman,
"wee wee."
When our boys get real busy, how the Germans will flee,
And they'll never stop running from our guns' awful din,
Till we bottle them up in limberger Berlin.

There isn't a doubt; it's a dead open cinch,
That our boys fight like demons when it comes to a pinch!
Autocracy's dying and the Kaiser as dead,
As if some brave Sammy shot off his "dam" head.

NOTE—The above is a little portion of a cheerful letter the undersigned wrote to the boys over in France last spring. And our boys have more than lived up to every word of it.

Here is another verse I would like to add:

Now the question is this. Are there any so dead,
Who won't buy "4th Liberty" way over their head?
Uncle Sam needs the money, and will get it, you bet!
So it's Straight up to you, to buy all you can get.

And just consider what you are getting for your money—U. S. Government Bonds, yielding 4¼ per cent. interest! If anything like this had been offered the public five years ago there would have been a stampede to buy all in sight. Today it is even a better investment, as the security is the best in the whole world.

BUY ALL YOU CAN BUY!
AND YOU WILL GET BY,
BYE AND BYE!!

STATE BODIES APPEALED TO.

Buy Berlin Tickets for the Soldiers, Says Federation Head.

All members of the Federation of State Societies are requested to call at their bank and subscribe for Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. Four days are left to raise $23,000,000 in Los Angeles. Make it your business to take all the bonds you can. If you haven't the money, borrow it. Your bank will carry you for ninety days at the same rate per cent. the bonds carry.

This call is for every one who has not yet purchased a bond and for those who can afford more bonds.

Our boys at the front are not waiting for something to happen; they make things happen. To keep this up, they must be taken care of. They are in the trenches; you are the last reserves. They need tickets in the shape of shells, ammunition, clothing, medicine and army supplies to get into Berlin. Buy those tickets today by loaning your money and taking bonds as security. Get busy and buy bonds.

F. H. TRUE,
President Federation of State Societies.

LIBERTY LOAN NOTES.

The Beaux Corporation, No. 203 New High street, its officers and employees, together with members of families of officers and employees, have subscribed to the extent of $54,800 in bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan. Everyone connected with the company in any capacity has subscribed, and it is expected that some who have already doubled their subscriptions may treble them.

At a meeting of the West Ebell Club yesterday a bond rally netted $2350.

The Victory Honor Roll, published this morning, grew so fast yesterday that it was necessary to place it in the hands of the auditors at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. About $25,000 worth of subscriptions do not appear in the list, and will have to be added to a later group.

Director R. H. Ballard of the precinct organizations needs 200 additional workers. He says the success or failure of the loan depends largely upon the ability of the precinct organization to interview and church up every citizen before Saturday night. Volunteers for this last-minute work are asked to report to Mr. Ballard's Liberty Loan headquarters, No. 719 Singer Hill street, this morning.

Pomona's subscription has been boosted $500 by Frederick Lewis, of the Nafwalt Lemon and Rubber Company, who has recently purchased a 7000-acre acre ranch at that place. Mr. Lewis offered to subscribe $2000, provided some institution in that city would take a like amount. The Mayor has guaranteed to see that the but is copped.

E. C. Bellows, Commissioner of Corporations, is preparing a notice to be sent to all the security dealers of the State operating under the jurisdiction of the State Corporation Department, that the department will not countenance trafficing in Liberty Bonds. Several cases and bond houses have been making a specialty of selling their securities and taking in exchange Liberty Bonds at prices even in excess of the quoted figures of the exchange, the difference between the actual selling value of the Liberty Bonds and the figure at which they are taken in exchange being swallowed up by the agent's commission. Commissioner Bellows says that his department will summarily suspend the permits of concerns transacting a business of this character.

Director-General of Railroads McAdoo has addressed an open letter to railroad men in this region in which he calls attention of officials and employees to the desirability of subscribing to the Fourth Loan to the limit of their ability. He tells them that lending money to Uncle Sam is the finest use that can be made of it, not only because it is a safe investment in itself but because it will help the country to win the war. "The fact that the Kaiser is already making offers of peace," says Mr. McAdoo, "should make us more eager to put this loan over, and keep our fighting pressure at the maximum until we've actually got peace. Now is the time for every man in the fighting army in Europe and every man in the industrial army at home to go to the limit to make the great victories our soldiers have already won absolutely complete and final. I hope that when the drive closes next Saturday it will be shown that the railroad men are 100 per cent. I hope that no railroad man will fail to do his full part."

SCIENTISTS WOULD LIFT CHURCH BAN.

Local Christian Science churches yesterday requested the Council to lift the ban on church services. Their petition was referred to Health Commissioner Powers without recommendation.

It was stated by the petitioners that the Church of Christ, Scientist, maintains services for the "dissemination of a universal understanding of omnipotent divine power, reliance upon which effectually aids in destroying the dread of contagion, and that the comfort and support of such services are much needed at this time, when disease is being so industriously promoted through the common avenues of mesmeric fear."

Los Angeles (city)	$42,928,900	$22,559,600	53	53,032

The above figures are an absolutely correct summing up of the reports received by the Liberty Loan Committee from the banks up to noon of October 16.

They show the situation in Los Angeles city to be very serious and call for the utmost effort by every citizen, unless he is the kind of citizen who is contented that the loan should fail and contented that he should be one of those whose indifference directly contributed to the failure.

On the other hand, the loan can be made to succeed, if (and only if) every citizen will, from this moment forward, do with determination and force and courage what he has been specifically urged to do in the repeated appeals that have been made through the press in the last few days.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MELBOURNE, Oct. 17.—The French mission to Australia which has been visiting various parts of the commonwealth was entertained at dinner last night at Parliament House by the Australian Ministry. Acting Prime Minister Watt presided.

Gen. Pau read a message from President Poincare thanking the Australian people for their sincere and cordial friendship and expressing warm admiration for the valor of the Australian troops. Gen. Pau said it would do no good to negotiate with Germany, as the only voice understood was that from the mouths of cannon.

The Allies have turned the German right flank and are cutting the Huns off from the channel. The submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge have been abandoned to the British, an event which will badly cripple Germany's future naval operations. The great industrial center at Lille, where the most terrible atrocities were wreaked upon the helpless inhabitants, has been delivered to the Allied soldiers. Courtrai has fallen and other important centers are being evacuated by the panic-stricken German soldier. The heavy black line indicates the approximate line of the Allied advance as shown by the latest dispatches. The broken line shows the Belgian-French border.

COMPLETE VICTORY IS NEAR, MILNER ASSERTS.

BRITISH WAR SECRETARY SEES COLLAPSE OF PRUSSIAN MILITARY MACHINE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17 (Canadian Press.)—Lord Milner, the British Secretary for War, interviewed today by the Evening Standard, said that complete victory was in sight, namely, the destruction of the Prussian military machine.

It was a serious mistake, Lord Milner declared, to imagine that the German people were in love with militarism; when the German people saw the complete ang ignominious defeat of militarism and realized that that system had brought them ruin, they would be as eager to do away with it as the Allies.

He added that utter wreckage of the Prussian military machine might be achieved either by a complete and decisive victory, leading to unconditional surrender, or by an armistice under such conditions as to guarantee that the military supremacy of the Allies should not be weakened.

He regarded the armistice under such conditions, as certain to be attended by the realization of Allied war aims, and was, therefore, anxious that nothing be done to postpone its accomplishments.

He was inclined to think that if the Allies at the present time should attempt to dictate to Germany certain changes in their own government with regards to constitution and personnel, the resistance of the German armies would be stiffened.

The War Minister said that, after all, there must be a German government to negotiate an armistice with, and complete transformation was already in progress. There should not be too great a hurry to denounce it as a sham. The present holders of power were responsible to the Reichstag, and the Reichstag was the only properly-elected national assembly in Germany.

It was in the interests of the Allies to see that stable government of some sort was maintained in Germany. As reparation had to be obtained, he did not wish to see Bolshevism and chaos rampant there.

SUBMARINE CHASERS COMPLETE SUCCESS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Official announcement that the new Eagle submarine chasers being constructed in the Ford plant in Detroit are a complete success, was made today by Lieutenant-Commander Ogden T. McClurg, chief-of-staff of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh naval districts, after permission had been granted from Washington.

"Eagle No. 1 has been launched and will be commissioned shortly," Lieut. McClurg said. "Several others have been launched, but the official tests were made on No. 1. The trials were satisfactory, and we expect great things of these Eagle submarine chasers in exterminating the submarines."

TAKE KEY HILL TOPS.

Pershing's Army in Vital Position.

Our Guns Now Control Whole Teuton Line North and Northeast of Verdun.

Northwestern Positions Also Under Enfilading Fire of Yankee Cannon.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 17.—In complete control of the Cote Chatillon, the Americans now hold the key to the great stretches to the north and northeast.

The hill is, in fact, the final of three keys, all of which have been stoutly defended.

The first was Malancle trench, outside of Romagne, which, when won, gave access to the equally vital Dame Marie, and that position in turn gave access to Chatillon.

From the latter position the great mass of German defensive positions to the northwest can also be controlled and the line can be exploited farther without organized attack, because each position is on a sloping hill that can be swept with an enfilading fire.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 17.—The capture of Grandpre by Gen. Pershing's forces was accomplished under terrific hardships and with a heroism not hinted at in the brief official announcement of the taking of this stronghold of the Germans north of the Argonne Forest.

The Americans took the town primarily by outwitting the enemy—by attacking without artillery preparation, which the Germans had expected, by wading the River Aire at four points, instead of building bridges, by struggling through almost impassable mud step by step until suddenly on top of the amazed Germans, and by driving them into a retreat after hand-to-hand fighting.

The Americans had moved to a point within a short distance of Grandpre and the Germans had destroyed the bridges over the shallow Aire as they retreated. The enemy obviously expected an artillery fire to preface any further attack, for his surprise was unfeigned when the Americans smashed into his positions.

The American attack began at 6 o'clock in the morning. The men moved forward in the shelter of the forest, reaching the Aire at four points agreed upon, where the stream could be forded.

Without attracting the attention of the Germans the Americans thes waded into the cold water, which reached to their waists and even higher, and pushed across the stream.

On the northern bank they found broad mud flats into which they sank half way to their knees. The Germans by this time had discovered their approach and opened a bitter machine-gun fire, but the Americans pushed steadily on.

Beyond the mud banks, which were crossed slowly and with the greatest difficulty, the Americans found the Germans and closed with them in a desperate bayonet hand-to-hand fight. Rifles often were used as clubs, and each man struggled to down his individual opponent.

At 11 o'clock the Americans had completely overcome the enemy, had driven him into the woods north of Grandpre and were in possession of the important rail head.

When it was seen last night that the Germans had effected a concentration in the Banthéville Wood for a counter-attack on the Cote de Chatillon, which the Americans had captured, the American artillery opened up heavily. The pounding resulted in the Germans failing to leave their trenches.

Rainy weather continues to interfere with the operations on this front.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(3:21 p.m.)—The attack by the British south of Le Cateau today has resulted in an advance of two miles. The manœuver is still progressing.

WITH THE ANGLO-AMERICAN FORCES, SOUTH OF LE CATEAU, Oct. 17.—(2 p.m.)—American forces south of Le Cateau, together with British troops on both sides of them, launched an attack soon after daylight this morning against the badly disorganized but desperately fighting Germans.

After the shells from the British artillery had done their part the Americans and British stormed forward to the bank of the Rivgz Selle and managed to cross the stream against a hail of machine-gun bullets from the other bank.

Some of the men plunged into the muddy stream while others crossed on pontoons.

BATTLE SUMMARY

HUGE ALLIED TRAP CLOSING.
Resume by Associated Press.

Over a front of forty miles, from the North Sea in Belgium to Lille, in Northern France, the Germans are in retreat before the Belgian, French and British armies. Likewise the enemy is being forced to concede defeat by retrograde movements before the British and Americans southeast of Cambrai; under the attacks of the French in the pocket between the Oise and Serre rivers north of Laon, and by reason of continued strong attacks by the French and Americans in Champagne and along the Meuse River.

Nowhere, however, is the enemy in disorder. In Belgian Flanders his steps are being hastened by reason of the swift drives into his line by the British, at Lille, just south of the Belgian border, and by the French and Belgians farther north, which threaten to compel him to enter Dutch territory and face internment unless he is fleet enough to withdraw out of the entire pocket between the Scheldt River and the sea and reconstitute his line with its right wing resting on Antwerp.

Ostend, one of the famous submarine bases on the sea, is in British hands; Bruges is all but captured, while to the south from the region east of Roulers the Allied forces are fast driving toward Ghent in an endeavor to seat the Western Flandern sack and retain in it large elements of the enemy's forces. Strong opposition is being offered on the Courtrai section to prevent the Allies from carrying out their maneuvers to the full. More than a score of additional villages have been liberated by the Allied troops and numerous guns and quantities of stores have been captured.

SHORTENING LINE.

In their withdrawal from Flanders, the Germans are carrying out a tactical move, which doubtless will end in a general falling back to their line in Northern France and permit them materially to strengthen their resistance on a new and shorter front.

This probably will be from Antwerp to Namur and Mets and thence to the Swiss border, which would still leave the Germans eighty miles from their own border line both at Antwerp and Namur. At present the center of the Flanders fighting is near Thielt, which is about 125 miles from Aix-la-Chapelle, on the German border.

Southeast of Cambrai over a front of ten miles between Le Cateau and Bohain, the British and Americans are delivering a violent attack against the Germans, and at last reports they are meeting with success, although the Germans were savagely resisting with machine guns and infantry and with artillery behind their line.

FRENCH MAKE GAINS.

North of Laon, between the Oise and Serre rivers, the French are endeavoring to drive out the Germans or capture them before they can make their way eastward to Hirson. Here, also, the enemy is using his machine gunners and artillery to impede the progress of the French, but further gains have been recorded.

The greatest resistance of all, however, is still being imposed against the efforts of the French and Americans in Champagne and along the Meuse River, where the holding of the line is essential to stave off a general retreat by the Germans all the way from Belgium to the Swiss frontier. The French in Champagne are still fighting hard to capture Rethel, but the Germans thus far have been able to hold this important position in their own hands. North of Grandpre both the French and Americans have made further progress over the difficult ground. Especially severe has

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 17, 9 p.m.—Belgian patrols have entered Bruges and cavalry is operating on both sides. Belgian guns are now firing from south of the city.

The Allied infantry made rapid progress today and pierced into the German front beyond Wynghene. The Germans are hurrying eastward through the passage between Bruges and the Dutch border, trying to escape being bottled up. Only one good road exists in this passage, this being from Bruges to Eecloo. It contains a mad jumble of transports and fleeing men.

Zeebrugge appears to have been abandoned.

Vast quantities of war material have been taken by the Allied troops. These have been accumulating for four years.

The Bruges-Eecloo road is under fire of the Belgian guns, which also are shelling the back areas, dropping shells into the masses of the fleeing enemy.

The passage between Bruges and Holland, which will be made narrower by the advancing troops, undoubtedly will constantly come in for treatment by the heavy artillery as more Allied guns are rushed up.

The Germans in Belgium already have met with defeat and those fleeing from the coast are faced with the great danger of capture unless they win the race they are making to escape. If the passage is closed the Germans, rather than surrender bodily, may try to escape by crossing into Holland, where it is sure they would be interned.

One thing stands out above others. The coast of Belgium, so vital to the German submarine operations, is fast being cleared of the enemy, who has been driven back rapidly everywhere today, and the entire front from the sea southward is in motion.

The British have entered Lille. The Germans have fled precipitately from Ostend and that section of the Belgian coast. British naval forces have landed at Ostend, while a number of Belgian aviators landed in the center of the city amid the cheers of the inhabitants.

Meanwhile the Belgian infantry and French cavalry sweeping up toward the coast at last reports were rapidly nearing the city and probably will be in it before daylight. Ostend is reported entirely free now of Germans, those left in the city as rear guards having been accounted for.

The entire Lille salient, it seems, is being evacuated by the hard-pressed Huns. Even south of here they have had no rest.

East of St. Souplet, after crossing the river and defeating the Germans on the other side, the British and Americans stormed the continuation of the enemy Valenciennes-Le-Cateau line and appear to have made great progress.

Thousands of civilians have been released. How many prisoners and guns have been captured is unknown buf the number of prisoners cannot be large, for the Germans have been going so fast that they have had no time to remove their heavy pieces.

A force of Belgians, assisted by French cavalry and infantry, is reported to be driving northward to strike the bridges on the east and also cut the Ghent Canal. Wide possibilities exist in this movement.

WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN FLANDERS, Oct. 17.—The Allied infantry in the center of the advance against the retreating Germans on this front was reported today to have re-established contact with the fleeing enemy. It is considered that if the present rate of advance is sustained the Belgian coast should be free of the Germans within a very few days.

Many additional prisoners have been captured. The British operating in Flanders, whose principal job has been supporting the Belgian and French flank, have alone captured 4000 prisoners and 150 guns since the operations began.

The roads in the rear of the Belgian army are jammed with prisoners and captured war material.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 17. (Reuter's.)—This was a black day for the German arms. While from Lille to the sea a wonderful harvest of brilliant successes was being garnered, the British Fourth Army struck hard on the Le Cateau-Bohain front southeast of Cambrai, where the enemy was trying to effect his main retreat. Heavy fighting resulted, but the progress of Field Marshal Haig was satisfactory.

The British tonight were reported to be 1600 yards east of Inolann and also east of St. Benin. The heaviest resistance was encountered at Le Cateau. Up to noon 1800 prisoners from six different divisions had been taken.

In Flanders the Allied troops are marching along the Bruges-Thourout road and have captured Bruges. At last reports they were meeting with only slight machine-gun opposition.

British drums were beating through the streets of Lille this morning, while British patrols advanced east of the city in contact with the retreating Germans. The evacuation of Lille and the British entry into the city was one of the most dramatic events of the war.

At 4 o'clock this morning the German commandant at Lille ordered all the inhabitants of Lille to assemble as promptly as possible. As they hurried through the gloom of the streets they observed the garrison marching out. They were told to go out to the British lines and meet their friends. Then came the rhythmic tramp of infantry which gradually died away. The Germans had departed from Lille.

At dawn a British airman flying over the city beheld a most amazing sight. The streets were thronged with civilians who were frantically waving handkerchiefs and shawls. Not a soldier could be seen. The aviator quickly turned and and carried the news back to the British lines. Patrols advanced immediately and entered the city.

The Germans on leaving Lille, did

DOUAI TAKEN BY BRITISH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—British troops entered the town of Douai today after overcoming the enemy's resistance on the line of the Haute Deule Canal, according to the official statement from the War Office tonight. The Fifth British Army encircled and captured Lille, the statement adds.

British and American troops attacked on a front of nine miles northeast of Bohain where heavy fighting has taken place all day. The British carried the line of the Selle River on the whole front south of Le Cateau and between themselves on the railway beyond the town.

Seven German divisions were hurled back after determined counter-attacks and 3000 prisoners captured.

PARIS STATEMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 17.—French troops co-operating with the Anglo-Belgian forces in Flanders captured Pitthem, Moulebeke and Wingheem in spite of strong resistance, according to the French official statement tonight.

Notable gains also were made in the Oise region with the capture of Petit Verly and Marchavenne.

On the left bank of the Oise the French took Mont Origny.

Twelve hundred prisoners already have been counted.

Culminating Battle Nears as Allies Drive Hun into a Trap Between Sambre and Meus

FOE IN FATAL TRIANGLE.

Foch Strategy is Smashing Retreating Armies into Their "Waterloo Field."

BY WALTER DURANTY.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

[Copyright.]

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES, Wednesday, Oct. 16.—"The Sambre and the Meuse"—the title of a famous French marching song—is the watchword of the Allied effort today. The irresistible pressure of Foch's armies is forcing the Germans back on the fatal triangle where the culminating battle of the war may take place.

On the extreme left the drive of the French, British and Belgians is aimed direct at Mons. On the right the Americans and French are pushing toward Sedan and Mezieres, steadily driving the Boches before them toward the region between the Sambre and the Meuse. The future is big with promise, for as the battle progresses the increasing weakness of the German reaction becomes apparent.

Germany is now suffering from the inherent faults of Ludendorff's strategy in the spring and early summer and the superiority of Foch's methods of attack subsequently. Ludendorff had promised a victory by the use of shock divisions formed by an emasculation of the rest of the army. Attack after attack was pushed home to the point of exhaustion, but always the Allies were able to bar the road here. It was too late.

Finally Foch judged the German army sufficiently exhausted and struck in turn. Since then the enemy has had no respite. In spite of intermittent offensives reached after a long preparation the Allied attacks have been continuous.

The dispirited Germans to whom a victorious end of the war was promised before August have been hammered incessantly. Salient after salient created has bitten holes in their line.

ALLIES' VICTORIES INCREASE.

While the British are advancing victorious in the north the pressure of the French in the center and the Americans on the right prevents the enemy from transferring troops to the point most threatened. Already on October 10 it was known that the Germans had at the outside twelve fresh divisions as a total strategic reserve. Perhaps as many more were being refitted behind the lines but were incapable for two or three weeks for an active part in the battle.

In the past few days the demand for support must have been tremendous in that hard-pressed German army and today there can be but the dregs in the bottom of the reserve bucket.

No less serious is the shortage of material. Numerous captured orders bear witness to the lack of munitions. The words "strictest economy" occur with ominous frequency.

In these months the Allies have destroyed or captured over 5000 cannon, a full quarter of the artillery force of Germany. At the same time forced "combing out" of workmen from factories has seriously affected the production and the weakness grows daily more pronounced and dangerous. Hardly less important are the consequences of withdrawal from the Laon massif.

Hitherto the enemy's position in France gave him the "inside" lines of communication. The Allies attacking concentrically, could be met by the displacement of troops over an infinitely smaller area. Now the jamming of Boches back on practically all lines of communication renders aggressive reactions on anything but a local scale impossible. Add to all this the inevitable dismay spreading throughout the army in consequence of the total discredit of the militarist party.

LAST RAY GLIMMERS OUT.

The last ray of hope on the German horizon was an attempt to divide the Allies by an appeal for an armistice. Nothing remains save disaster or complete surrender.

In their unwillingness to admit a defeat that might be fatal to the morale of the people and the army the Boche war chiefs have postponed the withdrawal overlong from France and coming events cast a shadow of disaster that will amply explain the reasons for the armistice appeal.

Nobody who has not seen the amount of transport of a single army corps can realize the immense accumulation needed for the support of great armies Germany has in the field. Already the communication lines behind the battle front are barely adequate and sorely strained by the growing shortage of grease, the deterioration of the rolling stock that could not be replaced and the impossibility to maintain a permanent war at par.

The situation grew worse as the huge losses of guns and munitions weakened the front and increased the strain on the transport. The wounded in scores of thousands occupied space and time that were priceless. The inevitable followed and the Allies broke in the impregnable fortifications protecting the arteries through which flowed the life blood of the German army.

In the words of a great French soldier, "by the capture of the St. Gobain massif and the Hindenburg and Hampre positions we have rolled the Germans back on their communications."

What that means is tremendous. Not only are many railroads and highways under Allied fire, not only the most important junctions and depots within easier reach of the deadly bomb planes, but the overburdened system that remains available must carry a double load—the material of retreat in addition to everything needed to maintain resistance—it is a hopeless task and each new blow by the Allies will give further proof thereof.

FEAR OF REPRISALS.

Already the fear of the future is sapping the morale of the German army and people. Letters recently found on prisoners are of unexampled pessimism. From the interior one runs: "The enemy will beat us. The longer the war lasts the worse it will be for us."

Another from Karlsruhe: "We are terribly afraid—the situation is so bad. The people expect the enemy will come here."

Another from Berlin says: "Everyone will be killed in trying to win. Our men seem to be having a dreadful beating."

From the front the tone is even worse. "We are having an awful time. The disorder is extraordinary and none knows what will happen. The enemy attacks are terrible. We are abandoning vast stretches of territory in our retreat. If we can't end it this autumn or anyway before Christmas we shall face worse next year for the Americans keep bringing new troops and will gradually crush us."

The fear of the American army comes up continually. Another soldier writes: "We mocked at the British and they became a mighty host. It is the same with the Americans. Next year we will be unable to stand against them."

Finally, a man of the Eighty-sixth Fusileers reveals the dread that is torturing the once ruthless German heart: "We are in a region that is completely devastated. The villages exist not, nor is a single tree left standing. Everything is desolation. What a frightful thought it is that the war may be fought in our country."

been the hardships suffered by the Americans in encompassing the natural fortifications and the attacks by hordes of enemy machine gunners. Before the Americans the Germans are giving ground only inch by inch.

SOUTH FRONT.

Italian units in Albania have made a new advance northeast of Durazzo.

In Syria, the army commanded by Gen. Allenby has moved far to the north of Beirut, and patrols are moving northeast from Damascus. It is probable that with the return of cooler weather the British forces in Mesopotamia may make a new drive to join Gen. Allenby and thus forge a line from the Mediterranean to the Persian Gulf.

LITTLE PEACE TALK AT FRONT

American Soldiers Content to Fight for Liberty.

Let Wilson do the Parleying. Their Attitude.

Must not Let Boche up, No. He's Down, They Say.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

[Copyright.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY, Oct. 17.—The nearer one gets to the front, the less one hears of peace. In Paris I left a fever-heat of discussions pro and con about the enemy's sincerity, the necessity of whipping the Hun completely, the abdication of the Kaiser, the conditions of the armistice. Here everywhere guesses when the war would end. This concern with diplomacy grows less and less as one nears the battle scenes.

At headquarters one finds that the war is the primary matter of consideration with the fighting man, and his job is the future of every Boche in sight. It is not his job to be a peacemaker and because it is not his job he is not worrying over it.

However, whoever knows doughboys knows their minds. In their country and their attitude in its leaders. If one wants to tell the attitude among the fighting men toward peace he might do better than to say that hearts what suits Wilson suits them.

This does not mean that the American in the front line does not think about what is going to come out of his efforts. Far from it. For, above all, the American fighting man is a thinking fighting man. He follows the issues of the war closely. Among the doughboys this attitude may be summed up by saying that armistice means nothing in the life as yet. They have had the job of licking the Boche and they are ordered to cease. But they are following instructions.

In conversations with the fighting boys, whether just from a hike or going into one, one gets the sentiment. "Just fight the Boche until he is beaten beyond question, and that now we have got him going we must not let up."

That is his state of mind because he has learned the game as the Boche plays it and he believes that the Boche is a rough-neck, amenable only to punishment. He is out to put the Stars and Stripes where he says it long.

That is the result to be attained and he allows nothing to obscure the clearness of his idea that the soldiers' cause, America's cause, is triumph. That is the only way France to make that safe is by whipping the Huns and the job Wilson gave him.

His enthusiasm that he should be taken as a measure of his keenness to perform any task the president may assign him, whether it be the Huns one, five, ten years, or do police duty on the Rhine.

A letter, dated October 1, which was taken from a German soldier today, contains the following: He wrote me he was on the way to Macedonia. He wrote from Sofia, where he was delayed. I don't know whether on account of the rumors or on account of the revolution which has broken out in Chemnitz."

FRENCH DEMAND FULL REVENGE.

Nothing Short of Humiliating Surrender will Do.

Fear Stir People in Recitation of Foe Crimes.

Can be no Bargaining, but Complete Subjugation.

BY CHARLES H. GRASTY.

[CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Public opinion has hardened since the last German reply and modified by events which seems veering toward the exclusion of any but military means to bringing the war to a close. Whatever sentiment may be behind, almost the whole press of the stage advocates the crushing of Germany to a finish and will accept from her absolute unconditional and humiliating surrender.

They want to bring home to her all her crimes and wrongs and separate her from any share in the settlements for the world's future. This view which one meets at every hand was forcefully put to me today by a prominent Frenchman who belongs to the military household.

"We must discard sentimentality in dealing with the Germans as they are. They are as shown by the facts and this is not an isolated case but is of a piece with all their acts. Within a few days they have been concealing dynamite and explosives in the clothes of the dead so that our people were killed in the very act of paying the last deeds of decent respect to the dead.

"A nation from whom nothing but spring will never accept terms of peace and liberty which we are fighting until they have uniform in the armies in Germany and in actual control of the country. We must march with the French, English, American soldiers—and take possession of the Germans will be forced to their acceptance of defeat. This defeat is a condition precedent to the benefits the world expects from that defeat."

Metro will Move All its Companies and Studios from New York.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Metro Picture Company, one of the largest concerns in the moving-picture world, is moving all of its companies, studios and activities from New York to Los Angeles, where it will invest $225,000 in a new studio plant and do all its producing in the bright sunshine of Southern California. This move has been contemplated for a long time, but the urgency of the war situation hastened the actual moving.

The Metro is one of the few concerns in the country that has been permitted to move or undertake new buildings, but the war authorities in Washington were so much impressed by the savings in fuel, man power and other necessary factors of moving-picture manufacture effected by the move to Los Angeles that they gave the permit for the moving and the necessary transportation and new buildings without unusual delay. Work on the new buildings will be started at once.

EPIDEMIC PEAK NOT YET SEEN.

Health Board Plans to Close All California.

Seventeen Thousand Cases Recorded in State.

Government Takes Charge of Fight Over Nation.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—The total number of cases of Spanish influenza reported in California since October 1 was increased to 17,000 today by reports of 4000 additional cases, it was announced at the offices of the California State Board of Health. Officials said they did not believe the crest of the epidemic had been reached in the State. An outbreak of 100 cases in the government Indian school at Greenville, Plumas county, is reported.

MAY CLOSE ENTIRE STATE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—A proposal to close all the moving-picture theaters, churches and other places of public assemblage in the State not subject to medical inspection, during the Spanish influenza epidemic period, is to be considered at a special meeting of the Board of Health here tomorrow, Dr. George E. Ebright, president of the board, announced here today.

The proposal will not apply to schools, Dr. Ebright said. It will include, however, an order that all trains, train depots and street cars be ventilated thoroughly and that the most stringent safeguards be thrown around shipbuilders and other war workers, he said.

If any unforeseen occurrence prevents the board from meeting tomorrow, it will meet on the following day, as quick action is necessary, Dr. Ebright said.

Practically every public gathering place in San Francisco was closed at midnight tonight as a preventive measure against the spread of Spanish influenza under regulations adopted today by the city board of health.

Among the principal places affected are: All theaters, motion-picture houses, public and private schools, churches, private and public dances, indoor social gatherings, cabarets and merry-go-rounds.

The municipal auditorium will be closed and all community singing prohibited.

Dr. William Hassler, city health officer, said tonight that 745 new cases of influenza and fifteen deaths from the disease had been reported to his office, making San Francisco's total 2867 cases and forty-eight deaths.

EPIDEMIC SPREADS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The public health service now is actively directing the fight against Spanish influenza in thirty States in addition to the whole of New England and the District of Columbia. Particular attention is being given to providing nurses and supplying physicians for those communities where the doctors are unable to meet all calls made on them. The epidemic continues to spread in many sections. In a few States the number of new cases is showing decreases.

New cases of influenza in all camps during the last twenty-four hours totaled 4454, as against 5668 the day before. Pneumonia cases decreased from 1595 to 1800, and deaths were 684, a decrease from yesterday's total.

Reports on the influenza situation were received by the public health service today from thirty-three States. Most of these dealt with conditions as they existed several days ago and added little to new dispatches previously sent out from States affected. They showed that the disease had reached epidemic proportions in Nebraska and was spreading in California, New York, Missouri, Kentucky, Iowa, Illinois, North Dakota, Ohio, Washington and Wisconsin. Conditions were described as satisfactory in Oregon, Minnesota, West Virginia and Tennessee.

To provide additional funds for fighting the epidemic, Senator Lewis of Illinois today introduced a bill in the Senate to appropriate $10,000,000 in addition to the $1,000,000 already provided by Congress. The money would be expended through the health departments of States and municipalities.

ILLINOIS IS CLOSED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Further drastic steps to check the spread of Spanish influenza in Illinois were taken tonight by the State Influenza Commission, when a proclamation was issued with the consent of the Governor forbidding "all public gatherings of a social nature not absolutely essential to war work."

In making public the proclamation, the commission announced that there are 200,000 influenza cases in Illinois, and that indications were the number will be doubled before the epidemic is brought under control. New cases reported today totalled 4385.

The proclamation, in referring to meetings not held to be under the official ban, imposed the following conditions under which necessary gatherings will be permitted:

"A condition of crowding shall be prohibited.

"Persons with colds shall not be admitted.

"Coughers, sneezers and spitters shall be excluded or expelled."

In a statement explaining the proclamation, Dr. St. Clair Drake, director of public health for Illinois, said: "This order means that there will be no football games Saturday, no wrestling bouts and no other public entertainment that will draw crowds; this includes club meetings, dinners, luncheons and everything not essential to war work."

Churches were not specifically mentioned either as being exempt from or included in the prohibition class. It was assumed that the matter of holding meetings would be decided by the various congregations themselves.

In carrying out the proclamation in Chicago, the police will stop all music and entertainment in all cabarets and restaurants. Dancing already is under the ban.

Immediate suspension of all current orders for the movement of drafted men in Illinois to training camps was recommended to Provost-Marshal-General Crowder today by Adjt.-Gen. Frank S. Dickson after a conference with State Health Director Drake.

Gen. Dickson said there were 206,000 cases of influenza in the State and 150,000 more in Chicago, and for that reason he urged that the movement of men to the training camps be halted until the epidemic abated. This action will affect 18,000 men who were to have entrained on October 21.

IN CONTROL IN COLORADO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER, Oct. 17.—Reports of both State and Denver medical authorities tonight stated the Spanish influenza epidemic was generally well in control in Colorado. Dr. E. E. Kennedy, secretary of the State Health Board, said that thus far the death rate was but 6 per cent.

TWENTY-FOUR DIE AT EL PASO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EL PASO, Oct. 17.—Twenty-four deaths occurred today from influenza among the Mexican population of El Paso and nine among Americans. All Mexican cases are being concentrated in a large Mexican school by the Red Cross. The disease has practically run its course at Fort Bliss, medical officers stated.

FEW CAMP LEWIS MEN CONTRACT INFLUENZA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAMP LEWIS (Tacoma) Oct. 17.—Fewer men proportionately contract pneumonia in Camp Lewis than would be the case had they remained at home in civilian pursuits and the mortality rate among those who do contract the disease is very much lower than for the country at large.

During the influenza epidemic, which has been felt but comparatively slightly here, there has been an increase of pneumonia cases, but not as many deaths as medical officers actually expected. For the country at large seventeen of every 100 who contract pneumonia die, but here cases have totaled less than 11 per cent. of the number of cases.

CASES OF INFLUENZA SHOW DECREASE HERE.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL OPENS WITHOUT A PATIENT; IS BELIEVED GOOD OMEN.

City Health Department reports relative to influenza were the most cheerful yesterday that have been received since the order went into effect a week ago closing schools, churches and theaters. The total number of cases reported was 763, against 735 for the previous day. The number of deaths yesterday was fourteen, while the deaths the day before, from influenza and pneumonia, were twenty-three.

The emergency hospital on Yale street was opened yesterday, but it was reported late last night that no cases of influenza had arrived. This is taken as an indication that conditions are easier than they were thirty-six hours ago.

The County Hospital is running at full capacitly so far as influenza cases are concerned, but this condition has been relieved somewhat by the admission of influenza patients to the French Hospital on College street, and at other institutions. Druggists say there has been a noticeable falling off in the sale of cold breakers and gargles during the past twenty-four hours. This is taken as another hopeful indication. Health Commissioner Powers says the outlook is quite encouraging, but he emphasizes the necessity for co-operation on all sides so long as the disease lasts.

PRESIDENT'S SALARY GOES WITHOUT TAX.

SENATE COMMITTEE ALSO TAKES IMPOST FROM COURT AND STATE OFFICIALS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. — The Senate Finance Committee in revising the revenue bill today struck out House provisions taxing the salaries of the President, members of the Supreme Court and Superior Courts, and State officials.

The committee also rejected House provisions taxing State and municipal bonds. The committee held that such impost would be unconstitutional.

An amendment to the war revenue bill by which taxpayers suffering losses in the operation of their business may secure refunds from the treasury of taxes already paid was adopted today by the Senate Finance Committee. Should the amount of the loss result in the refund being more than the total amount of taxes paid by him, then the amount in excess would be credited to him on his taxes for the coming year, refunds would be made only for losses suffered prior to December 31, 1916.

Teuton Newspapers See Humiliation in War's End.

Divine Right of Kings Doomed Says Zurich Paper.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—President Wilson's answer to Germany, say official dispatches from Berne, founded on information received in Switzerland, caused "a great disillusionment."

Aside from the Pan-German papers, which vehemently protest and show indignation, those representing the Reichstag majority seem to give way to discouragement, although they still want to carry on their peace maneuvers. Most of them display some anguish and some meanness, too, with a marked wish for the conversations to be continued at any price and to hold back irreparable words for the last moment.

BASEL (Switzerland) Oct. 17.—Commenting on President Wilson's reply to the German note, the Strassburg Post says it must be recognized without question that President Wilson's reply impressed German political circles very painfully. Governmental circles were, with the others, thus impressed, it declares.

The Cologne Volks Zeitung says the reply is such that the Germans must strongly reduce hopes for an equitable and early peace which would not humiliate the German people.

The Tageblatt and Vorwaerts of Berlin urge the Entente, in the higher interests of humanity, to avoid an excessively-irreconcilable spirit. Germany considers that all possibility of negotiations is not precluded, while the conservative organs see nothing but a struggle to the end without further efforts toward peace.

BERNE (Switzerland) Oct. 17.—Commenting on President Wilson's note to Germany, the New Zurich Gazette says, "The last hour of the divine right of Kings has come. It is not too soon. This old fiction has long been considered an anachronism in our democratic era."

AMSTERDAM, Wednesday, Oct. 16.—The war is coming to an end in such a manner as no man in Germany desires, said the Vorwaerts of Berlin on Monday. "Let us say it candidly," the newspaper continues. "During all these terrible four years the aim of our efforts and sacrifices was to prevent such an end."

Judging by Rhennish and Berlin newspapers received here, President Wilson's reply to Germany was printed in full in the German press. The newspapers variously termed the reply "a trap," "Wilson's evasions," "A rude answer," and the like.

Some of the newspapers do not attempt to comment on the reply, merely saying "Leave it to the supreme army command." The customary truculence of the Lokal Anzeiger gives way to despondency.

ENLARGED WAR SCOPE BILL MAY PASS TODAY.

CRITICISM OF INSURANCE BUREAU DELAYS ACTION ON DEFICIENCY MEASURE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Criticism of the war risk insurance bureau today delayed action by the House on the $6,000,000,000 military deficiency bill. Leaders hope to pass the measure tomorrow and send it to the Senate, but Representative Sherley of Kentucky, in charge of the bill, warned the House that this was impossible, unless discussion was confined to "what is in the bill."

Commendation and condemnation of the war risk bureau were voiced during the two-hour discussion of appropriations of $17,000,000 for clerk hire and $70,000,000 for additional family allowances, both of which were approved. Representative Madden of Illinois, Republican, denounced the bureau as "outrageously inefficient" in administration and said it was "filled with idlers." Representative Treadway of Massachusetts, Republican, defended the bureau for accomplishing a great volume of work in a short time, while other members exchanged information regarding the bureau's work, seeking explanation of delays in checks going to soldiers' families.

Pay for the army, amounting to $696,327,000, was the only important military appropriation considered today. It was passed without discussion.

Progress on the bill was further delayed by partisan political discussions in which several members participated.

RAW MATERIAL VITAL WEAPON AGAINST FOE.

DR. ADDISON POINTS OUT ECONOMIC EFFECT ON GERMANY AFTER THE WAR.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Dr. Christopher Addison, minister without portfolio in charge of reconstruction, in the course of a speech today, said with reference to punishment for Germany's crimes that there was one way in which the economic weapon could be used as an instrument of justice.

The Germans had either removed mills and machinery wholesale from France and Belgium into Germany, he declared, or had destroyed them, apparently with the deliberate purpose of thus removing in part the economy producing power of France and Belgium, counting upon the advantage which this would give German textile industry after the war.

"But there is the question of raw material," said Dr. Addison. "The burden of the restoration of destroyed machinery must fall on those who destroyed it, and it will be within the power of the Allies to withhold from Germany cotton and other goods until the enemy has made good the machinery destroyed."

PREFERS MACHINE GUN TO TYPEWRITER IN WAR

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Oct. 17.—In a Liberty Loan address tonight Theodore Roosevelt declared the United States "will get peace with a machine gun and not with a typewriter."

"We are going to see this war to a finish if it takes three years more, our bedrock dollars and the last man," declared Col. Roosevelt. "We will accept no peace save the peace that follows unconditional surrender, and we will get that peace with the machine gun and not with the typewriter. Germany needn't bother about terms. She isn't going to be consulted. We will settle on terms with our allies. Germany's part will be limited to saying, 'Yes, sir!'"

KILLED ON THIRTIETH.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Capt. Ross Snyder, son of former Mayor Snyder of Los Angeles, was killed in action July 30, and not on the 13th, as at first reported. This information came tonight from the Adjutant-General of the army to Congressman Osborne in response to a special cable sent at his request.

THE LIFE OF YOUR BOY DEPENDS ON YOU

To keep your boy in the trenches one day longer than is necessary may mean his death.

Upon the success or failure of the Fourth Liberty Loan depends the lives of thousands of our boys—because it means ending or prolonging the war. The difference of a day or a week may mean the difference between greeting your boy safe and sound—and reading his name among the "killed in action."

Can you feel, deep down in your heart, that you have done what he expects you to do—that you have done your best for him?

After 9 Years of Internal Baths

Mr. Addison I. Williams, writes Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York as follows: "Regarding the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' I feel it is one of the indispensable articles and should be in every home. I have not taken $10 worth of medicine since obtaining it—about 9 years ago."

You can be free of biliousness and constipation, with all the ills which they produce, by an occasional internal bath. The "J. B. L. Cascade" administers these scientifically, it being an invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M.D., of New York, a specialist on internal bathing.

By the proper application of Nature's own water—it keeps the lower intestine free of all poisonous waste, and permits every function to work in harmony and without clogging. Every makes one consistently bright, capable and well.

The Owl Drug Co. will be glad to show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you, and will also give you free on request an interesting and authoritative book on Internal Bathing, written by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell.

WOMEN HELPLESS FROM HEADACHE NEED THIS TONIC

Pallid, subject to dizzy spells, frequent headaches—this is the story of misery that thousands of women can tell. Happiness under such conditions is almost impossible, despondency is almost inevitable.

If your life is one continuous round of suffering without any particular illness being manifest you receive but little sympathy because no one but yourself understands your condition. Help may be suggested by this statement from Mrs. Joseph Vandegrift of West Grove, Pa. She says:

"I was in a greatly run-down condition and was so weak that I would faint away and have dizzy spells. I could hardly retain any food on my stomach and suffered constantly with headaches. I was treated by doctors for several months but without relief. It was through reading a newspaper that I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and it wasn't long before my headaches left me and I was getting better. I kept gaining in strength until I was well."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and have proved of the greatest benefit in many disorders due to undernourished nerves. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness, is also corrected by these tonic pills.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomachaches or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN TILL AFTER ELECTION.

REVENUE BILL WILL NOT COME UP IN SENATE BEFORE ADJOURNMENT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. — Congressional leaders at a conference late today agreed upon a plan whereby Congress will recess on October 29 over the elections, reconvening on November 12.

A joint resolution to carry that plan into effect will be introduced by both Houses within a few days.

As soon as the agreement was reached, Chairman Simmons of the Senate Finance Committee announced that the revenue bill would not come up for consideration in the Senate until after the elections. He expects the committee to complete the measure about October 29.

Many Senators now are absent from the city owing to political campaigns in their home States, as well as Liberty Loan campaigns and because of the fact that the desire of many others to return home to vote. Congressional leaders did not believe it would be practical to take up consideration of the revenue bill until after the elections.

Party leaders in both houses said a two weeks' recess is necessary in order to give Senators and Representatives from Western States adequate time to go home to vote and to return before the revenue measure is taken up.

WOULD SELL PHONE LINE TO DAUGHTER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17. — Authority to sell his telephone line in San Benito county, consisting of twenty-two miles of wire, 800 poles and nine telephones, to his daughter, Lily Berg, was asked of the Railroad Commission by George Berg, here today.

The line runs between Panoche and the Idria mines.

If the permission is granted Miss Berg will be the first woman to own a telephone line in California, commissions officials said.

The consideration is $1600.

Bolsheviki Printing Money Like Hand Bills.

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN.
[PACIFIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
[Copyright.]

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS, VLADIVOSTOK, Oct. 17.—"Peace with Germany now will make Russia a de facto German colony," said Gen. Knox, chief of the British military mission today. "While it is impossible now to reconstruct the Russian front, in the sense of a continuous line of trenches from the Baltic to the Black Sea, I think the Allied forces should move to the Urals. If we had done that a month ago we should have been in Moscow this winter.

"A few days ago," he went on, "I met a Russian officer who had crossed Russia from Archangel. He said Russia was boiling. Now is the psychological moment. The peasants have never been for Bolshevism. It made headway only in the large cities. The Bolshevists are working men. They represent only a very small share of the population here, not as in England and America. Here scarcely 10 per cent of the population lives in the industrial centers. But the peasants and intellectuals are against the Bolsheviki.

"Although the Bolsheviki are conducting tremendous propaganda, money is of no value to them, for they are printing millions of rubles daily at Petrograd. I am informed that in the Samara district alone the Bolsheviki spent 200,000,000 roubles for propaganda. The Bolsheviki paid all workmen five roubles a day and gave them one and one-half pounds of bread daily. None was required to work.

CZECHS FIGHT HARD.

"The poor Czecho-Slovaks have been fighting against such people for all the Allies, fighting continuously for three months. Their companies are reduced 50 per cent. There are bands of Russian soldiers under various generals encamped along the Volga. These need clothing, ammunition, food and money, which the Allies should furnish. I wonder if the humanitarians of all countries understand what it means for the Czechs to evacuate a city like Samara. I wonder if they realize that it means that every decent citizen will get his throat cut as soon as the Czechs leave.

"If we help them they will all be with us. Although the people have not been taught self-sacrifice, they are capable of great enthusiasm."

Gen. Knox, speaking of the reported armistice, was emphatic.

"Peace with Germany now would turn Russia entirely over to Germany, perhaps preventing the Allies forever from making headway in this country."

WATCHING THE REDS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—There is a sound of suppressed cheering in the air, and jubilation is mingled with amazement that the cause of our hearts is at last so brilliantly vindicated by our arms. But there is a shadow in the background watching with eyes full of sadness and longing—the shadow of a once great ally who spent her strength in the darkest hour, who put forth an effort beyond all her resources and fell back stricken before victory dawned.

One of President Wilson's conditions is that the Germans shall evacuate Russia. Does that mean that they will withdraw their organizers from the Red army, and that they will cease to uphold the Bolsheviki tyranny?

Here in the west we can enforce complete obedience to our demands, but it is far more difficult to see that our demands are carried out in Russia. While the days pass, the Bolsheviki are trying to destroy the brain of new Russia, just as their German masters are brutally destroying the towns of France.

Events are rushing on with blinded speed, and in Russia too many sudden changes are possible, but as far as we are concerned, one thing is clear. While Germany is parleying we must redouble our military effort, not only in the west, but in the east.

At the present greatest hope seems to be that by detaching Turkey we may be able to get our ships back into the Black Sea and push on from there.

TIDAL WAVE ADDS TO PORTO RICO DEATH TOLL

MAYGUEZ THIRD LARGEST CITY PRACTICALLY DESTROYED BY INRUSH OF WATER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Tidal waves which followed the earthquake in Porto Rico added to the death toll and devastation, the American Red Cross was advised today in cablegrams from San Juan. The city of Mayguez, the third largest in the island, practically was destroyed by the inrush of water, while the town of Agudilla was badly damaged.

Other towns on the western part of the island were damaged by the earth shocks and the death list is placed at more than 100 with probably 300 injured. Hundreds of families are homeless and the property loss is estimated from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

The Red Cross chapter at San Juan has organized relief committees and taken over relief work in co-operation with the military and naval authorities and the insular government.

Don't Neglect Your Family.

When you fail to provide your family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy at this season of the year you are neglecting them, as bowel complaint is sure to be prevalent, and it is too dangerous a malady to be trifled with. This is especially true if there are children in the family. A dose or two of this remedy will place the trouble within control and perhaps save a life, or at least a doctor's bill.—[Advertisement.

WITH THE BEEFY BOYS.

BY LEEPSON BOWNES.

Pete Buzukos,
Who is negotiating with Walter Miller for a match. Buzukos feels confident he can flop our distinguished fellow-citizen, Walter Miller, on his vertebrae and Miller is going to take a chance with him.

Los Angeles is a great city and among other remarkable things it might be mentioned that we are now harboring both of the world's welterweight wrestling champions. Here we had been supposing that Walter Miller was the welter title holder and who should blow in but Pete Buzukos, a lumpy, square-jawed cabbage-eared gentleman who says he has been claiming the welter title just as long as Walter has and therefore has just as much right to wear it.

Buzukos says he has been willing to wrestle Miller for a year or more at 145 pounds, but that Miller has always been hard of hearing when he was around so now he has come to town to stay until Miller agrees to meet him. Buzukos was here a few years ago offering large sums of regular money to anybody who could stick around with him for fifteen minutes. Finally he offered to throw four men in an hour and did it in thirteen minutes. Pete says he will take Miller on at 145 pounds for Liberty Bonds, cash money or Thrift Stamps.

Buzukos says that he will admit that Miller is the better claimer of championships, in fact, is probably the world's greatest title claimer. He says that when Miller was in Spokane he was claiming the lightweight, welterweight, middleweight and light-heavyweight titles and wanted to meet Ad Santel. Buzukos confines his claiming to the 145-pound title and says he'll quit claiming that if Miller can flop him on his vertebrae.

Gobs of gloom are oozing from flu-stricken Occidental and it would seem that there is considerable reason for the same. The latest communique from the stricken institution states that of ninety men who were out for football ten days ago, eighty-seven have been kissed by the flu germ and that there has been no practise whatever since a week ago last Monday.

Coach Lieut. Wilson and Bruce Kirkpatrick, captain of the Tiger squad, were both stricken the first day and the whole squad followed right on their trail. Yesterday Kirkpatrick was up for the first time and he stated that practice would be resumed within ten days unless the epidemic proved more virulent than it is at the present time.

Previous to the flu epidemic Coach Wilson had eight teams of husky young men out for practice and was about to begin forming a varsity squad when he was taken ill. Two of his best prospects, Dingbat Beems, a star tackle, and Curtis, last year's big freshman full-back, are now lieutenants in the army and will be missing, but Wilson expects to put out a strong team unless something serious happens.

Harry Kirkpatrick, coach at Compton High, is awaiting a call to the officers' training camp at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., where he expects to become nursemaid to a sixteen-inch siege gun. Harry was in the infantry officers' training camp at the Presidio and was within two weeks of a commission when illness in his family called him home and the chances are that this training will aid materially in shortening his term at Camp Taylor. A large number of other local athletes have signed up for the heavy artillery and expect to be called soon.

War is taking a heavy toll among the amateur athletes of this country and no section has contributed more valiantly to the furthering of a good cause than Southern California. Among those recently reported as having made the supreme sacrifice for civilization are Lieut. Bob Cowing, one of our best golfers, Lieut. Grubby Clover, a junior tennis star of much promise, Ben Berry, the Redlands High School boy who holds the national mile record of 4:26 2-5 and Sheldon Gerry, the big good-natured Pomona distance runner of 1915 and 1916.

Gus Kervaras, the wild Greek, who persued a remarkable wrestling career in this city and later went to South America seeking trouble is now in the army. Gus was famous for the fact that he always put up a battle and his matches with Strangler Lewis and Bill Demetral at the L.A.A.C. will go down in history as about the warmest ever seen. He wound up his career here by being defeated by Prof. Ito in a match in which Gus used tactics which made him most unpopular. The fact that he is over in France probably accounts for the shortage of shipping because it takes a whole fleet to keep Gus in raw meat.

CAMP KEARNY SPORTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAMP KEARNY, Oct. 17.—Within the next few days competitive drills are to be started among the organizations at this camp, with the final results scheduled for announcement October 26. Movements in close order, including the manual of arms, will be made the basis of the contest. Each company in every organization will select a platoon, and the best of these in the regiment, chosen in elimination contests, will compete to determine the best platoon in each brigade. Then the best platoons of the various brigades will compete for the honor of being known as the best platoon in the Sixteenth Division. The names of the judges for the contest have not yet been announced.

Headquarters troop gave a complimentary entertainment tonight for Maj.-Gen. David C. Shanks, division commander, in the parade ground in front of division headquarters. The co-ordinating committee furnished a band and a vaudeville show, in addition to the entertainment supplied by the headquarters troop. The co-ordinating committee has not yet approved the plan for an amphitheater on the edge of the camp, and is awaiting the report of Capt. Gayford of the Quartermaster's Corps, on the cost of wiring the amphitheater for electric lights, when a final decision will be announced.

Athletic programmes continue to be given in the camp on liberty days in the various units to mitigate the rigors of the influenza quarantine, and some fine athletes are being discovered.

NEW GOLF STORY FROM ANNANDALE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 17.—Three well-known Pasadena golfers, Edwin F. Hahn, George Beidler and Joseph Wolfenstetter, had a new golf story to tell at the nineteenth hole at the Annandale club today.

These amiable golf addicts were golfing pleasantly on the Annandale links, the story runs, when they beheld an army airplane overhead, scudding the skies in the general direction of Eaton Canyon. Since the establishment of the balloon camp near here army airplanes are fairly common sights. The trio golfed on. Ed Hahn, who has been working hard these days at draft board No. 1, of which he is an official, was just posing himself for a whale of a drive, a few minutes later, when whee-e-e bang, something lit in the grassy bunker, or niblick, or whatever it is just ahead of him. Mr. Hahn and his associate golfers emitted squeaks of surprise and astonishment. They investigated, reports Mr. Hahn, and excavated a 12-inch shell from the place where the whee-bang lit. Evidently it was what in professional war circles is called a "dud." If not, the golfers insist they would have been highly seasoned with shrapnel. The golfers, the story goes, were examining the shell and making plans to bring it to town as a war trophy, when a couple of soldiers came along and politely took it away from them. The soldiers said they were practicing on the Eaton Canyon range and this particular shell showed more "pep" and endurance than the rest. That was all. They hoped the shell hadn't put the gentlemen off their golf. Ed Hahn said it did put him off his game a little. He says this is a true story.

DISMISS INJUNCTION IN BASEBALL CASE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.), Oct. 17.—Common Pleas Judge Stevens today dismissed the injunction barring the National Baseball Commission, the National League and the Boston National League team from interfering with Pitcher Scott Perry's retention by the Philadelphia American League team. The injunction granted last June on petition of Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia American team, which was dissolved on statement of attorneys that the controversy had been settled out of court.

Perry, formerly with the Southern Association, was taken by Boston on a thirty-day option, but it is said, was released before the option expired, Philadelphia signing him. National Baseball Commission, the through the National Commission, on the ground that the option agreement had not been fulfilled.

POMONA HIGH TO MEET STATE SCHOOL.

POMONA, Oct. 17.—Pomona High School will meet Whittier State School in the first football game of the season in Pomona on Saturday afternoon, and the contest promises to be a good one, for the two teams are said to match up pretty well. Coach Hastings, who took hold of the Pomona lads this week, is enthusiastic over the bunch with which he has to work. "There isn't a better bunch in Southern California," he stated today. The boys are handicapped, however, in that they lack men of experience. There is the material for a fast bunch of players, and the lads are willing to work their heads off. This, combined with their spirit, is going to produce a winning team, or Coach Hastings will miss his guess.

Coach Fred Johnson of Hollywood High is going to take his football team for a tramp in the mountains for a few days. He will resume intensive training when he returns. A couple of his men, Nason and Baker, have been on the sick list lately and were unable to work out. Johnson has had a superfluity of ends on the field, and Thursday tried shifting John Davis to a half position, where he is showing up in great shape.

U.S.C. has had a piece of good luck. Three of Hollywood's men, who were declared ineligible on their home team because they had had four years of football, registered at the Trojan institution. Frank Sentous, full-back, Tony Wahan, quarter, and Johnny Sentous, captain and half, will begin working out with Cromwell's men immediately.

The University of Arizona may put out a team after all this year. If so they will probably clash with the Trojan forces. It is U.S.C.'s turn to journey to the home grounds of the desert school. Last year Arizona went under to the Methodists by the score of 21-6.

Coach Lieut. McClure of the State Normal tried his men out on a new plowed field yesterday. The old gridiron is used for military drill and is much too hard for football.

MORE GOOD REPORTS FROM THE GUN CLUBS.

DUCK HUNTERS CONTINUE TO BRING THEM DOWN ALONG SHORE.

The local gun clubs report the teal and sprig running so good that about an hour brings in the limit, and many Los Angeles sportsmen played hookey yesterday and brought home ducks for dinner.

Duck hunters are beginning to bring back reports from the far-away duck country. William Hamel says that up at Big Bear there are plenty of ducks to shoot, but you have to go after them with a submarine after you've picked them off at the waves on the lake are running so high that it is impossible to put out a boat to bring them in.

Pete Shadler, H. W. Cooper and Daddy Salmon went to Sunset Beach to try their luck, and they report the shooting good to the south.

Out Elsinore way the ducks are "skeery" now and hard to shoot, as the blinds are near Riverside and the planes from the aviation school there have made the ducks extra shy.

"The tasks of the Women lie at the very heart of the war"

WOODROW WILSON

THOROUGHLY representative of America's loyal, inspired womanhood, this November issue of Pictorial Review should be read by every American woman. Page after page, article after article, it is unquestionably the greatest woman's magazine ever issued.

France's fighting woman doctor

By DOROTHY CANFIELD

ALONE for two nights in a pitch black hospital with nine dying soldiers and a madman! And overhead roared the shells of the advancing Huns. One small woman saw it through.

18,000 wounded passed through her hospital in four days.

600 operations, and not a patient lost!

And this was Nicole Girard-Mangin, the woman doctor who was sent to the front by mistake, because they thought she was a man!

Her story is a burning page torn from the war. Don't miss it! In this issue.

What American women have done for the Liberty Loans

By Wm. G. McAdoo

A STIRRING tribute from the Secretary of the Treasury to the wonderful work of our women. Be sure to see this special message to American womanhood which Mr. McAdoo makes through Pictorial Review. Every man, woman and child should read this historic testimony of the financial part the women of America have played in making the world safe for democracy.

The man who looked back

By LUCY PRATT

Greatest war story of the year

A GERMAN AIRMAN. But he could not forget. "Children? Oh—yes! Plenty of 'em—mostly children! The dead ones didn't cry—of course—like the others—like the ones that tried to crawl—and cry—for their mothers. Still hanging on—to their school bags—living and dead—you understand. You see—they kept crying—for their mothers!"

The man had looked back! He looked back! What he went through, what you go through as you read—is tragic. But it is true! Shall children die and mothers plead in vain?

Making the world safe for monogamy

By Helen Ring Robinson

FIRST WOMAN STATE SENATOR

AFTER the war will husbands be monogamous? War has always profoundly affected marriage. At the close of the Thirty Years War it was practically abolished in Germany. They wanted cannon-fodder. They want it now. Hence, their system of "secondary marriages" today! Will our line hold against the Hun and the Harem? Retaining our ideal and keeping out the ghastly German desecration depend on just one thing. Read in this issue what it is!

Hooverizing at the White House

By IDA CLYDE CLARKE

HOW can Mrs. Wilson hooverize? How can the First Lady of the Land put her house, the White House, on a Hoover footing? Representatives of foreign governments must be suitably entertained! They are. And Mrs. Wilson observes every request of the Food Administration. Pictorial Review tells you how she does it.

There are fascinating glimpses into the daily life of our president and his family.

The luck of Geraldine Laird

By Kathleen Norris

DESERTED, insulted by the hideous terms of her husband's letter, penniless, Geraldine Laird faces life. Her two babies need food, shelter, clothes, schooling. Another man is eager to take her husband's place.

Would the fact that your husband had deserted you for another woman drive you in the extraordinary direction it drove Geraldine? The way she solves her problem is fascinating, thrilling. The second big installment moves swiftly forward. Read it now or save your installments till the four are completed—you will have right there a big popular novel to read that would cost you $1.50 at the bookstore.

Special with this issue: Two wonderful full-page war pictures for framing, by the greatest French war artist of today, Lucien Jonas

Don't miss these compelling stories, these inspiring records of women, and all the rest of this big issue. There are pages and pages of fashions, some in full color, showing advance winter models. Get your copy early. Don't run a chance of this big number being sold out. On all news-stands.

HUNT'S LOYALTY IS QUESTIONED.

Editor's Attorneys Grill Arizona Governor.

I.W.W. Association Brought Out in Letters.

Employed an Enemy Alien as a Prison Guard.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 17.—The time of the Superior Court is being consumed by an inquiry into the degree of loyalty possessed by the Governor of Arizona. The inquisition is being conducted by three former United States judges, R. E. Sloan of Phoenix, J. H. Campbell of Tucson and E. M. Doe of Flagstaff, and the Governor's side is in the hands of County Attorney L. M. Laney of Phoenix.

There have been endeavors to place before the jury hearing a criminal libel case against Editor Breen a long list of alleged connections established by Gov. Hunt with various members of the I.W.W., some of them now convicted of disloyalty and in prison in Leavenworth. Letters written by Hunt to such wobblies and of at least one photograph in which he stood in embrace with two I.W.W. leaders, Perry and McKinnon, sentenced under Federal charges, were introduced. His action in going on the bond of, and employing as a prison guard, an alien enemy, Kasner, now missing, and of his subscription at State expense for ten copies of a Socialist magazine for distribution among the State institutions, was brought out.

One letter, filed for record, though not given to the jury, was acknowledged as written to Mike Sullivan, said to have been arrested under the Espionage Act in Butte, one of the alleged I.W.W. deported from Bisbee. The communication, dated last August, addressed to "My Dear Mike," gives very intimate details of the gubernatorial race and calls Sutter "the abject tool of the corporations," the Governor averring that Sutter's nerve caused himself to get "all het up." He thought Sid. Osborn not much better, "because a short time ago, while I was in California, my chauffeur was driving him around, and he remarked to another man in the car that Mooney ought to hang, and he also does not believe in experimenting."

So Hunt gives his conclusion that "the man who really represents progressive democracy is Fred Colter."

There is a fling at "The Reptile Press," and then expression of a hope that he might near "the old lady from Ireland" on her expected return to Arizona. Hunt was asked whether this "old lady" were not Mother Jones," the Socialistic agitator, but was not compelled to re-

he opposition made reference to employment of P. H. McCullough Harry J. Casey in road camps, igh alleged members of the I.W. the former was a boss, and is d to have threatened to discharge who refused to join his organiztion, and the latter to have been alled for disloyalty.

GERMANY SEES PLAN TO SHACKLE FUTURE.

PROTESTS AMERICANIZING OF ENEMY-OWNED PROPERTY. THREATENS REPRISALS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Protest against the Americanizing of German-owned business concerns, ships and other property by Alien Property Custodian Palmer has been made by the German government to the State Department. The note transmitted through the Swiss Legation and made public tonight, declares the sale of German-owned property in this country is "consciously aimed to do lasting injury to German economic existence."

Referring specifically to the proposed sale of the property in New Jersey of the North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American Steamship lines, the note says it is an endeavor "to shackle through measures of force the opportunities of German shipping interests to develop in the future."

The German government concluded its protest with the statement that "it cannot but be guided in the enforcement of the retaliatory orders that have been issued against American property in Germany by the manner in which the United States of America will proceed against German property."

In this connection, Alien Property Custodian Palmer revealed that Germany has flatly refused to give the American government information as to the treatment being accorded American property in Germany, although full information regarding treatment of German-owned property in this country has been sent to Berlin through the Spanish government.

Plans for Americanization by sale to American citizens of German-owned property valued at approximately $300,000,000 have been prepared and Mr. Palmer declared tonight they would be carried out as soon as possible. Mr. Palmer stated it was not his present intention to sell securities which are the private investment of individual Germans, but only those which form more important ownership in American industries of German banking and industrial interests.

The total value of enemy-owned property taken over by the alien property custodian to date is between $700,000,000 and $800,000,000. Unofficial reports received here place the value of American-owned property taken over by the German government at $14,000,000.

To Decide Women's Election Status.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Oct. 17.—The question as to whether Nebraska women will be permitted to vote at the coming fall election for political nominees seeking offices not provided for by State Constitution will be decided in District Court here tomorrow. It was announced late today by District Judge L. A. Flansburg.

MUNITIONS FACTORY BURNS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LYONS (France) Oct. 17.—Fire, followed by an explosion in a munitions factory at 11 o'clock last night, caused material damage. Another and more violent explosion occurred at midnight, when the magazines blew up. The buildings still were burning today. No lives were lost. A few persons, including firemen, were injured.

MORAL FACTOR IN PEACE SOON.

abandonment of submarine attacks on merchant shipping, officials feel that the principal obstacle in the way of an adjustment will be found only in the arrangement of an armistice.

There is no doubt that the Germans will make a desperate effort to resist the announced purpose of the President to leave the terms of an armistice to the military commanders of the American and Allied forces, and it may be some time before they are sufficiently humbled in spirit to admit that it is not for them to dictate, but simply to accept such terms as these military commanders may choose to impose.

PEACE BY MORAL SUASION.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—If the war is brought to a quick conclusion it will be through political and moral factors, and not military, it is believed here.

The German position on the western front is not considered perilous, although at certain points the ever-changing front may render some small positions dangerous at times. This view, which has been held by many experts for some time, has been strengthened by the German retreat to the Hunding line, which is considered one of the most successful retreats of the war from the enemy viewpoint.

With the Americans and French pushing hard on this front, the Germans doubtless were forced to retreat faster than they had planned, but they lost comparatively few prisoners and guns for such a large operation.

The view that the startling transformation of the whole military situation in the past few weeks has brought the German arms face to face with disaster was stated to be unjustified, in point of fact.

It is not expected that the enemy will be able to hold the Hunding line long. This line runs from south of St. Quentin along the Serre to where the river turns abruptly southward, thence across country to the Aisne and along the north bank of the Aisne to the Argonne. The dent the Allies are making in the line south of the Sensee makes this line untenable.

In this connection it is pointed out that the Germans are fighting well immediately south of the Sensee, for the dual purpose of holding up as long as possible the Allied advance toward the important cities of Valenciennes and to keep the Allies from further driving in a salient that would make the Hunding line impossible for the enemy.

In demonstrating these facts military experts are one in the opinion that the Germans no longer will be able to withstand the onslaught with their weakened divisions, tired troops and scanty reserves, but to trained observers no signs exist of a German collapse, nor is there evidence on which to base the hope of the capture of any huge force of the enemy.

Rumors relative to Germany's course in replying to President Wilson's note form the main features of this morning's papers. Some are convinced that Germany's unconditional surrender is coming. Although the statement issued at the Foreign Office last night shows yesterday's rumors were premature, extraordinary reports concerning internal conditions in Germany are printed.

Some newspapers take it for granted that Emperor William will abdicate. The Express says that for some time he has been sending his valuables to Holland.

Some editorials express the view that the disappearance of the Emperor is immaterial.

Says the Telegraph: "It is what will be substituted for his insane and disastrous rule that matters."

Late tonight the Foreign Office was still without news of any German reply to President Wilson or further development in the peace situation as affecting Turkey or other enemy powers.

Rumors more tantalyzing than reliable are still coming from Holland. For instance, the Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant, which erroneously announced the German reply, today brought alleged news of German abandonment of the policy of devastation, but a Berlin dispatch, through Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, tonight declares this announcement "quite baseless."

Among the rumors was one that Gen. Ludendorff had resigned. Another that the German reply would be a protest against the tone of President Wilson's note.

Meanwhile the attitude of the public is that it is a matter of little consequence what reply Germany may make. Much more interest is displayed in the question whether the German army, pressed on every hand by the Allied advances on all fronts, will be able to escape.

POPE BELIEVES IN WILSON.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, Monday, Oct. 14.—"You may say that the holy father is pinning his faith entirely on President Wilson to make a quick and durable peace," Mgr. Corretti, papal under secretary of state, said to the correspondent today. "He is making special prayers to this end—that President Wilson may not deviate from his present course and that nothing may interfere with his purpose and compel a renewal of the war."

SENATORS BACK WILSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—A resolution expressing the confidence of the Senate in whatever course may be taken by President Wilson in dealing with Germany and Austrian response to the demand for an armistice was introduced today by Senator Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip.

The resolution was not referred to a committee, but went to the table, permitting it to be called up at any time. There was no discussion.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma introduced a resolution today to inform the President that the Senate is ready to ratify a treaty of peace with the German government based on dealings with the German people as set forth in the President's latest note.

HERE ARE NEW COAL PRICES.

Ton Price Fixed by Rossetti at Fourteen Dollars and Seventy-five Cents.

Victor H. Rossetti, Federal Fuel Administrator for Los Angeles, yesterday announced the following schedule of retail prices for coal, to be delivered in sacks and dumped in consumers' bins:

One ton	$14.75
One-half ton	7.50
One-fourth ton	3.80
Two sacks	1.60
One sack	.85

For bulk deliveries, unsacked, the delivered price, dumped at consumer's premises, is $1 per ton; less fractions of tons in proportion. If consumer calls for coal, $1 per ton is to be deducted from above schedules.

BERLIN TO QUIT WITH DIGNITY, SAYS BURIAN.

AUSTRIAN FOREIGN MINISTER BELIEVES PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WILL PROCEED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BASEL (Switzerland) Oct. 17.—Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, spoke in the most optimistic manner of the prospects for an early peace in addressing the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Austrian delegation at its meeting Wednesday, says a Vienna dispatch.

"I nourish the hope today most fully," said the Foreign Minister in this connection, "for if the contents of President Wilson's reply are studied there is nothing to be found to frustrate such a hope or even to delay its realization considerable.

"The political point in President Wilson's reply is settled," Baron Burian declared, "as Germany's reply will undoubtedly establish, by the modifications which are being made in the constitution.

"In the armistice negotiations," he continued, "both sides should speak. That grows out of the very idea of negotiations. Hence, Germany's proposal of a commission.

"We can be fully convinced that Germany will be in a position to accept the President's demands regarding the humanization of the war. I do not believe that in his demands generally he goes beyond what Germany intends, especially as regards the moment the war may be considered to be terminated.

"I believe that in her exchange of views with President Wilson Germany will give the explanations necessary to avoid the superfluous hardships of war. It is clearly understood that Germany will insist that no conditions be imposed during the preliminary phase of the negotiations which are incompatible with her dignity."

Baron Burian said that after a careful examination of President Wilson's reply to Germany nothing could induce him to change his statements are the previous day that "at no far-distant date we shall reach a cessation of hostilities on all fronts and enter negotiations for the conclusion of a general, lasting and just peace."

The technical questions and conditions of an armistice, with which President Wilson does not thoroughly, are questions mostly of military interest, the Baron declared, "and it is a matter of course that the negotiations and decisions on an armistice will depend on military factors."

Repeating that Austria was striving for peace by understanding, Baron Burian concluded by saying that the Central Powers would refer with emphasis to President Wilson's statement that "future peace must not be a peace by force."

WOMAN MADE SONG LEADER AT HARBOR.

JOSEPHINE BROWNE M'CLURE TO DIRECT SOLDIERS' MUSIC AT FORT M'ARTHUR.

Josephine Browne MacClure, a member of the local musical colony, yesterday received appointment to the post of official director of army camp community singing at Fort MacArthur. It comes from the Fosdick Commission at Washington and confers on her a singular honor, inasmuch as she is one of the few women in the United States with an army rating.

The vocalist, who is the daughter of Capt. Herbert Browne of Long Beach, a pioneer shipper, has for the past year been director of community singing in the cantonment by local appointment. Her work was voluntary, but now she is to receive a salary and be in full charge of musical programmes there.

Mrs. MacClure was the first woman in the country to hold such a position. In her year of service she has instructed hundreds of men. She is to be in conference Monday with J. B. Williams, district director of camp community singing, who comes here from San Francisco.

The song leader, whose studio is at No. 314 Blanchard Hall, has lived in the Southland for twenty-three years. Her musical studies took her to Milan, Italy, where she was a pupil of Savatini, Sebastiano, Breda and Francesco, and where she sang in grand operas, and later to Paris, where she studied with Charles Clark.

In fulfilling her duties she will live with her parents at Long Beach, journeying to the camps each day.

MISBRANDED OIL TO BE BRANDED RIGHT.

By an order signed by United States District Judge Bledsoe yesterday, the 5000 gallons of adulterated olive oil that was seized by the government on the charge that it had been misbranded was released, it appearing that the consignees of the shipment, John T. Delaney & Co., San Francisco, had executed a bond for $8000.

Under the agreement between the firm and the United States District Attorney, Delaney & Co. agree to place labels on each container setting out that it is cottonseed oil adulterated with olive oil. When this is done to the satisfaction of the Department of Agriculture, the bond of $8000 will be exonerated and the oil released.

BRITISH AIRMEN CAPTURE OSTEND.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Vice-Admiral Sir Roger Keyes of the British navy landed at Ostend this artenoon, says an official announcement from the Admiralty. The admiral was preceded by members of the royal air force, who landed at Ostend this morning.

French cavalry patrols, says the Evening News, reached Ostend today and returned with the report that no Grmans were to be seen there.

Belgian forces, under command of King Albert, crossed the Yser River and marched on Ostend.

The Belgians also made progress in the region north of Thourout and advanced in the direction of Thielt.

Ostend is one of the most important German submarine bases on the Belgian coast. The other is Zeebrugge, about thirteen miles northeast of Ostend. The usefulness of these bases to the Germans had been seriously damaged last spring by raids carried out by British naval units under Vice-Admiral Sir Roger J. B. Keyes. Both these raids were made in April, and Admiral Keyes was the recipient of many congratulations and British and French decorations on the skill in which he carried them out.

HUNS IN ARGONNE BATTLE AT BAY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 17, 3 p.m.—In conjunction with the British First Army, the French attacked this morning over a wide front. The attack is progressing favorably.

WITH THE FRENCH FORCES IN FRANCE, Oct. 17, 2:30 p.m.—Progress continued to be made by the Allied forces today on the eastern wing of the battle front in the face of stout opposition. The German resistance was especially determined west of Grandpre, in the Argonne, where the Germans still hold Talma farm in a small salient.

Gen. Gouraud's men have taken Hill 222 and the village of Talma, 1000 yards to the north, and Little Talma, about the same distance south of the hill, from where the line bends around the American positions north of Grandpre.

The Fifth French Army under Gen. Guillaumat, former military governor of Paris, met with serious opposition yesterday, but gained a footing at one point in the enemy's positions.

Along the Oise River, the Germans continue to resist stubbornly, counter-attacking fiercely at the village of Choigny.

HUNS FLEE, LEAVE DEATH TRAPS

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 17.—An English officer at Cambrai suffered his hand to be torn off yesterday by one of the enemy's infernal traps, says a special dispatch to the Temps. Seeing a piano abandoned in the middle of a street, he struck a chord and an explosion followed which ripped off his hand. The grenade had been placed in connection with the keys.

The Temps correspondent warns returning inhabitants of Cambrai to be careful in correcting any lack of symmetry they may find in their homes, to beware of straightening pictures, replacing door panels which they find loosened, removing nails and of touching objects they may find in the courtyard, cellar or garden.

Such action, he says, may explode an infernal machine.

AUSTRIAN REPLY HELD UP.

Germany First Must Answer to Demands of President Wilson.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERNE, Oct. 17.—Baron Von Hussarek, the Austrian Premier, has made the announcement that Austria is about to be transformed into federal states, according to advices received here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—President Wilson's reply to Austria-Hungary's peace proffer has not yet been dispatched, it was said tonight officially. There was no expectation that the reply would be sent until Germany has definitely answered the President's note of last Monday.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, addressing the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Austrian delegates Wednesday, said he had not yet received President Wilson's reply to Austria. He added: "In the discussion of such documents we always establish an agreement with Germany."

It is reported in Vienna, according to the Tageblatt, that President Wilson's reply to Austria-Hungary was known in Berlin Tuesday evening. The Tageblatt remarks: "Why its contents were published neither in Vienna nor Washington does not appear."

ROME, Wednesday, Oct. 16.—President Wilson's decision to send a separate answer to Austria-Hungary's peace proposal is treated of in a semiofficial note issued here, as follows: "President Wilson will give a separate answer to Austria-Hungary, as it is evidently necessary to give special consideration to the peculiar ethnical and interior conditions of the Central Empires in order that President Wilson's high aims of liberty and justice may be attained."

AUSTRIA LOSES HUNGARY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—At a meeting of the Hungarian Parliament, a proclamation was read declaring Hungary to be an independent state, says a dispatch from Berlin forwarded from Copenhagen to the Central News Agency here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Further indication of the serious state of affairs in Austria-Hungary reached the State Department today by dispatch from Berne, which said the dual empire is facing a decisive political crisis. It is reported that the Emperor will, at a meeting of the Austrian and Hungarian delegations, take occasion to issue a manifesto to the people granting a more liberal system of government.

On October 10 the Polish members of the Reichsrath, of whom there are about eighty-six, met in Cracow and effected an organization which declared that the Poles will no longer sit in the Reichsrath. This, the advices say, may be taken to indicate a move on the part of the people of Poland, not only to establish their own independent government, but to align themselves, supported by the Austrian Poles, against Austria-Hungary as well as Germany.

The Frankfort Zeitung reports that the general strike which began some days ago in Bohemia is spreading throughout that province. A large portion of Austria's military supplies come from this district.

Father of Bank Embezzler Warns Recorder not to Transfer Property.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 17. — A demand that none of his property, valued at $800,000, be turned over to the Santa Rosa National Bank to make good the alleged wholesale embezzlement of the bank's funds by his son, Frank A. Brush and others, was made on County Recorder Fred G. Nagel here today by Jacob H. Brush, aged founder of the bank.

The elder Brush held in the demand that the deeds were to be held by his attorney to be turned over to the bank when he specified. No permission for such a transfer has been given and if Nagel has been instrumental in turning any of the property over to the bank he will be held responsible, the demand said.

The deeds were recorded without his consent, the elder Brush said.

The bank was closed by National Bank Examiners September 30. On October 2 the younger Brush, who was cashier, and William C. Grant and H. K. Loughery, assistant cashiers, were arrested on warrants charging them with the embezzlement of $728,208 of the bank's funds.

TO TURN HANDS OF CLOCK BACK.

Daylight will Lose an Hour October 27 by Congressional Decision.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—No further effort will be made by Congress to continue the existing daylight saving law and the hands of the clocks will be turned back an hour October 27, as originally planned. This decision was reached today at a conference between Congressional leaders and Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board, who had recommended that the law remain in force for the period of the war.

The Senate recently passed a bill to continue the law in effect indefinitely and it now is pending in the House. The War Industries Board urged continuation of the law particularly because of its value in the saving of fuel.

HUNS RETREAT; ANTWERP GOAL.

not set fire to the buildings in the city or cause any explosions.

The Germans are carrying out a double retirement in Flanders with Courtrai as the pivot. The northern retirement extends from Ostend southward while the other affects the industrial area of Northern France.

The German retirement appears to be methodical and well organized. How far or how fast it is going remains to be seen. Around Courtrai, in the center, the enemy is fighting a strong delaying action so as to cover his flanks.

Belgian and French troops, pivoting on Lombaertzyde, early today began to push steadily northward toward the Belgian coast.

BELGIAN STATEMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Germans have given way under Belgian pressure on the entire front in Flanders, according to a Belgian official statement given out here tonight. Belgian forces have entered Ostend and reached the line Oudenburg-Seedelghem-Rubdervoorde.

The text of the statement says:

"The attack begun on October 14 has been completely successful. On the whole Flanders front the beaten enemy has given way to our pressure. To the toil, overcoming the difficulty of ground flooded for four years, we have crossed the Yser in pursuit of the enemy.

"We have entered Ostend and reached the Oudenburg-Zedelghem-Rubdervoorde line.

"Our cavalry has reached the outskirts of Bruges. We have shelled the enemy retreating towards Eecloo. The French have captured Wynghene and reached the outskirts of Thielt.

"The Belgians have reached the confluence of the Canal la Mandel and the Lys, and have lined the river as far as Harlebeke, where they joined the British. Liberated Belgians received the Allies with indescribable enthusiasm."

NOT ILL, COURT DECIDES.

Divorce Defendant Must Appear or Lose Case Despite His Physician's Report.

Judge Hewitt yesterday judicially decided that W. G. Fleming, defendant in the divorce action of Mrs. Alice L. Fleming, is capable of coming to court, and so proceeded with the trial in the absence of Mr. Fleming. The defendant's physician had reported that he was ill. The court then ordered an examination of the defendant by another physician, whose report was that Mr. Fleming showed no evidence of being sick.

Attorney Heath, representing Mr. Fleming, stated that if his client is able to come to court today, he will do so. Judge Hewitt continued the case until this morning on the understanding that if Mr. Fleming is in court at 10 o'clock, the evidence would be heard. If he is not present, the case will be closed. Attorney Nimmo represented Mrs. Fleming.

Mrs. Fleming charged her husband with being lazy and idle and failing to provide for her. Her young married daughter testified that her father had once given her 10 cents for a Christmas present. A widow friend of Mrs. Fleming testified that she had advanced money to the latter to establish her in business in order to support herself.

END VANDALISM, GERMAN ORDER.

Army Command Says 'Cease Devastating Places Unless Military Necessity.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—The German army command, according to a bulletin issued by the Rotterdam Courant today, has ordered its armies to cease devastating places unless absolutely compelled by military necessity. According to the Courant, the German newspapers were to publish the following communication:

"The German army command has brought military measures into accord with the steps taken for the conclusion of peace. The German armies have received orders to cease all devastation of places, unless they are absolutely forced to follow this course by the military situation for defensive reasons.

"Nevertheless, it is to be expected that in the gradual retreat property will be lost, which is irreplacable by money; that is to say, in so far as such devastation is inherent in the conduct of the war itself, and especially on the bombardment of German positions by enemy artillery."

FILES SUIT AGAINST LIBEL CASE ACCUSER.

Daniel Riordan yesterday filed suit for $50,200 damages against E. H. Zube, who was the complaining witness at the time Mr. Riordan was arrested in Pasadena, charged with criminal libel. He was held to answer in the Superior Court by Justice Strang of Pasadena, but stated that he was notified from the District Attorney's office that the case against him had been dismissed. Mr. Riordan charges that the charge was inspired by malice and with the object of evicting him from his home. He sets up that he has two sons in the army, and is thereby protected from eviction proceedings by the moratorium act.

DIES VISITING SON.

While visiting her son, last Sunday commissioned a second lieutenant at Camp Johnston, Fla., Mrs. Carrie L. Campbell of this city contracted influenza and died a week ago today at Jacksonville. Lieut. Fred H. Campbell enlisted fourteen months ago. His mother had been living near him for some months. Another son, L. M. Campbell, lives at the Huntley apartments, this city. Funeral services for Mrs. Campbell will be held this afternoon at the parlors of W. A. Brown.

HUNT'S LOYALTY IS QUESTIONED.

Editor's Attorneys Grill Arizona Governor.

I.W.W. Association Brought Out in Letters.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 17.—The time of the Superior Court is being consumed by an inquiry into the degree of loyalty possessed by the Governor of Arizona. The inquisition is being conducted by three former United States judges, R. E. Sloan of Phoenix, J. H. Campbell of Tucson and E. M. Doe of Flagstaff, and the Governor's side is in the hands of County Attorney L. M. Laney of Phoenix.

There have been endeavors to place before the jury hearing a criminal libel case against Editor Breen a long list of alleged connections established by Gov. Hunt with various members of the I.W.W., some of them now convicted of disloyalty and in prison in Leavenworth. Letters written by Hunt to such wobblies and of at least one photograph in which he stood in embrace with two I.W.W. leaders, Perry and McKinnon, sentenced under Federal charges, were introduced. His action in going on the bond of, and employing as a prison guard, an alien enemy, Kasner, now missing, and of his subscription at State expense for ten copies of a Socialist magazine for distribution among the State institutions, was brought out.

One letter, filed for record, though not given to the jury, was acknowledged as written to Mike Sullivan, said to have been arrested under the Espionage Act in Butte, one of the alleged I.W.W. deported from Bisbee. The communication, dated last August, addressed to "My Dear Mike," gives very intimate details of the generational race and calls Sutter "the abject tool of the corporations," the Governor averring that Sutter's nerve caused himself to get "all het up." He thought Sid. Osborn not much better, "because a short time ago, while I was in California, my chauffeur was driving him around, and he remarked to another man in the car that Mooney ought to hang, and he also does not believe in experimenting."

So Hunt gives his conclusion that "the man who really represents progressive democracy is Fred Colter."

There is a fling at "The Reptile Press," and then expression of a hope that he might near "the old lady from Ireland" on her expected return to Arizona. Hunt was asked whether this "old lady" were not "Mother Jones," the Socialistic agitator, but was not compelled to reply.

EMPLOYED I.W.W. LEADERS.

The opposition made reference to the employment of P. H. McCullough and Harry J. Casey in road camps, though alleged members of the I.W.W., the former was a boss, and is said to have threatened to discharge all who refused to join his organization, and the latter to have been jailed for disloyalty.

GERMANY SEES PLAN TO SHACKLE FUTURE.

PROTESTS AMERICANIZING OF ENEMY-OWNED PROPERTY. THREATENS REPRISALS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Protest against the Americanizing of German-owned business concerns, ships and other property by Alien Property Custodian Palmer has been made by the German government to the State Department. The note transmitted through the Swiss Legation and made public tonight, declared the sale of German-owned property in this country is "consciously aimed to do lasting injury to German economic existence."

Referring specifically to the proposed sale of the property in New Jersey of the North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American Steamship lines, the note says it is an endeavor "to shackle through measures of force the opportunities of German shipping interests to develop in the future."

The German government concluded its protest with the statement that "it cannot but be guided in the enforcement of the retaliatory orders that have been issued against American property in Germany by the manner in which the United States of America will proceed against German property."

In this connection, Alien Property Custodian Palmer revealed that Germany has flatly refused to give the American government information as to the treatment being accorded American property in Germany, although full information regarding treatment of German-owned property in this country has been sent to Berlin through the Spanish government.

Plans for Americanization by sale to American citizens of German-owned property valued at approximately $300,000,000 have been prepared and Mr. Palmer declared tonight they would be carried out as soon as possible. Mr. Palmer stated it was not his present intention to sell securities which are the private investment of individual Germans, but only those which form more important ownership in American industries of German banking and industrial interests.

The total value of enemy-owned property taken over by the alien property custodian to date is between $700,000,000 and $800,000,000. Unofficial reports received here place the value of American-owned property taken over by the German government at $14,000,000.

To Decide Women's Election Status.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Oct. 17.—The question as to whether Nebraska women will be permitted to vote at the coming fall election for political nominees seeking offices not provided for by State Constitution will be decided in District Court here tomorrow, it was announced late today by District Judge L. A. Flansburg.

MUNITIONS FACTORY BURNS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LYONS (France) Oct. 17.—Fire, followed by an explosion in a munitions factory at 11 o'clock last night, caused material damage. Another and more violent explosion occurred at midnight, when the magazines blew up. The buildings still were burning today. No lives were lost. A few persons, including firemen, were injured.

MORAL FACTOR IN PEACE SOON.

abandonment of submarine attacks on merchant shipping, officials feel that the principal obstacle in the way of an adjustment will be found only in the arrangement of an armistice.

There is no doubt that the Germans will make a desperate effort to resist the announced purpose of the President to leave the terms of an armistice to the military commanders of the American and Allied forces, and it may be some time before they are sufficiently humbled in spirit to admit that it is not for them to dictate, but simply to accept such terms as these military commanders may choose to impose.

PEACE BY MORAL SUASION.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—If the war is brought to a quick conclusion it will be through political and moral factors, and not military, it is believed here.

The German position on the western front is not considered perilous, although at certain points the ever-changing front may render some small positions dangerous at times. This view, which has been held by many experts for some time, has been strengthened by the German retreat to the Hunding line, which is considered one of the most successful retreats of the war from the enemy viewpoint.

With the Americans and French pushing hard on this front, the Germans doubtless were forced to retreat faster than they had planned, but they lost comparatively few prisoners and guns for such a large operation.

The view that the startling transformation of the whole military situation in the past few weeks has brought the German arms face to face with disaster was stated to be unjustified, in point of fact.

It is not expected that the enemy will be able to hold the Hunding line long. This line runs from south of St. Quentin along the Serre to where the river turns abruptly southward, thence across country to the Aisne and along the north bank of the Aisne to the Argonne. The dent the Allies are making in the line south of the Sensee makes this line untenable.

In this connection it is pointed out that the Germans are fighting well immediately south of the Sensee, for the dual purpose of holding up as long as possible the Allied advance toward the important cities of Valenciennes and to keep the Allies from further driving in a salient that would make the Hunding line impossible for the enemy.

In demonstrating these facts military experts are one in the opinion that the Germans no longer will be able to withstand the onslaught with their weakened divisions, tired troops and scanty reserves, but to trained observers no signs exist of a German collapse, nor is there evidence on which to base the hope of the capture of any huge force of the enemy.

Rumors relative to Germany's course in replying to President Wilson's note form the main features of this morning's papers. Some are convinced that Germany's unconditional surrender is coming. Although the statement issued at the Foreign Office last night shows yesterday's rumors were premature, extraordinary reports concerning internal conditions in Germany are printed.

Some newspapers take it for granted that Emperor William will abdicate. The Express says that for some time he has been sending his valuables to Holland.

Some editorials express the view that the disappearance of the Emperor is immaterial.

Says the Telegraph: "It is what will be substituted for his insane and disastrous rule that matters."

Late tonight the Foreign Office was still without news of any German reply to President Wilson or other enemy powers.

Rumors more tantalyzing than reliable are still coming from Holland. For instance, the Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant, which erroneously announced the German reply, today brought alleged news of German abandonment of the policy of devastation, but a Berlin dispatch, through Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, tonight declares this announcement "quite baseless."

Among the rumors was one that Gen. Ludendorff had resigned. Another that the German reply would be a protest against the tone of President Wilson's note.

Meanwhile the attitude of the public is that it is a matter of little consequence what reply Germany may make. Much more interest is displayed in the question whether the German army, pressed on every hand by the Allied advances on all fronts, will be able to escape.

POPE BELIEVES IN WILSON.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, Monday, Oct. 14.—"You may say that the holy father is pinning his faith entirely on President Wilson to make a quick and durable peace," Mgr. Corretti, papal under secretary of state, said to the correspondent today. "He is making special prayers to this end—that President Wilson may not deviate from his present course and that nothing may interfere with his purpose and compel a renewal of the war."

SENATORS BACK WILSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—A resolution expressing the confidence of the Senate in whatever course may be taken by President Wilson in dealing with Germany and Austrian response to the demand for an armistice was introduced today by Senator Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip.

The resolution was not referred to a committee, but went to the table, permitting it to be called up at any time. There was no discussion.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma introduced a resolution today to inform the President that the Senate is ready to ratify a treaty of peace with the German government based on dealings with the German people as set forth in the President's latest note.

HERE ARE NEW COAL PRICES.

Ton Price Fixed by Rossetti at Fourteen Dollars and Seventy-five Cents.

Victor H. Rossetti, Federal Fuel Administrator for Los Angeles, yesterday announced the following schedule of retail prices for coal, to be delivered in sacks and dumped in consumers' bins:

One ton	$14.75
One-half ton	7.50
One-fourth ton	3.. 0
Two sacks	1.60
One sack	.85

For bulk deliveries, unsacked, the delivered price, dumped at consumer's premises, is $1 per ton; less fractions of tons in proportion. If consumer calls for coal, $1 per ton is to be deducted from above schedules.

BERLIN TO QUIT WITH DIGNITY, SAYS BURIAN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BASEL (Switzerland) Oct. 17.—Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, spoke in the most optimistic manner of the prospects for an early peace in addressing the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Austrian delegation at its meeting Wednesday, says a Vienna dispatch.

"I nourish the hope today most fully," said the Foreign Minister in this connection, "for if the contents of President Wilson's reply are studied there is nothing to be found to frustrate such a hope or even to delay its realization considerable.

"The political point in President Wilson's reply is settled," Baron Burian declared, "as Germany's reply will undoubtedly establish, by the modifications which are being made in the constitution.

"In the armistice negotiations," he continued, "both sides should speak. That grows out of the very idea of negotiations. Hence, Germany's proposal of a commission.

"We can be fully convinced that Germany will be in a position to accept the President's demands regarding the humanization of the war. I do not believe that in his demands generally he goes beyond what Germany intends, especially as regards the moment the war may be considered to be terminated.

"I believe that in her exchange of views with President Wilson Germany will give the explanations necessary to avoid the superfluous hardships of war. It is clearly understood that Germany will insist that no conditions be imposed during the preliminary phase of the negotiations which are incompatible with her dignity."

Baron Burian said that after a careful examination of President Wilson's reply to Germany nothing could induce him to change his statement of the previous day that "at no far-distant date we will reach a cessation of hostilities on all fronts and enter negotiations for the conclusion of a general, lasting and just peace."

The technical questions and conditions of an armistice, with which President Wilson dealt thoroughly, are questions mostly of military interest, the Baron declared, "and it is a matter of course that the negotiations and decisions on an armistice will depend on military factors."

Repeating that Austria was striving for peace by understanding, Baron Burian concluded by saying that the Central Powers would confer with emphasis to President Wilson's statement that "future peace must not be a peace by force."

WOMAN MADE SONG LEADER AT HARBOR.

JOSEPHINE BROWNE M'CLURE TO DIRECT SOLDIERS' MUSIC AT FORT M'ARTHUR.

Josephine Browne MacClure, a member of the local musical colony, yesterday received appointment to the post of official director of army camp community singing at Fort MacArthur. It comes from the Fosdick Commission at Washington and confers on her a singular honor, inasmuch as she is one of the few women in the United States with an army rating.

The vocalist, who is the daughter of Capt. Herbert Browne of Long Beach, a pioneer shipper, has for the past year been director of community singing in the cantonment by local appointment. Her work was voluntary, but now she is to receive a salary and be in full charge of musical programmes there.

Mrs. MacClure was the first woman in the country to hold such a position. In her year of service she has instructed hundreds of men. She is to be in conference Monday with J. B. Williams, district director of camp community singing, who comes here from San Francisco.

The song leader, whose studio is at No. 314 Blanchard Hall, has lived in the Southland for twenty-three years. Her musical studies took her to Milano, Italy, where she was a pupil of Savatini, Sebastiano, Breda and Francesco, and where she sang in grand operas, and later to Paris, where she studied with Charles Clark.

In fulfilling her duties she will live with her parents at Long Beach, journeying to the camps each day.

MISBRANDED OIL TO BE BRANDED RIGHT.

By an order signed by United States District Judge Bledsoe yesterday, the 5000 gallons of adulterated olive oil that was seized by the government on the charge that it had been misbranded was released, it appearing that the consignees of the shipment, John T. Delaney & Co., San Francisco, had executed a bond for $5000.

Under the agreement between the firm and the United States District Attorney, Delaney & Co. agree to place labels on each container setting out that it is cottonseed oil adulterated with olive oil. When this is done to the satisfaction of the Department of Agriculture, the bond of $5000 will be exonerated and the oil released.

BRITISH AIRMEN CAPTURE OSTEND.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Vice-Admiral Sir Roger Keyes of the British navy landed at Ostend this afternoon, says an official announcement from the Admiralty. The admiral was preceded by members of the royal air force, who landed at Ostend this morning.

French cavalry patrols, says the Evening News, reached Ostend today and returned with the report that no Grmans were to be seen there.

Belgian forces, under command of King Albert, crossed the Yser River and marched on Ostend.

The Belgians also made progress in the region north of Thourout and advanced in the direction of Thielt.

Ostend is one of the most important German submarine bases on the Belgian coast. The other is Zeebrugge, about thirteen miles northeast of Ostend. The usefulness of these bases to the Germans had been seriously damaged last spring by raids carried out by British naval units under Vice-Admiral Sir Roger J. B. Keyes. Both these raids were made in April, and Admiral Keyes was the recipient of many congratulations and British and French decorations on the skill in which he carried them out.

HUNS IN ARGONNE BATTLE AT BAY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 17, 3 p.m.—In conjunction with the British First Army, the French attacked this morning over a wide front. The attack is progressing favorably.

WITH THE FRENCH FORCES IN FRANCE, Oct. 17, 2:30 p.m.—Progress continued to be made by the Allied forces today on the eastern wing of the battle front in the face of stout opposition. The German resistance was especially determined west of Grandpre, in the Argonne, where the Germans still hold Talma farm in a small salient.

Gen. Gouraud's men have taken Hill 222 and the village of Talma, 1000 yards to the north, and Little Talma, about the same distance south of the hill, from where the line bends around the American positions north of Grandpre.

The Fifth French Army under Gen. Guillaumat, former military governor of Paris, met with serious opposition yesterday, but gained a footing at one point in the enemy's positions.

Along the Oise River, the Germans continue to resist stubbornly, counter-attacking fiercely at the village of Cholgny.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 17.—An English officer at Cambrai suffered his hand to be torn off yesterday by one of the enemy's infernal traps, says a special dispatch to the Temps. Seeing a piano abandoned in the middle of a street, he struck a chord and an explosion followed which ripped off his hand. The grenade had been placed in connection with the keys.

The Temps correspondent warns returning inhabitants of Cambrai to be careful in correcting any lack of symmetry they may find in their homes, to beware of straightening pictures, replacing door panels which they find loosened, removing nails and of touching objects they may find in the courtyard, cellar or garden.

Such action, he says, may explode an infernal machine.

AUSTRIAN REPLY HELD UP.

Germany First Must Answer to Demands of President Wilson.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERNE, Oct. 17.—Baron Von Hussarek, the Austrian Premier, has made the announcement that Austria is about to be transformed into federal states, according to advices received here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—President Wilson's reply to Austria-Hungary's peace proffer has not yet been dispatched, it was said tonight officially. There was no expectation that the reply would be sent until Germany has definitely answered the President's note of last Monday.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, addressing the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Austrian delegates Wednesday, said he had not yet received President Wilson's reply to Austria. He added: "In the discussion of such documents we always establish an agreement with Germany."

It is reported in Vienna, according to the Tageblatt, that President Wilson's reply to Austria-Hungary was known in Berlin Tuesday evening. The Tageblatt remarks: "Why its contents were published neither in Vienna nor Washington does not appear."

ROME, Wednesday, Oct. 16.—President Wilson's decision to send a separate answer to Austria-Hungary's peace proposal is treated of in a semiofficial note issued here, as follows: "President Wilson will give a separate answer to Austria-Hungary, as it is evidently necessary to give special consideration to the peculiar ethnical and interior conditions of the Central Empires in order that President Wilson's high aims of liberty and justice may be attained."

AUSTRIA LOSES HUNGARY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—At a meeting of the Hungarian Parliament, a proclamation was read declaring Hungary to be an independent state, says a dispatch from Berlin forwarded from Copenhagen to the Central News Agency here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Further indication of the serious state of affairs in Austria-Hungary reached the State Department today in a dispatch from Berne, which said the dual empire is facing a decisive political crisis. It is reported that the Emperor will, at a meeting of the Austrian and Hungarian delegations, take occasion to issue a manifesto to the people granting a more liberal system of government.

On October 10 the Polish members of the Reichsrath, of whom there are about eighty-six, met in Cracow and effected an organization which declared that the Poles will no longer sit in the Reichsrath. This, the advices say, may be taken to indicate a move on the part of the people of Poland, not only to establish their own independent government, but to align themselves, supported by the Austrian Poles, against Austria-Hungary as well as Germany.

The Frankfort Zeitung reports that the general strike which began some days ago in Bohemia is spreading throughout that province. A large portion of Austria's military supplies come from this district.

FIGHTS LAND SEIZURE.

Father of Bank Embezzler Warns Recorder not to Transfer Property.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 17. — A demand that none of his property, valued at $800,000, be turned over to the Santa Rosa National Bank to make good the alleged wholesale embezzlement of the bank's funds by his son, Frank A. Brush and others, was made on County Recorder Fred G. Nagel here today by Jacob H. Brush, aged founder of the bank.

The elder Brush held in the demand that the deeds were to be held by his attorney to be turned over to the bank when he specified. No permission for such a transfer has been given and if Nagel has been instrumental in turning any of the property over to the bank he will be held responsible, the demand said.

The deeds were recorded without his consent, the elder Brush said.

The bank was closed by National Bank Examiners September 20. On October 2 the younger Brush, who was cashier, and William C. Grant and H. K. Loughery, assistant cashiers, were arrested on warrants charging them with the embezzlement of $726,208 of the bank's funds.

TO TURN HANDS OF CLOCK BACK.

Daylight will Lose an Hour October 27 by Congressional Decision.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—No further effort will be made by Congress to continue the existing daylight saving law and the hands of the clocks will be turned back an hour October 27, as originally planned. This decision was reached today at a conference between Congressional leaders and Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board, who had recommended that the law remain in force for the period of the war.

The Senate recently passed a bill to continue the law in effect indefinitely and it now is pending in the House. The War Industries Board urged continuation of the law particularly because of its value in the saving of fuel.

HUNS RETREAT; ANTWERP GOAL.

not set fire to the buildings in the city or cause any explosions.

The Germans are carrying out a double retirement in Flanders with Courtrai as the pivot. The northern retirement extends from Ostend southward while the other affects the industrial area of Northern France.

The German retirement appears to be methodical and well organized. How far or how fast it is going remains to be seen. Around Courtrai, in the center, the enemy is fighting a strong delaying action so as to cover his flanks.

Belgian and French troops, pivoting on Lombaertzyde, early today began to push directly northward toward the Belgian coast.

BELGIAN STATEMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Germans have given way under Belgian pressure on the entire front in Flanders, according to a Belgian official statement given out here tonight. Belgian forces have entered Ostend and reached the line Oudenburg-Seedelghem-Rubdervoorde.

The text of the statement says:

"The attack begun on October 14 has been completely successful. On the whole Flanders front the beaten enemy has given way to our pressure. To the left, overcoming the difficulty of ground flooded for four years, we have crossed the Yser in pursuit of the enemy.

"We have entered Ostend and reached the Oudenburg-Zedelghem-Rubdervoorde line.

"Our cavalry has reached the outskirts of Bruges. We have shelled the enemy retreating towards Eecloo. The French have captured Wynghene and reached the outskirts of Thielt.

"The Belgians have reached the confluence of the Canal la Mandel and the Lys, and have lined the river as far as Harlebeke, where they joined the British. Liberated Belgians received the Allies with indescribable enthusiasm."

NOT ILL, COURT DECIDES.

Divorce Defendant Must Appear or Lose Case Despite His Physician's Report.

Judge Hewitt yesterday judicially decided that W. G. Fleming, defendant in the divorce action of Mrs. Alice L. Fleming, is capable of coming to court, and so proceeded with the trial in the absence of Mr. Fleming. The defendant's physician had reported that he was ill. The court then ordered an examination of the defendant by another physician, whose report was that Mr. Fleming showed no evidence of being sick.

Attorney Heath, representing Mr. Fleming, stated that if his client is able to come to court today he will do so. Judge Hewitt continued the case until this morning on the understanding that if Mr. Fleming is in court at 10 o'clock, the evidence would be heard. If he is not present, the case will be closed. Attorney Nimmo represented Mrs. Fleming.

Mrs. Fleming charged her husband with being lazy and idle and failing to provide for her. Her young married daughter testified that her father had once given her 10 cents for a Christmas present. A widow friend of Mrs. Fleming testified that she had advanced money to the latter to establish her in business in order to support herself.

FILES SUIT AGAINST LIBEL CASE ACCUSER.

Daniel Riordan yesterday filed suit for $50,200 damages against E. H. Zube, who was the complaining witness at the time Mr. Riordan was arrested in Pasadena, charged with criminal libel. He was held to answer in the Superior Court by Justice Strang of Pasadena, but stated that he was notified from the District Attorney's office that the case against him had been dismissed. Mr. Riordan charges that the charge was inspired by malice and with the object of evicting him from his home. He sets up that he has two sons in the army, and is thereby protected from eviction proceedings by the moratorium act.

DIES VISITING SON.

While visiting her son, last Sunday commissioned a second lieutenant at Camp Johnston, Fla., Mrs. Carrie L. Campbell of this city contracted influenza and died a week ago today at Jacksonville. Lieut. Fred H. Campbell enlisted fourteen months ago. His mother had been living near him for some months. Another son, L. M. Campbell, lives at the Huntley apartments, this city. Funeral services for Mrs. Campbell will be held this afternoon at the parlors of W. A. Brown.

END VANDALISM, GERMAN ORDER.

Army Command Says 'Cease Devastating Places Unless Military Necessity.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—The German army command, according to a bulletin issued by the Rotterdam Courant today, has ordered its armies to cease devastating places unless absolutely compelled by military necessity. According to the Courant, the German newspapers were to publish the following communication:

"The German army command has brought military measures into accord with the steps taken for the conclusion of peace. The German armies have received orders to cease all devastation of places, unless they are absolutely forced to follow this course by the military situation for defensive reasons.

"Nevertheless, it is to be expected that in the gradual retreat property will be lost, which is irreplacable by money; that is to say, in so far as such devastation is inherent in the conduct of the war itself, and especially on the bombardment of German positions by enemy artillery."

Red Cross Classes Closed.

Classes in all Red Cross courses are closed until further notice by order of the Board of Health.

Postpone Bazaar.

The bazaar of the Rebekah auxiliary of the Red Cross, which was to have been held tomorrow, has been postponed until further notice on account of influenza.

Postpone Benefit.

Because of the Health Commissioner's ban on all meetings, the card party to have been given Saturday evening, at No. 4707 South Vermont avenue, for the benefit of the Masonic home at Covina, has been indefinitely postponed.

Under Anti-Narcotic Act.

Collector of Internal Revenue Carter announces that appointments will soon be made for the positions of deputy collector, inspector and agent under the Harrison anti-narcotic law. The selections will be made from the civil service eligible list, and the examinations of applicants will be held next Tuesday. The entrance salaries are $1600 a year and expenses, with an opportunity to go as high as $2500. Application should be made to Secretary Tynan, Civil Service Commission, sixth floor, Federal Building.

To Resume Class Work.

Because of urgent war needs, classes in the government free navigation school in the old Los Angeles High School Building will be resumed at the regular hours next Monday. This decision was reached yesterday by the Board of Health after careful consideration, but to insure the utmost safety from contagious disease, rigid rules will be observed. Among the rules are that there are not to be more than thirteen members in any class at one time and that every student in the school must be examined by a health officer every school day. Although the number in each class will be limited so long as the influenza scare persists, applications will be received as usual at the Chamber of Commerce. New students will be admitted each Monday.

GERMANY UNBEATEN, IS CRY; WHY SURRENDER?

BERLIN PAPERS DECRY EFFORT OF GOVERNMENT TO OBTAIN PEACE.

By George Renwick.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

THE HAGUE, Oct. 17.—The press insists that Germany will never consider unconditional surrender, George Bernhard asks: "Why does not Germany state her real intentions to France? The German army is not beaten as it stands after four years of unheard-of successes as an indefatigable instrument of policy, far upon enemy territory."

The Fatherland party in Berlin held a meeting Tuesday in which the speakers expressed astonishment and anger at the developments. The chairman said if Hindenburg gave assent to the peace without annexations or indemnities promised by the new government, troops must come home, but otherwise all must be united in defense of the "sacred soil of the Fatherland."

Vorwaerts reports that an extraordinary scene took place when a crowd of Pan-Germans assembled at the Koenigs Platz in front of the so-called "iron Hindenburg." (Nails hammered into the wooden statue of Hindenburg) and demonstrated against the peace work of the German government. Patriotic songs were sung, speeches made and everything done to incite a warlike feeling.

"Hindenburgs calls us; we follow," was the cry.

The Hanover Kurier says: "Wilson demands unconditional acceptance of his principles. This is something we could only do under compulsion and we are not compelled to do it. We are undefeated and have no occasion to act as if beaten."

Saturday night, on the receipt here of the German note, there was an atmosphere of gloom and depression in the Allied diplomatic circles.

"Will the Allies bite? Will they fall into this trap set by the military to avoid a complete collapse? The Germans have plundered, raped, murdered and burned, but never talked of peace till now," said a prominent Allied diplomat here.

The Dutch, who received the news with unmitigated joy, drinking champagne, singing songs, were unable to understand the gloom in Allied circles. The idea was prevalent in Holland that neither side has come out on top, but peace was in sight even if Germany is not beaten.

The band at a hotel was offered a thousand guilders to play the "Marseillaise" during supper, but refused on the plea it was unneutral to do so.

SOFT DRINK PRODUCERS' SUGAR ALLOTMENT CUT

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The use of sugar by manufacturers of soft drinks and ice cream will be curtailed further during next month as the result of new regulations issued today by the United States Food Administration for California.

The manufacturers will be allowed only half of their allotment for October, or 25 per cent. of their average monthly consumption during the third quarter of 1917.

COUNT STEPHEN TISZA SAVED FROM ASSASSIN.

YOUTH WITH REVOLVER CAPTURED BEFORE HE CAN SHOOT FORMER OFFICIAL.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17.—As Count Stephen Tisza, the former Hungarian Premier, was leaving the lower House of Parliament at Budapest, Wednesday, a youth approached his motor car with a revolver, according to a dispatch received here from the Hungarian capital. Count Tisza's chauffeur struck the would-be assassin down before he could fire.

The Count's assailant was arrested. He gave his name as Lajtner and said he was 21 years of age and an official in the food department. He said he had intended to attack Admiral Paul von Hintze, whose resignation as German Secretary for Foreign Affairs recently was reported, during his visit to Budapest, but that Admiral Von Hintze had left before he was able to accomplish his purpose.

MRS. A. LARSEN GAINS 14 LBS.

Tanlac Overcomes Troubles of Long Standing.

Declares It Is Nothing Short of Wonderful.

Had Suffered Terribly for Two Years.

According to the testimony of multiplied thousands who have tried it there is nothing so well adapted to the needs of a run-down system as Tanlac, and in every case where a fair, test of its powers is made another enthusiastic witness is the invariable result. Recently in telling of the remarkable benefits she has derived from the medicine, Mrs. Agnes Larsen, residing at 1948 South G street, Tacoma, Washington, said:

"The way Tanlac has relieved me of my suffering and built me up is nothing short of wonderful. Why, I don't only feel like a new woman, but I have actually gained fourteen pounds in weight besides. I was in an awfully weak, run-down condition for two years and so nervous that the least little thing out of the ordinary would upset me. I suffered all the time with a pain across my kidneys, which was so bad at times, my back felt like it would break. I was very restless at night, up and down at all hours, unable to sleep. I also suffered a great deal with dizziness and faint feelings, and was so weak that I could not get through with my housework without stopping several times to rest.

"One day I was telling a friend of mine how I felt, and she advised me to try Tanlac. So I got a bottle, and that was one of the best things I ever did. My husband, who was suffering a great deal with indigestion and gas on his stomach, commenced taking it the same time I did, and between us we took eight bottles, and are in splendid condition. His stomach is in such a good condition that he eats just anything and it all agrees with him fine. And as for me, it has built me up until I feel altogether different. My nerves are so much stronger and better that I can sleep all night long, and my appetite is just fine. I no longer have those weak, dizzy spells and the pain has left my back entirely. Both myself and husband think Tanlac is great, and if I ever feel my system getting rundown again I shall take more Tanlac, because I know so well what it will do."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Co., under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—[Advertisement.

THE WEATHER.
[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—[Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Meteorologist.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.92; at 5 p.m., 29.85. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 61 deg. and 70 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 57 per cent.; 5 p.m., 45 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northwest, velocity 10 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 9 miles. Highest temperature, 74 deg.; lowest, 59 deg. Rainfall for month, .67 of an inch. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS. — The barometer is high on the Atlantic coast and also over the Pacific Northwest. The resulting field of low pressure, which extends from the Great Lakes southwestward to the Gulf of California, gets warm, decreases in its barometer region, and fair and frosty weather to the elevated portions of the Southwest. Except in falling portions of Nevada, and it is cooler throughout the western portion of Northern California. Fair and cooler weather will prevail in Los Angeles and vicinity during the ensuing thirty-six hours.

"It is safe to assume at this late date that those who have neither Liberty Loan buttons nor subscription receipts and whose names are without subscription records on the precinct honor rolls have not subscribed. Certainly they cannot plead ignorance of the war, its sacrifices of American lives nor the individual duty that is theirs that they should have a longer time within which to subscribe.

"If we fail by October 19, those who have done the right thing will know where the responsibility for the distressing result lies as they know now from the honor rolls and the absence of Liberty Loan buttons who it is now leads us to the very threshold of national ignominy."

TO FIX BLAME.

In line with this statement plans are being made to definitely place the responsibility for failure, should there be a failure, where it belongs and precinct chairmen have been notified by Director Ballard to prepare lists of all persons who have inadequately subscribed to the loan, and who have made no subscription at all. "It is upon these two classes of citizens," the director says, "the responsibility for any shortage of the city's total quota will fall, and

MATRANGA HELD.

Italian, Alleged Member of Mafia, Must Face Trial on an Assault Charge.

Frank Matranga, alleged member of the Los Angeles Mafia, who is said to have fired several shots at Stephen Ardizzone, last Saturday in an attempt to avenge the death of his two sons, Sam and Pietro, believing that Ardizzone was responsible for the acts was held to answer charges of assault with a deadly weapon, by Justice Hinshaw yesterday afternoon. Bonds were set at $3000, in default of which Matranga was committed to the County Jail.

DIVORCES ARTIST.

Mrs. Elodia Carrillo obtained a divorce in Judge Jackson's court yesterday from Alejandro Carrillo, artist and designer, on the ground of cruelty. Mr. Carrillo did not appear in court to contest the action.

SPEEDS TO DEAD HUSBAND.

His bride of less than a year, hastening overseas to be near her husband, does not yet know that Lieut. Roger W. Hitchcock, Los Angeles aviator, was killed in action and now lies in French soil.

That news is contained in this morning's casualty list. Lieut. Hitchcock, with the Eighty-eighth Division, was last week reported missing, and only last night was word received that he was dead.

His young wife, better known in this city as Miss Alta I. Williamson, formerly in real estate partnership with F. Arthur Cardwell, left this city more than a month ago for Washington, intending to go to France in a clerical capacity. Three weeks ago, Mr. Cardwell received a letter from her stating that she had completed her arrangements and was about to start.

Lieut. Hitchcock was a son of the late Ripley Hitchcock, lecturer and writer upon artistic and literary subjects and a member of the board of directors of Harper & Bros. at the time of his death a few months ago. A brother of the dead aviator is a lieutenant at Harvard University.

The circumstances of the meeting of Lieut. Hitchcock and Miss Williamson were romantic. He had just returned from the Mexican border, and was invited with another officer to a "chicken dinner" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cardwell, where Miss Williamson was a guest. For a time he had been in the real estate business himself, and he found much of interest to talk of with the young business woman. They were married just three days before he left for France.

FOR CITY'S UNION DEPOT.

Temporary Plans of the State Railroad Commission Made Public.

Drawings prepared by its engineering department for the proposed war-time union passenger depot on the site now occupied by the Santa Fe station were made public yesterday by the State Railroad Commission.

The decision on this station now rests entirely with Director-General McAdoo of the Railroad Administration, who has the recommendations of the State Railroad Commission, favoring adapting the Santa Fe station as a central terminal, as well as an opposition report made by engineers representing the Salt Lake and Southern Pacific roads, recommending that the Salt Lake and Southern Pacific traffic be handled at the Arcade Station and the Santa Fe continue to handle its own business as at present.

The proposed war-time union terminal provides for an expenditure estimated by Chief Engineer Sachse of the commission at $128,000 for adapting the present Santa Fe station buildings to union depot purposes. The entrance to the new building will be at Third street and Santa Fe avenue and the passenger building will be built around what is now the Santa Fe express and mail rooms. The new baggage-room will be built around the old baggage-room; and the new express-room will be built around the present passenger depot; while the mail building will be an entirely new structure at the First-street end of the new terminal. In every case the walls of the present structures will be utilized and the roofs lifted off, and the old buildings will simply melt, as it were, into the proposed new building.

The new outer walls and second stories, where the offices will be located, will be of red brick, with the entrance pillars made to resemble stone. The engineers of the Railroad Commission desire the public to understand that this is simply a Hooverized railroad station, to meet needs for war-time economy in handling passenger traffic in and out of Los Angeles.

The new or reconstructed station will have a frontage along Santa Fe avenue of 375 feet, with an area of 70,848 square feet.

"In case the war should end before work is started on the new building," said H. G. Weeks, resident engineer of the Railroad Commission, yesterday, "of course, the proposed terminal reconstruction would be out of date, as the proposed station plans are not intended for a permanent union railroad terminal worthy of Los Angeles. If Director-General McAdoo gives his permission to this plan, I believe that the new war-time terminal could be completed in six months."

Copies of the drawings and specifications of the proposed station have been received by local business betterment and city planning organizations, who advocate a permanent union terminal to be built after the war at the Plaza.

GIVEN PROBATION.

Upon the recommendation of Probation Officer Dobbs, Mike R. Leonas and Paul Rulelas, who were charged with having taken an auto belonging to W. R. Chase of Van Nuys, were released on probation by Superior Judge Craig yesterday afternoon. It was shown that both boys had excellent records and that their former positions at the Cohn-Goldwater company were still open for them.

MANY BUY GIFT BONDS.

Purchases for Our Soldiers Total Four Thousand Dollars on First Day.

The "Buy A Bond for Him" idea and the little gift cards to carry the news to your soldier over yonder struck a responsive chord in the heart of Los Angeles yesterday, and during the day, by application to the main and branch offices of The Times, No. 619 South Spring street, and by telephone, came a large number of requests for the cards. It is estimated that they were responsible on the first day for additional bond subscriptions of over $4000.

Today these cards can be obtained at the various precinct headquarters, as well as at the main and branch office of The Times. Buy a bond in as large a denomination as you can, place it in his bank, present your receipt and secure one of the souvenir cards, which are beautifully printed in colors, and bear an appropriate salutation, and send it to him over there.

As a Christmas present it would be hard to beat. Easy to send, it carries its message of loyalty not only to the soldier, but to the government. It tells your fighting representative that the home folks are backing him to the limit, and it will give him a comfortable feeling of having something to start with when he comes back. If you have already bought your quota of bonds, strain a point and buy another one. Whatever we do, it's little enough to show our appreciation of what he is doing for us and for his country—our country.

IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Picture, if you can, a rather dreary Christmas Eve in some little French village; or perhaps in a cold and desolate trench. Mighty few presents this year. Cargo space is too precious. Your Yank is thinking of home. You bet he is. There isn't much doing in the fighting line, and Spring street obsesses him. About that time Santa Claus in the form of the company postman comes along and thrusts an envelope in his hands.

Inside a card in red and white, with a familiar blue service star staring out from the center like a bouquet of rosemary, and inscribed across the face:

"Today I bought for you, and placed in your bank to await your victorious return, a Liberty Bond for $——, which I ask you to accept as an inadequate token of my appreciation, and that of all of us of the service to America of her gallant defenders."

Can you imagine how that little card will look or what it will mean to him. If you can, there isn't much more to be said. The rest of the story will be told to a bond salesman. The woods are full of him, or if you can't find one hunt up your precinct headquarters, or general headquarters, at No. 719 Hill street, and sign on the dotted line. The same liberal terms of payment prevail and the boy will have the best Christmas present he ever received, an evidence of his financial, as well as physical, partnership with Uncle Sam in the business of making the world a decent resort for decent folks.

It would be a fine thing to see that every one of the 6000 Los Angeles boys in the service received one of these cards for a $100 bond and it would swell the Liberty Loan total by $600,000.

TOUCHING INCIDENTS.

A few months ago a woman, who requested that her name be not used, had a disagreement with her son. In the service of his country he was called almost immediately afterward to his station on one of the United States lightships, anchored far off-shore in the Pacific. He left his mother in anger, and she has not heard from him since. But yesterday she obtained from The Times a Libertly Bond gift card bearing the message.

"I want to make up our little quarrel," she said. "This is my way of doing it."

A second woman, who had already bought more Liberty Bonds than she felt she could afford, stopped at The Times branch office on South Spring street for one of the cards. The $100 she has saved for two years for a new winter outfit purchased her son a bond. She has sent him his card.

Mrs. Charles Shickel, of No. 5215 South Figueroa street, answered the call of the country with her second purchase of Fourth Loan Bonds. The securities await her son, now in France.

Edward Darvill, who is at present in the United States Merchant Marine will on November 2, receive one of The Times' gift cards from his father, Edward Darvill, of No. 7983 Norton avenue, as a birthday present.

CREDIT FOR IDEA.

It may be mentioned briefly and parenthetically that The Times in suggesting the soldier gift-bonds here and supplying the illuminated gift-cards free, is not looking for any advertisement of itself or any special credit for the results or anything else but help for the soldiers and for the loan. The idea was suggested to The Times by Mrs. H. R. Turner, of the Santa Barbara Recreation Center. The only improvement this journal made in the plan was to print the cards itself and give them away instead of asking some bank to do it and sell them at cost. The plan originated, Mrs. Turner writes, with Mrs. Harold Warner of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., where it was tried with great success.

LAUNCH TWELFTH VESSEL.

Helen Keller Christens West Arvada as it Slides Down the Ways.

Amid the cheers of thousands of shipyard workers, Miss Helen Keller, the famous blind woman, christened the Emergency Fleet Corporation's 8800-ton cargo vessel West Arvada, as it went down the ways, yesterday, at the plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

The steamer is the twelfth launched at the yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, and will cost when turned over to the government $1,560,000. The keel was laid July 5, following the triple launching at this yard July 4.

Members of the shipbuilders' band stopped making ships long enough to play "The Star Spangled Banner" as the ship was launched. There were American flags flying from the new ship, the launching stand and the way on which the vessel was built, and the launching was in every way a patriotic affair. Keel plate No. 12 was lowered into place in the vacated way as the West Arvada went into the water.

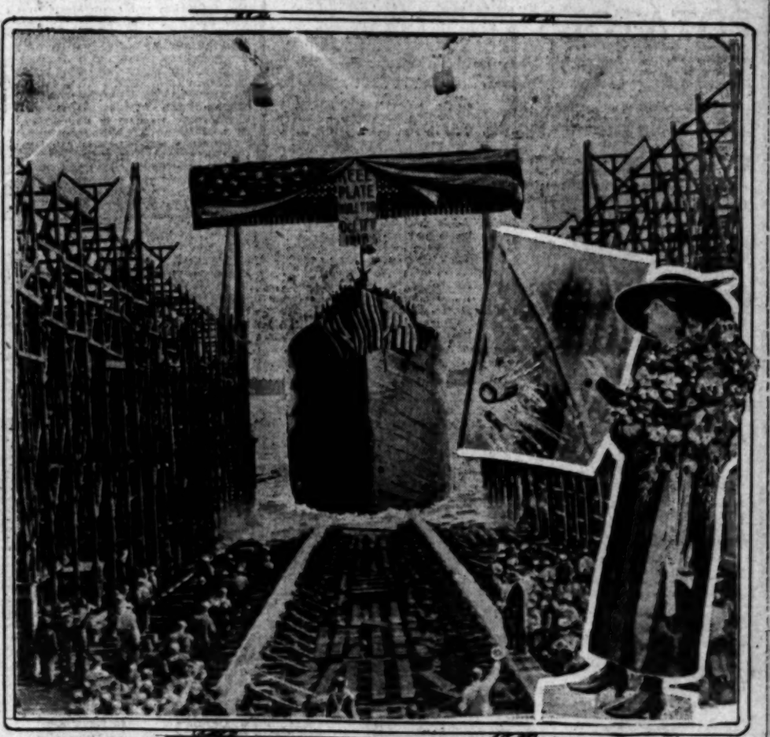
The West Arvada is of the now well-known standardized type of cargo-carrying vessel adapted by the government from plans of vessels originated for cargo-carrying purposes by Capt. Robert Dollar. The government will have built and will own a fleet of these kind of boats after the war of a combined tonnage of 25,000,000. The steamers are 431 feet long and of fifty-six-foot beam. The engines are of 2500 horse power and the boat has a required speed of ten and one-half knots. Every single part of these ships to be built by the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company is made by this company with the exception of the boilers and the steel plates. The engines, the furniture, the woodwork and even the upholstery is built in the shops of this company.

FIRE FRAUD CHARGED.

Insurance Adjuster Alleged to have Made False Claims for Loss from Blazes.

Charged with having made false fire loss claims, involving $25,000 in insurance, A. W. Lindemann, realty man and Louis Kaminsky an insurance adjuster appeared before Justice Hanby yesterday morning for preliminary hearing. According to Deputy District Attorney Hill, who is representing the State, oil painting and tapestries alleged to have been destroyed in a fire at No. 1939 Norwood avenue, owned by Lindemann, were sold at an auction. The other case against the defendant is the fire which destroyed the Omar Theater on Main street. It is said that the expensive decorations mentioned in the insurance policy were mere junk and a diamond ring valued at $350 was cheap glass.

Seven days have been used in taking testimony at a previous hearing and it is expected fully as many will be necessary to complete the examination.



Miss Helen Keller Sponsors One of "the Bridge of Ships."

The scene is at plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, yesterday, as the West Arvada slid down the ways into the water, and the keel plate of another vessel was lowered into position. Officials of the company are standing on the deck of the new boat.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price, without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

"TREASON," SAY OFFICIALS.

Serious View Taken of National Defense League Case; Woman Arrested Here.

Alice F. Rogers, until recently a field worker for the National Defense League of California, was arrested in this city yesterday and waived preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Long on a charge of having conspired with Mason L. Williams, field secretary of the National Defense League, in San Francisco, to use the mails for fraudulent purposes.

At San Francisco yesterday Williams asked to have his bond reduced below $10,000, but the request was denied by Commissioner Krull, who declared that if the charge against Williams were true he had committed treason. His hearing will be held Saturday.

Officials of the Southern California division of the National Defense League, for which Mrs. Rogers was a field secretary until the division disbanded recently, say they think all of the money she collected for the local organization has been accounted for. The Los Angeles chapter was disbanded several weeks ago, when it had reason to believe that it had accomplished its aim, which was to induce the nation to adopt universal military training. It is of Mrs. Rogers's activities after the local organization ceased to exist that secret service men are most interested in at present.

Mrs. Rogers drew no salary from the local organization while she was engaged in soliciting funds here. It was understood she drew about $150 per month from the San Francisco division of the league. It appears that the funds were checked up recently and that Mrs. Rogers was released from her duties here, it being understood that she would return to the San Francisco office.

Special investigators yesterday hinted that funds might have been collected for the league after it was officially disbanded. They admit that they have not yet been able to secure proof that such a thing happened, but they are directing their inquiries along that line.

WAIVES PRELIMINARY.

When arraigned yesterday, Mrs. Rogers waived her preliminary hearing. Bail was fixed at $5000. She said she would be able to raise it. Assistant United States District Attorney Moody says she was arrested on a warrant from San Francisco and that she will be taken there within a few days for trial. The woman says she can quickly clear herself of all suspicion as soon as she reaches San Francisco. Officials say Mrs. Rogers did not have power to draw checks against the funds of the league.

She was appointed to the position of field secretary here by Col. Alberger of San Francisco, who was secretary of the organization. She claims that she collected between $5000 and $6000 while here, and turned all of it into headquarters. She says she sent out about 50,000 circular letters to people in Southern California.

THE CHARGE.

The complaint against her, sworn out by G. E. Leonard, a secret service man, sets out that she mailed daily reports to Mr. Williams in San Francisco, and that on January 26 she reported collections to the extent of $245. He claims that the date in question was prior to the time she assisted in the organization of the Southern California division of the league in this city.

Mrs. Rogers, according to investigators, says she forwarded the money to Mr. Williams, but that she received no receipt indicating that he got it. It is believed that secret service agents have several receipts from Williams which were intended for Mrs. Rogers.

The money mentioned in the report of January 26 was secured from the following persons in the amounts set forth: J. H. Kline, $10; C. J. Casper, $5; R. H. Raphael, $15; Godfrey Holterhoff, $100; J. H. Schneider, $100; Albert E. Nicholls, $15.

IN SHIPPING PLOT?

Four Arrested at Harbor are to be Held for Federal Investigation; Two are Enemy Aliens.

Fred Bosselman, 40 years of age, a German, and Rudolf Lang, 46, Austrian, with two sailors, M. Larsen, a Dane, and Albert Lingstrom, a Russian, were taken into custody yesterday, by Federal agents and placed in the City Jail at the harbor. Bosselman and Lang are held for violation of the President's Espionage Act, and the two sailors were found intoxicated. They are being held for Federal investigation. Bosselman has been suspected for some time, it is said, of being engaged in a plot against shipping at the harbor.

WANT NAMES CHANGED.

Family Named Hess and Man With Cognomen Lacmmel Seek American Appellations.

Rolland Holbrook Hess, his wife, Lulu, and his son, Leslie, petitioned the courts yesterday to change their family name to Holbrook. They are citizens of the United States, and because of their Teutonic name of Hess they are subject to annoyance, they said. Mr. Hess said that after the war the name might prevent him enjoying his rights under the United States government.

Edward Gustave Laemmel wants his name changed to Lamel. His Teutonic family name injures him in business, he says.

NOW IS A CITIZEN.

First-class Cadet Duncan Cameron, stationed at the Balloon School, Arcadia, was admitted to citizenship yesterday by United States District Judge Bledsoe. He is a Canadian. Lieuts. Tripp and Cummings, also of the Balloon School, were his witnesses. With the naturalization of Cadet Cameron, it is understood he will be immediately commissioned.

"TIMES" MAN DIES.

Capt. Lloyd E. Thrush Succumbs to Influenza Just As He Was About to Leave for France.

Capt. Lloyd E. Thrush, a former employee of The Times editorial department, died at the base hospital, Mineola, L. I. Saturday, from an attack of influenza. So far as is known, he is the first of The Times soldier-employees to lay down his life in the service of his country during the present conflict.

At the time his fatal illness overtook him, Capt. Thrush was in the military intelligence department with a field division which was shortly to leave for France. He entered the first officers' training school at Fort Sheridan last year and was commissioned a second lieutenant of cavalry.

He was afterward transferred to the intelligence branch of the Quartermaster's Department, where he earned the rank of first lieutenant. Several weeks ago he was transferred to Washington, given a captain's commission and assigned to espionage cases. His transfer to the camp at Mineola was made at his own request that he might have an opportunity to see service in France at an early date.

RANCHER DIVORCED.

Mrs. Ethel L. Buller was granted a divorce from Charles O. Buller by Judge Jackson yesterday. Mr. Buller is a wealthy orange grower of Covina. He was ordered to pay his wife $150 alimony a month. A property settlement has been made. The suit was not contested.

LLANO IS REORGANIZED.

Ex-Socialist Colony Names New Heads; Job Harriman is Out.

That Job Harriman has ceased to be an officer of the Llano Del Rio Company of California, the defunct Socialist colony near Palmdale, and that a complete reorganization of the California company was effected at the annual meeting of the stockholders became known yesterday. Mr. Harriman resigned some time ago as president of the colony in order to take up the same kind of a scheme for the Llano Del Rio Company of Nevada in forming a Louisiana colony.

At the annual meeting at the colony on Wednesday the stockholders elected a new set of officers, reduced the capitalization of the company from $2,000,000 to $500,000 and cut down the number of directors from nine to five. The new officers are: R. W. Coffran, formerly vice-president, now president; W. A. Engle, secretary and treasurer, and W. N. Boyse, C. H. Groves and P. A. Knobbs, directors. The directors eliminated by the election are Anton Tigeson, Miss Coffran, J. E. Beum and G. P. McCorkle. Mr. McCorkle is secretary and manager of the Llano Investment Company, which Wednesday filed the last of two suits aggregating $130,000 to foreclose two mortgages against the property of the colony. He says he intends to push the suits to a foreclosure and to develop the colony land, minus the Socialistic element.

While Mr. Harriman is out as president and a director of the California company, his Llano Del Rio Company of Nevada, which controls 135,000 of the 265,000 shares issued, still controls the California company indirectly and by proxy, it was said yesterday by stockholders. It is understood that Mr. Harriman is on his way to California to fight the suits brought against the colony here.

The reduction of the capital stock of the colony in California, according to Mr. McCorkle, was because of the intention not to attempt to sell any more stock in the company. This, it was said, was made almost prohibitive by the ruling of the State Commissioner of Corporations that a statement of the colony's badly muddled affairs must be made to any prospective purchaser of stocks of the colony. So far as the California colony is concerned, it was intimated, the meeting of Wednesday was a sort of swan song, as the property has already been taken over for the most part by representives of the mortgage holders, the Llano Investment Company, pending the mortgage settlement.

MAYOR OFF FOR FEW DAYS.

Mayor Woodman and Glenn MacWilliams, his secretary, left the city yesterday for several days. The Mayor will pass the time along the aqueduct. He said he will keep in touch with Health Commissioner Powers and if he is needed at any time, will hurry back to the city.

Another Hun sea slug has been sent to a salty grave.

First-class Quartermaster Glen A. Watkins, who was here on furlough three weeks ago, has just written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Watkins of No. 1923 Lovelace avenue, that he with the other members of the crew is privileged to wear the gold chevron showing that he participated in "contact" with a German submarine.

In celebration of the event, his family doubled their Liberty Loan purchase, and will send the sailor one of The Times Liberty Bond gift cards.

Using a Tooth-brush as a Weapon of Protection Against Influenza

If you treat your tooth-brush merely as a toilet article, you are casting it into the limbo of only half-important possessions. To look upon it as a means of keeping your mouth, as the gateway to your system, in as sanitary and cleanly condition as possible, is to use it as a measure of self-protection.

During an epidemic of influenza this form of simple and effective self-protection is particularly recommended by all health officials.

"It is easier and cheaper to prevent disease than to cure it," say army surgeons, leaders in medicine, and health boards. Some authorities claim that ninety per cent. of all infections can be traced to the oral cavity.

To keep the teeth, the mouth and the throat clean and sanitary is the office of Kolynos Dental Cream. Because it so well fulfills this office millions of tubes of Kolynos are used in America and other civilized countries. If you do not know the luxury and healthfulness of its habitual use, try it today.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Miss Beveridge to Marry Soon.

Miss Frances Beveridge and Maj. Herbert Brown are to be married next month, unless he receives orders to return to France before he can reach Los Angeles. Miss Beveridge, one of the most popular girls in the debutante set, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher Beveridge of the Holton Arms apartments.

It was a year ago that this attractive girl announced her engagement to Ensign Forbes Wilson, a San Francisco man, whom she had known since childhood. But when the dashing young major, who, by the way, is only 27, appeared upon the scene with the glamor of a hero direct from France, her fate was more definitely sealed. Maj. Brown, the new fiance, is a Los Angeles man, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brown of this city. Miss Beveridge has been occupying most of her time for the past six months taking a business course and only recently announced that she intended doing war work for the period of hostilities.

Miss Beveridge was always one of the belles at the bachelor halls and the Country Club affairs. Maj. Brown and Ensign Hancock Banning are friends and the major, a graduate of the University of California, was at the beginning of the war at the Virginia Military Institute, which made his rapid advancement so easy.

By Mrs. Dunlap.

Mrs. Samuel Carey Dunlap was hostess at a luncheon party at the Los Angeles Country Club, having as guests, Mrs. Corinne Baker Wingfield of San Diego, Mrs. Grantland Seaton Long, Mrs. Wheaton Gray, Mrs. I. C. Bell and Mrs. Dunlap.

Picnic and Wiener Roast.

Misses Sarah Dunham, Margaret Hayes and Elsie Stetcher were joint hostesses at a picnic supper and wiener roast on Wednesday evening, going in automobiles with their guests to the Santa Monica Canyon to spread their feast. Among their guests were Mrs. E. R. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Kurrie, Misses Gertrude Smith, Mildred Gilligan, Hazel Smith, Martha Stangler ard Irma Slicher and Messrs. Howard Dunham, Marty O'Brien, Bob Slicher, Luke Gilligan, Henry Wells, Roger Meehan, Aj Smith and Perry Thomas.

Mrs. Stevenson.

Mrs. Jean Stevenson of this city, who is visiting friends in San Diego and domiciled at the Hotel U. S. Grant, was one of the guests at a handsome bridge-tea given for a bevy of women in the army and navy set yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Earle W. Tanner, wife of Col. Tanner, at her home, No. 3218 Second street. Other guests were Mrs. David C. Shanks, wife of Maj.-Gen. Shanks; Mrs. James Chamberlain, Mrs. M. Malloy, Mrs. George Woodruff, Mrs. James Pickering, Mrs. Peter W. Davidson, Mrs. John B. Huggins, Mrs. Edwin F. Lucas, Miss Laura Hook, Mrs. Harry D. Blasland, Mrs. Willis Uline, Mrs. B. H. L. Williams, Mrs. John C. Cook, Mrs. Sterling Price Adams, Mrs. James Hasbegger and Mrs. Joseph Alexander.

Maj. Bovard.

Maj. Warren V. Bovard, who was only recently promoted from a captaincy, has been made permanent member of the General Staff of the United States Army for the period of the war, to be stationed at Washington, where he was ordered last spring from Kelly Field, San Antonio, Tex. Maj. Bovard is a son of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Bovard, president of the University of Southern California. He was formerly graduate manager and treasurer of the university.

Receiving Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stagg are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son. Mr. Stagg, who is ill with Spanish influenza, was last year president of the Y.M.C.A. at U.S.C. and is an earnest war worker. Mrs. Stagg was the woman's athletic manager at U.S.C. last year and in the annual track meet a year ago (as Miss Mary Boyd) was the star, winning a bunch of first and second places and totaling more points than anybody.

Personals.

Mrs. Emma Strong, daughter of the late Dr. W. L. Graves, has let her house on South Vermont avenue to Constance Talmadge for a year and has gone to San Francisco to stay all winter with her uncle, William Phillips, and his bride at the handsome Stanford Court, just opposite the Fairmont Hotel.

Mrs. Marjory C. Burnett, who has been in San Francisco several weeks, is expected home the latter part of the week. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Irving Hall Mayfield (Julie Borden,) who has been living at the Brooklyn Navy Yards with her husband and who have now taken apartments in New York, is also expected home for the winter as Commander Mayfield is expecting overseas orders any day.

Mrs. C. Q. Stanton, who has been visiting Mrs. O. J. Kendall of San Diego and Mrs. A. H. Sweet at Warner's Hot Springs, returned home yesterday.

TIDE HAS TURNED.

Evidences are multiplying that the power of the Prussian Junkers over the German people has been broken. The Conservative faction, which has controlled the Prussian Diet ever since the present German Empire was formed, formally capitulated on October 14 by adopting a resolution declaring that it would not longer oppose the extension of the elective franchise to all classes in Prussia. This is one of the reforms for which the Social Democrats of Prussia have been fighting ever since that party was formed twelve years ago. Apparently it marks the beginning of the end of autocratic rule in Germany. But the force which finally broke down the Junker opposition did not come from within, but was applied by the Allied armies on the western front. The way is clearing for the democratization of Germany.

BELGIUM'S ACCOLADE.

Honor does not always go materially unrewarded. Yesterday's cables reveal that King Albert of Belgium is leading the sturdy remnants of his army in the redemption of his country's wasted lands from the Hun. For four years this gallant little army has clung desperately to a fragment of their country near Ypres. The whole of Belgium has never been in German hands. The Belgian civil population has been exiled or held in a bondage beside which that under which the Pharaohs held the Israelites was only benevolent assimilation. But the Belgian heart has never faltered and Belgian's pride has never been humbled. Now the day of deliverance has come. The thrall of the Hun has been broken. The Belgian peoples will return to their lands with a heritage of honor and liberty which is the most priceless gift that any generation can transmit to posterity. King Albert of Belgium will bequeath to history as heroic a figure as William Tell.

PAYING THE PRICE.

Job Harriman's Socialistic colony at Llano near Palmdale is passing through the last stages of insolvency. The unfortunate dupes who invested savings of a lifetime in this Socialist Utopia, have been left penniless to make a new start in life. Suits have been brought to foreclose mortgages against the real and personal property of the colony, aggregating $130,000. After the property has been sold an unsatisfied deficit of many thousand dollars will probably remain as a menace over those who have already lost their all. Nearly a thousand colonists invested in Llano del Rio stock under a contract by which they were to receive $4 a day and steady employment. The prospectus was alluring; it fairly exuded Socialism and human rights. But when the practical elucidation of the theories was attempted it was found that the colony could not produce enough to feed and clothe its own members. Stock certificates, that were to circulate as fiat money, are worth only the junk value of the paper on which they are printed. Harriman is reported to be organizing new colonies in other States. His corporation operates under a temporary permit issued by the Blue Sky commission, a commission formed for the purpose of preventing wildcat speculation. Harriman is fairly prosperous, thank you; the employees of the Blue Sky commission are still drawing their comfortable stipends from the State; but how about those thousand homeless ones whose credulity was their only crime?

"THEY ALSO SERVE."

No more generous movement has been inaugurated since the beginning of the war than that of buying a bond for a soldier. There are thousands of men in Los Angeles who grieve daily because age or physical defect prevents them from taking their places in the Liberty army, men who would give years of life for the privilege of one grand rush "over the top" in the wake of Old Glory; men who have shed bitter tears in the stillness of the night, where none but their God can know, because fate has been so unkind. There are thousands of others, too, with heart of lion in a woman's breast, whose sex compels them to stand by and wait until the boys come home. Some of these have formulated the project of giving an expression of their appreciation of those who are now in the forefront of the battle by subscribing for a Liberty bond in the name of some absent soldier. Those who subscribe in this way are giving twice. The immediate money will enable the government to keep our soldiers armed and supplied while the war is in progress; and when the repayment begins the returned soldier will know that some one at home was not ungrateful for the sacrifice which he made. There is something in the appeal to buy a bond for a soldier that will touch every patriotic heart. It is a service for which no buttons will be issued, for those making this kind of subscription do not parade their contributions; but it reflects credit alike on the individual and on the nation of which he or she is a part.

THREE MONTHS OF FOCH.

Three glorious months have passed since Marshal Foch turned back the onrush of the Huns at the Marne and launched a terrific counter-offensive, whose shock has set the joy bells of liberty ringing around the world. Never before has the hand of destiny loosed so many portentous events in so short a space of time. The political map of three continents has been remade. A foe, whose arrogance four years of victory had fed, has been forced to his knees, and now comes begging of an enemy, he so lately derided, for peace at any price. The Crown Prince, who directed the German advance along the Marne on July 15 in the language of a dictator, has disappeared wholly from view. His name is absent from the columns of the German press. Orders to the German General Staff no longer carry his signature. Cables from Switzerland recount that the Kaiser is now heard weeping, that the head of the House of Hohensollern is haggard with care, that he is suffering from an acute attack of insomnia, that fear and remorse are dogging his footsteps, and that pronounced symptoms of dementia may cause the confinement of the mad kind of Prussia in a sanatorium.

How are the mighty fallen! The war machine of the Allies, like the mills of the gods, moves slowly, but it grinds exceeding fine. Prince Maximilian has dropped the title of "Imperial" Chancellor. In his peace note to President Wilson he declares, and his declaration is backed by an official communication from the German government, that he speaks in the name of the German House of Parliament and of the German people. Two-thirds of the French territory occupied by the Germans in July has been cleared of the enemy. More than half Belgium is now within the Allied lines, which have been extended northward until they touch the Dutch border.

In the Hungarian Parliament a proclamation has been read declaring the independence of Hungary. The great industrial city of Lille and the mineral belt, of which it is the center, are now behind the Allied lines. Last night's dispatches relate that no spoliation and burning preceded the Hun evacuation. The German commandant called the inhabitants of Lille to assemble in the early morning, told them the gates to the west were open and that they were free to join their friends. After this display, the garrison marched away.

If anyone is curious to know why "the beast" has suddenly assumed this disguise, Marshal Foch and the millions of heroic British, French and American troops under his command are in position to answer. During the last three months they have captured 4600 cannon, one-fourth the whole German artillery equipment, and about 360,000 men. The Hindenburg line has been pierced in twenty places, and the German machine is limping Rhineward on flat tires. Now the German government is asking for peace in order to stop a further effusion of blood. When the devil is sick he generally turns humanitarian.

To recount individual victories is idle. The offensive of Marshal Foch has embraced every fighting front. The Turkish forces in the east are scattered or dead; the Macedonian front has collapsed, and Bulgaria has sought a peace whose terms are complete disarmament and unconditional surrender. Entente troops occupy Nish, German base in Serbia; and the line of communication between Turkey and her confederates through the Balkans has been severed. The offensives of Alexander, Hannibal, Caesar and Napoleon are dwarfed by comparison with the losses inflicted on the enemy, the war material captured and important objectives gained during the last three months. If anyone doubts the sincerity of Germany's cry for mercy, or that the power of the German war machine is exhausted, he has but to take a glance at the map of Europe, Asia and Africa as it has been remade during the last three months.

American hearts naturally rejoice that, in the conquest of the Hun, our Liberty Army has been in at the finish. When the word came from France on July 16 that Marshal Foch had stopped the German rush on the Marne with American troops, the world wondered. Military precedents had been shattered by trusting so important a sector to untried troops. It was these same untried troops that joined with the French two days later in the beginning of the great offensive that wiped out the Marne sector. Without giving the dazed German General Staff a breathing spell, Gen. Haig struck in Picardy and Flanders. Half a million Americans were thrown into the front lines. They proved to be the beloved of the Goddess of Victory. Wherever they struck, the German defense staggered and broke. A French military writer in relating this week the success of the American attack in the Argonne Forest observed: "Nowhere in France since the beginning of the present offensive has an American division given ground." Credit for this is due in a large measure to the British and French high commands, for the movement of the American troops is under their general direction. But when this is granted enough glory remains to gladden a hundred million American hearts. Equal glory reflects on British and French arms. Never have men fought better than the troops under Gen. Haig, who took back the territory from which they were driven in the spring offensive, and who are now compelling the evacuation of Belgium, the original objective of Great Britain in entering the war. And everywhere along the Allied line from Ostend to the Swiss border the gallant French Poilu has leaped forward, panther-like, to grasp that harvest of victory for which France has been preparing ever since the debacle of Sedan.

While the German General Staff try to bring some kind of order out of the present chaos, the German diplomats and politicians are sweating over the reply to President Wilson's latest note. In the Allied countries it is awaited with interest, but not with trepidation. For the terms of German capitulation have been fixed: whether they are accepted by Germany in October or six months hence, is only a question of detail. The German armies in the field have been badly beaten, and Marshal Foch has accomplished the task within a term of three months.

The Wrath of Germania.

OUR QUICKENING PULSE.

In spite of the fact that the public is excluded from the stock exchange because of the health order forbidding assemblages of any kind, even for the purpose of outguessing the other fellow, and also because of the quietus given to the speculative market by the Liberty Loan, a surprisingly-large volume of business is reported as being transacted in a quiet way on the Los Angeles floor. A good many of the larger and more important stocks are interesting just now and there is considerable trading in them. While the loan comes first and the brokers are proving themselves loyal to it, there are healthy indications which forecast an extremely-active market as soon as the government billions have been raised. The peace talk is stimulating prices; oils are buoyant; mines seem to be "coming back," and the general outlook is optimistic.

Even outside of the range of the market this condition prevails to a large extent. Bond dealers, who have been practically moribund for some time, are talking of a number of issues that are in the planning and will be floated just as soon as the sun breaks through the war clouds sufficiently to warrant. A large volume of municipal and corporate improvement work that would have been considered essential under any other circumstances has been permitted to await a more propitious time, but some of this must soon be undertaken to save investments and, with the end of the war looming closer and closer on the horizon, the financial pulse is showing a decided quickening.

Bankers say they are not worrying over the future at large, but they are concerned at the apathy with which the Fourth Liberty Loan is being absorbed in Los Angeles. A failure in any considerable amount to fill the city and county quota will be deeply regretted by the officers of local banks who have done everything possible to make the loan successful. Every concession has been made to the subscriber, and virtually the banks have offered to carry 90 per cent. of the load until the individual buyer is in a position to care for the obligation incurred, on almost any terms that suit his convenience. These patriotic men cannot help feeling that the public should meet them at least quarter way in putting the community over the top. "But Los Angeles is a good finisher," they say, "and the end is not yet."

A survey of business and financial districts develops the amazing fact that about 90 per cent. of the leaders in finance and commerce are devoting a good share of their time and all of their organizations that is needed to loan work. Many of the most prominent men in the city have moved from their own offices bag and baggage for the period of the loan to establish themselves in the midst of the hurly-burly of a great campaign headquarters.

A misguided attempt to list some of these patriots met everywhere with an emphatic NO. "We are doing this because it seemed to be the thing that we could do that would get the best results for the country," they say. "We do not expect, nor do we desire, any praise or publicity. If America does not win this war nothing would be worth while."

It is a fine example of co-operative team work and will have its reward in a better understanding and a wider tolerance long after Liberty Loans have passed into history; but it is a work of devotion and self-sacrifice that should have the backing of the public to a greater extent in the purchase of bonds.

SLACKERS' PILLORY.

There is no law written in the statute books compelling any man or woman to buy a Liberty Bond. But there is a law in a higher court than any created by legislative enactment, the court of honor, that proclaims every man and woman who fails to enlist in the great economic warfare against the Hun as a slacker and an ingrate, unworthy of the association or confidence of honest, patriotic people. Precinct lists are now being posted of the slackers. To have had one's name there may be regarded by the coming generation as a greater disgrace than to have been enrolled as an inmate of some penal institution. A prison sentence compels an atonement; the stripes disappear with the prison garb; but the brand of the slacker burns deeper than the flesh and its scars can never be effaced. More than one slacker will walk the silent watches of the night after a peace of victory has been won, tormented by the insomnia of a condemning conscience, and will cry "Out, damned spot!" when atonement will no longer be possible. A slacker is a thief who robs his country, who betrays the gallant living and the heroic dead. Be a criminal if you must; rob, burn and slay; but don't be a slacker.

A FABLE.

Once upon a Time there was a Young Girl who was Awful Willful. She was wooed by a Pleasant-spoken Young Man, and she said Yes without consulting anybody. The Marriage was of the Sort known as Unhappy. If you know what I mean, and all her Friends wagged their heads and said: "I told you so! If you had asked my Advice, I could have Warned you against him! I knew of his Shortcomings and his Goings on!"

Also, once upon a Time, there was another Young Girl, most Shy and Timid. And every time she had a Proposal she asked her Friends of Relatives for Advice. And One and All they said, Each Time: "Oh, my Dear! Don't marry him! He is most Undesirable!" So the Young Girl never Married at all.

The morals of this fable are: In a multitude of counselors there is safety and too many cooks spoil the broth.—[Town Topics.

HELP-MEETS.

She stood and glared at him. "And you mean to stand there and ask me to press your trousers?" she demanded.

"Why, yes, my dear," responded Mr. Stubb. "Is that asking too much?"

"I should say it is, John Henry Stubb. I'd have you to know that when you married me you did not marry a flatiron."

That evening his turn came.

"John, dear," said Mrs. Stubb, "just button my blouse before you go, there's a good man."

"Nay, nay, Maria. When you accepted me you did not say 'yes' to a buttonhook," and picking up his hat he romped out.—[Christian Register.

With Germany suing for peace, Spain has got her dander up, and it is announced that the government will place sixty-two Hun ships in service as the equivalent of Spanish ships torpedoed. Everybody is picking on Germany now.

IMPROPAGANDA.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

"This German propaganda has a good deal of camouflage about it," remarked I to the Old Resident as we turned into the vegetarian cafeteria for our mid-day wassail.

"There you go for a double-header," grunted the pioneer. "Seems to me as if everybody just loved to mouth those words whether they know what they mean or not. I get propagandaed and camouflaged until I am sorry there ever was a war. If I come out in favor of one-dollar bills I am supposed to be a propagandist, and if I eat a clove after taking a drink I am accused of camouflaging my breath. It's everywhere. You couldn't write a piece for the paper without getting in something about a propaganda or a camouflage, and at that I'll bet the cigars you don't know what you are talking about."

"Is that so?" exclaimed I with some heat. "I have been told that I am almost as wise as you, you old numbskull."

"Don't ever believe all you are told," retorted the pioneer, "or somebody will be selling you a Swiss cheese mine. But every now and then you'll run into some wop who is yelping about German propaganda and don't know but what it's the name of a bicycle the Kaiser rides. The janitor of your flat will take you off in the corner and tell you that he thinks the Schneiders in No. 4 are spreading German propaganda, as he heard Mrs. Schneider ordering pretzels over the telephone. He thinks propaganda is something they get at the delicatessen."

"But," interrupted I, "there is propaganda everywhere. It is insidious. It is in the air. It is like the germ of influenza."

"That's it," retorted the veteran, testily. "Germs from the Germans. But why don't you say what you mean? I'll bet you don't know where propaganda comes from?"

"It comes from Potsdam or some other d—n place," returned I.

"I mean what the word is derived from," persisted the pioneer.

"Don't I?" sneered I. "Propaganda is from 'prop'—meaning to hold up. Gander is masculine for goose, which means that I am a goose to let you hold me up in this way."

"If there's any hold-up you'll be in it yourself," retorted the old man. "But to show that you're not so blamed smart let me tell you something: The original propaganda was a committee of cardinals appointed by Pope Gregory to supervise the department of foreign missions of the Roman Catholic Church. They were to propagate the faith. But now it is tacked onto everything from believers in birth control to the woman who tells you how to conjugate the verb "liebe." If you go into the barbar shop the barber will tell you of the perils of the Prussian propaganda or how the single-tax propagandists are getting in their hellish work. He doesn't even try to camouflage it."

"There you go yourself, you old fraud," interrupted I. "Here you were jumping onto me and you are just as bad as they make 'em. But you don't know what 'camouflage' comes from."

"Shucks!" teased the veteran. "It comes from the Scandihoovian word 'camoo'—meaning a camera and and 'flag,' or George Cohan's great friend. It means to wave the flag in front of the camera and make people believe you have bought a million dollars' worth of Liberty Bonds. But that's about as sensible as lots of folks use the word. Now when you telephone your wife that you have some business with Brady, but are really taking lunch with a grass widow, it is mentioned as a pleasant bit of camouflage, and when your tailor loads you down with a suit of shoddy under the claim that it is wool it is merely a piece of business camouflage. If you start to raise whiskers you are said to be camouflaging your face, and the man who takes your money because you can't tell which shell the little pea is under is only doing a little stunt of camouflage."

"Persiflage, you mean," interrupted I, as if in jest.

"But it is best to be simple and direct in speech," persisted the old man. "Say what you mean and do not use a word because it is fashionable or you have heard someone else use it. If a man is a liar, say so. Don't try to camouflage it. By the way, what do you call this place we are in?"

"This is a vegetarian cafeteria," pronounced I, impressively.

"You have been philandering with the poppies," chirped the pioneer. "This is a boneless beanery."

"Mere propaganda," retorted I, passing the check to the veteran.

NEW STYLE BUTTONHOOK.

Maj. "Bob" Glendinning, now in France in the aviation service, and one of the best liked of the whole 1,000,000, is the hero of this anecdote.

Before he went into the service he went to one of our leading tailors for a modish civilian suit.

The tailor thought his up-to-date customer might like an innovation. He therefore supplied the garments with square buttons.

"Bob," who believes in trying everything once at least, was pleased with the novelty.

He wore the suit to the bank. The office boy laughed behind his hand and members of the firm "joshed" their associate.

At the Union League he was "horsed" unmercifully.

A couple of days later he received an important-looking express package.

Undoing innumerable strings and wrappings round the big box, he removed the lid and delved into a mass of hair, moss and excelsior.

The precious object thus enshrined, way down at the bottom of the box, turned out to be nothing more or less than—a monkey-wrench.

With it was this note:

"Dear Bob:

"Use this to button your coat with.

"Your Friends of the Union League."—[Philadelphia Ledger.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

TWO GENERALS.

"Confound that Foch!" sighs Ludendorff! "I was a giant till he came and made me seem a sawed-off dwarf; he's cooked my goose and spoiled my fame. I was a giant, fair to see, a man colossal brave and strong; the German people looked on me as one who could do nothing wrong. 'While Ludendorff's on deck,' they said, 'we cannot fail of winning out, so we shall calmly go ahead and do our chores and eat our kraut.' I was invincible, men thought, the Potsdam bunch and all the rest, and even Kaiser Wilhelm brought a wreath and pinned it on my vest. And while the Allies plugged away, each for himself, without a chief, I had a triumph every day and sidestepped many kinds of grief. But now that Foch is in command, my goat has wandered far from me; in vain are all the plans I've planned, in vain is all my strategy. My big campaign is now a wreck, I've said to all my hopes good-by, today Foch hits me in the neck, tomorrow he will black my eye. He takes a thousand miles of soil, ten thousand prisoners he takes; he swats me on my sacred boil and then my collarbone he breaks. Six months ago, as you'll agree, I bulked much larger than a prince; but since this Foch mixed up with me I feel much smaller than a quince."

Agricultural possibilities of "cut-over" lands in Louisiana have been once more demonstrated by Ed Strain, a farmer living a mile and a half north of St. Benedict, producing a bale of cotton an acre on cut-over land broken and prepared in the fall and planted in cotton in the spring of the next year. The fact that Mr. Strain is a blacksmith by trade and has taken to farming only recently renders the agricultural feat the more remarkable.

THE END OF THE U-BOATS

"As a full technical description, with photographs, has already been published about the listening device in use on our fleets, there can be no harm in me saying that they are now so perfect it is easily possible to hear the propeller of a U-boat five miles away. It accordingly follows that a chain of destroyers, spaced eight or nine miles apart, can sweep a hundred miles of sea and hear any U-boat that passes between its links. Once heard, the sound can be localized. Once localized, there comes into play apparatus recently installed which throws depth mines, four at a time, in a circle about any given point.

"A periscope, let us say, is sighted a mile away. While a destroyer is dashing off that mile on the surface, a submarine can proceed a quarter in any direction beneath. This is what follows. Arrived at the point where the U-boat was seen, the destroyer fires four depth mines in a diamond around it. The next discharge fills in the gaps. To make certain, a few may be thrown in a wider ring; others can be dropped inside. But one thing is certain, whereas last year a U-boat stood five chances out of six to escape, this year a U-boat seen is a U-boat sunk. With the assistance of the hydroplane and 'blimp' patrols, the keen eyes of the fleet which detect a submarine sixty feet under water, which will soon be maintaining patrols all day and moonlight nights on every mile of Allied coast, there should be little trouble in sweeping the U-boat off the seas. The number of sinkings is increasing so rapidly, indeed, that the Germans can no longer keep the flotillas up to their minimum strength. In the first three months of this year more submarines were destroyed than built, and in April as many were sunk as in the three previous months. The improved apparatus of destruction is making itself enormously felt."—[Herman Whitaker in the October Century.

The "manía" is about out of mania.

Ludendorff can't get 'em over there is no relief pitcher in sight.

A penny for the thoughts of late Imperial Majesty, Kaiser Bill.

It is quite a distance from Metz to Berlin, but it is in the right direction.

Ain't the retreating Germans using the "Pershing trot" to a you-will?

An epidemic of what is known as the "morning-after" malady is reported in Berlin.

The firm of "Me und Gott" has been dissolved by the collapse of the senior partner.

The identity of the once dreaded "Sick Man of Europe" has now been discovered. It is Kaiser.

It might happen that the next Thanksgiving Day would be a holiday. God of nations, send oh.

In these days of substitutes the is the matter with the idea of getting a substitute for Kaiser?

Gen. Von Hindenburg is said to be of a surrender, it is hoped he don't often side with Von. In this instance his good sense is commended.

Secretary Baker says that this nation will continue the practice of sending abroad 10,000 every thirty days. Do you believe that, Dr. Wilhelm Solf?

The local lobster shack is closed and some whoppers may be expected from the fishermen gather at the corner gossip swap lies about their catch.

There are thousands of people in this city, but do you know one? All is not profit that goes to the hopper of theatrical ventures to dispel a common delusion.

"Give up," says President Wilson to Turkey. That ought to be very hard for the Sultan, who has been "giving up" to the Young Turks autocracy for so long. It will be accustomed to the process.

The elusive cranberry is in the market, as red as ever, but not blushing at the prospect that it is being the means of convicting a number of housekeepers of putting perjury in their mincemeat.

The death is reported of the man who invented the waste basket used by the United States. It shall now be compelled to go to the old-fashioned one for the attack of rheumatism he had to sign we had for a time.

Suppose the American boys on the western front were to tell some of the folks at home they ought to subscribe liberally to the Fourth Liberty Loan? That would be no good news to cause to the readers of The Times this morning.

In obedience to an order of the Food Conservation Board, grocers are displaying the cost and selling prices of many commodities, so that purchasers and spectators know them to be correct, but as to the buying figures they read well.

Just merely for the sake of information, why is it that prices of coffee have not been materially advanced for the past two years? Everything else has gone up, but the figures for the product continue to be stabilized. The great bulk of our coffee comes from Brazil, and it certainly takes time to carry it here. What is the answer?

Germany has sacrificed billions of money and millions of men to cover that her armies are not in full retreat. They have crumbled under the combined assault of the allied legions. It is worth all it cost the imperial government to make it is not the only power on earth. Never again will it strut before the world as a nation that must be reckoned with.

The record made by this city in the enrollment of men for service in America between the ages of 18 and 45 was one of the greatest displays of social organization the world has ever witnessed. Virtually the entire military power of the city was enrolled in a few days. It was accomplished without confusion. The number of volunteers was almost sensational.

POEMS BY MYSELF—By POLLY.

Language.

Language is what people use
When they wish to state their views.
In a book or speech.
So we have to learn it young
Starting with the mother tongue
That our mothers teach.

First it's English that you learn
French you do not study 'till
Not unless you're rich.
And you have a governess
Who will tell you how to dress
Which of them is which.

Mixing language breaks the rules
And you know that was the cause
Tower of Babel fell;
For the workmen got confused
From the many tongues they used
As the scriptures tell.

"Babble" is our word for it
Nowadays that talk no merit
We don't understand.
So it's always best for me
To be learning just the key
Of my native land.

ALL VENTURA TOWNS OVER TOP BUT ONE.

COUNTY EXCEEDS ITS QUOTA BY $120,000, IS REPORT FROM OXNARD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

OXNARD, Oct. 17.—Ventura county has exceeded its quota of $1,808,600 in the Fourth Liberty Loan by $121,000, according to the announcement of Chairman Charles Donlon of this city today. He stated the subscriptions to date were $1,929,600. This has been accomplished in spite of the influenza epidemic, in the county of which the county chairman, Charles Donlon, is a victim. Every town in the county except Camarillo has exceeded its quota.

The subscriptions by towns and quotas are:

	Subscription.	Quota.
Oxnard	$921,500	$678,600
Fillmore	198,750	85,500
Hueneme	78,000	70,000
Ojai	85,500	57,000
Moor Park	20,850	14,000
Ventura	608,450	361,600
Saticoy	122,500	120,000
Camarillo	282,500	180,000

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 17.—Pasadena needed just $200,000 worth of Liberty Loan subscriptions to put the city over its quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan. Local Liberty Loan officials are hopeful that so many citizens will increase their present subscriptions that the end of the week will see the city thousands of dollars over the quota total of $3,240,050.

SANTA BARBARA FIGURES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 17.—Here are the latest figures for Santa Barbara county's Fourth Liberty Loan drive:

Santa Barbara city including Summerland, Goleta and Montecito, $1,610,750, quota $1,745,900; Carpinteria, $39,500, quota $18,100, oversubscribed $21,400; Solvang, $66,750, quota $25,500, oversubscribed $41,250; Lompoc, $402,250, quota $278,700, oversubscribed $30,650; Santa Maria Valley, $627,300, quota $397,056, oversubscribed $230,250.

These figures show the total quota for the county as $3,066,250; total subscribed, $3,756,550, and Santa Barbara city has $134,150 deficit to make up before Saturday night.

SAN BERNARDINO OVER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 17.—With San Bernardino city safely over the quota and almost every other city in the county above their respective allotment, Chairman A. G. Kendall, late this afternoon announced that the Fourth Liberty Loan in San Bernardino county would be splendidly oversubscribed. This county's quota is $2,759,000. The city is "over the top" with $1,072,000, and still going.

MILLION REALTY DEAL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 17.—F. H. Robson, multi-millionaire of Worcester, Mass., practically closed negotiations here this afternoon for the purchase of Veronica Valley, just over the west line of the city limits, for a consideration of $1,000,000.

After going over the property during the forenoon with Vice-President J. H. Thomas of the Veronica Medicinal Springs Company, Robson took the train for the East, and will leave on the limited from Los Angeles tonight for New York to meet President F. H. Kimball of the Veronica company to finally conclude the deal.

He is acting for a syndicate of eastern investors, it is said, who plan a large hotel on the property, with the purpose of transforming Veronica Valley into the greatest spa in the country. A report that Robson is acting for the government was denied.

Announcement of the deal, following so closely the sale of Hope Ranch Park to R. Maurice Hecker of New York for $500,000, has aroused the greatest interest.

Veronica Valley, covering 169 acres, lies between Hope Ranch Park and the city of Santa Barbara. The deal includes the entire plant of the Veronica Medicinal Springs Company.

FELLOWS MAN DIES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 17.—Living for three days after he had fallen from a truck and fractured his skull at the base, Atle Allen Heaton, aged 23, and prominent Fellows man, died in a hospital here. Heaton was an employee of the Santa Fe Oil Company.

AVERT BAD FIRE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 17.—A fire which might have been disastrous to thousands of acres of pasture land on the O'Neill ranch from Lucas Canyon to the sea, was only averted by a favorable change in the wind and hard work on the part of fire fighters. As it was, only 200 acres were burned over. Forest Ranger J. B. Stephenson is convinced the fire was set by an incendiary with malicious intent.

REDONDO MAN GETS NAVAL PROMOTION.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 17.—Lieut. B. A. Minor, who for a number of years was superintendent of the waterfront at Redondo Beach for the Pacific Electric Railway and who is now stationed at the Section Naval Base at La Playa, San Diego, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant-commander in the United States Navy. The promotion followed almost immediately his promotion to the rank of lieutenant junior grade. Lieutenant-Commander Minor is inspecting engineer of this district stationed at the La Playa base. He served in the navy in the Spanish-American War and was retired as lieutenant of engineers.

STAMPING OUT "FLU."

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

OXNARD, Oct. 16.—Following the lead of other California cities, Oxnard is taking drastic steps to stop the spread of influenza. By order of the Trustees, all public meetings, including schools, theaters, and churches, have been closed for an indefinite period. The order went into effect at 6 o'clock this evening. Children will not be allowed to congregate in groups, and extra policemen will be added to enforce this edict in the residence districts. Strict quarantine will be enforced in all cases where the disease exists.

MIRAMONTE IN LEAD.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MIRAMONTE, Oct. 17.—Under the management of Prof. and Mrs. John E. Wright, Miramonte has not only gone over the top before the close of the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, but is apt to go over five times. To date, the entire amount subscribed is $14,300 and the allotment is but $10,000. Of this amount $17,300 has been subscribed among the workers, two for each precinct, the remainder at places of business and banks out of the city.

JAP SLASHES THROAT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 17.—The fourth attempt of as many different Japanese in Orange county at suicide recently was successful last night for Mrs. Chie Nishioka, 24-year-old Garden Grove woman, who slashed her throat with a razor. The body was found at midnight in the yard at a Japanese neighbor's home. The woman had been despondent on account of ill health.

VENETIANS ENDURE STORM.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, Oct. 17.—A heavy wind blew here all last night, piling up the sand on the walks and, with the action of the waves, altering the contour of the beach at various points. William Hudson, a member of the Venice fire department, and Ed Helfritsch, were out in a small launch, and had great difficulty in getting back to the bay.

Do you live in a haunted house?

The germ-haunted house shelters a deadly menace.

Your house is germ-haunted unless it is regularly disinfected.

Disinfection must go a long way before it can completely eliminate disease germs; but science has shown the way to lessen their danger.

Disinfection has changed Panama from a pest-hole to a health resort. Disinfection has made yellow fever in Havana only a memory.

It is possible perfectly to disinfect great areas and big cities. It is easy perfectly to disinfect the germ-breeding places in the home.

Epidemics are born of dirt and ignorance. Do your share to offset the tragic effects of this ignorance. Don't let the neglect of others endanger the health of your family. Disinfect your home regularly and thoroughly with Lysol.

Lysol Disinfectant

Lysol Disinfectant annihilates all germ-life at the instant of contact. Great hospitals rely upon its powerful disinfecting qualities. Boards of health and physicians urge its use.

Use a handful today, mix a little of it with water, and use the solution regularly in garbage cans, toilets, sinks, and drains. Use it in sprinkling-water and in dark, sunless corners.

Lysol is economical; a 50c bottle makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant—a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons. Lysol is invaluable for personal hygiene.

Lysol Toilet Soap contains Lysol, and therefore cleanses the skin from germ infection. It is refreshingly soothing and healing and helpful for chapped skin. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't got it, ask him to order it for you.

Lysol Shaving Cream contains Lysol, and kills germs on razor and shaving-brush (where germs abound), guards the tiny cuts from infection, and gives the antiseptic shave. If your dealer hasn't got it, ask him to order a supply for you.

DATE PALM PITS FOR GAS MASKS.

Save Them, They're Useful, Chemical Welfare Service Declares.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 17.—Mrs. George Robertson, wife of one of the instructors at the University of Redlands, has just received word from the Gas Defensive Division of the Chemical Welfare Service of the United States Army that the seeds of the ordinary date palm are valuable for use in gas masks and the collection of them will begin at once.

The Red Cross will ship the seeds to headquarters.

Pits of the seeds are separated from the meat by boiling for about five minutes, after which the whole mass is placed loosely in a sack and rubbed together for a short time. The seeds can then be picked out and dried in the sun. Great care must be taken by those gathering the dates, however, to prevent injury from the sharp thorn of the plant.

The letter to Mrs. Robertson came in response to an inquiry made several days ago.

TRIAL OF WILLIAMS.

Alleged Crooked Transaction of Former Banker Told by Note Teller Hansen.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 17.—A note for $5000, which from the testimony appeared to be a forgery, played an important part in the trial of Charles L. Williams, vice-president of the American National Bank, being tried in Federal Court for embezzlement of $59,000 of the bank's funds, today.

The note was signed by M. D. Goodbody, a contractor, and went through the bank of Coronado to the American National Bank. Goodbody, on the stand, said he did not sign the note.

The note was introduced, in addition to the $20,000 note signed D. M. Goodbody, the amount of which it is alleged, Williams appropriated from the account of M. D. Murphy. Note Teller C. B. Hansen of the American National Bank testified the signature was not that of Goodbody.

Hansen said that Williams had come to him before the bank examiner visited the institution, gave him a check amounting to $16,663.12 on the Williams' special account to cover "cash" items that included four Goodbody notes in favor of the Calexico Bank and the $5000 note, and asked for the notes. When the bank examiner had left, he put the notes back and took out the check.

DEATH AT WHITTIER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Oct. 17.—Another death from influenza was recorded here today, Clair Houton, aged 17, passing this morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horton. He was a high school student.

The Horton family are having more than their share of illness, both Mrs. Horton and a younger son, Edgar, also being ill from influenza. A daughter, Miss Madge Horton, is just recovering in Montana.

WOMAN SAVES DOGS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA BEACH, Oct. 17.—The pack of Esquimaux dogs owned by Capt. John Smith of this city will not be killed. Today Mrs. Maillard of Hollywood, a representative of the Blue Cross, an organization devoted to the welfare of dogs and other animals, bought the six malamutes for the nominal sum of $1. She believes that the dogs can be used in finding wounded and in dog police work in the trenches. The dogs have often been seen in films showing Alaskan scenes, most of them taken near Big Bear.

HOLD SYNOD MEETING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 17.—Dr. Robert Freeman of Pasadena and Dr. W. S. Young of Los Angeles conducted a formal Presbyterian synod meeting here today to comply with the legal requirements in connection with the call for a meeting of the synod of the States of California and Nevada. The synod programme was postponed temporarily.

ROAD FAILS TO PAY; LA JOLLAITES PROTEST.

FEAR OF INFLUENZA CAUSES RAILWAY COMMISSION TO POSTPONE HEARING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 17.—Because there will be no means of transportation to their town if the La Jolla line is dismantled, except by automobile, airplane or by water, more than 100 La Jolla citizens crowded into the courtroom today at a hearing before the Railroad Commission to protest against its dismantling. The Los Angeles and San Diego Beach Railway Company, of which E. S. Babcock is the head, has asked to have the road dismantled, as it does not pay.

Owing to the fear of influenza from the crowded room, and in order that the La Jolla people may make a proposition to arrange for a plan to finance the road, a continuance of thirty days was given for the hearing.

SUGAR-BEET SEASON CLOSING AT OXNARD.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

OXNARD, Oct. 17.—The 1918 campaign of the American Beet Sugar factory here will close sometime next week. Growers whose beets are yet in the field have been ordered to make deliveries not later than October 20, and as soon after that as the beets can be put through the factory, the machinery will shut down. The season's run was short on account of the dry winter which prevented plowing and planting, but the yield per acre was good and growers who succeeded in getting beets planted secured good returns. This factory handled the sugar beet crop of the San Fernando Valley and the Chino district, as well as Ventura county, this year.

If you want to do the right thing go to Arrowhead Springs.—[Advertisement.

WHITTIER HOLDS ELECTION.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Oct. 16.—The annual election of officers for the Whittier Chapter of the American Red Cross was held this week. On account of the strict quarantine against any public meetings the election was a formal affair, polls being open only one hour in the evening. There was no opposition to the ticket placed in nomination Committee ten days ago. The newly-elected officers are: F. L. Pease, president; Paul Danninger, vice-president; Peter McLaren, secretary; A. C. Naple, treasurer; Executive Committee, Mrs. Truman Berry, Mrs. Katherine Livermore, Mrs. M. H. Sawyer, Mrs. A. L. Coffman, Mrs. C. L. Edmonston, Judge M. T. Owens. The annual meeting with reports of departments will be held as soon as city health conditions warrant.

MILITARY FUNERAL FOR LIEUT. BLATZ.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, Oct. 17.—Preparations at in honor of Lieut. Edgar P. Blatz, who died last Monday at Camp Bayard in New Mexico. According to the present arrangements the funeral are being made for a military funeral will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon on the lawn in front of the City Hall. A request for a military guard of honor composed of aviators from the March Field has been sent.

The body of the officer, accompanied by the father, reached Pomona today following special honors at Camp Baird. There the body was accompanied to the train by an honor guard of 400 officers and men. Six aviators acted as pallbearers.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Under the influence of persistent peace rumors today's stock market registered another impressive advance of prices on a volume of dealings which far exceeded one million shares.

That a considerable part of the trading came from the public was obvious from the increased attendance and interest of investors in the financial districts and from the activity of commission houses whose wires were kept busy with orders from interior points.

Although the movement again concentrated largely in issues controlled by pools and included many stocks of speculative character, many high-class shares participated in the rise to a substantial degree.

Oils, coppers, motors and twelve of stocks whose products are likely to be benefited by the war's early conclusion were higher in the course of the session from 3 to 15 points.

Realizing for profits caused only minimal recessions from maximum quotations in most instances, fresh buying of petroleum and metals marking the final hour's broader operations.

Despite the constant pressure exerted against United States Steel, that stock reacted only a small fraction, closing at an advance of practically one point. Related shares, such as Bethlehem and Crucible Steels, yielded 2 to 3 points, but rallied moderately.

Rails of the divided class, as well as many issues whose status is yet to be defined by the Federal authorities, gained 1 to 3 points, Canadian Pacific proving the only noteworthy exception. Sales amounted to 1,200,000 shares.

Railroad bonds of the speculative division as well as foreign flotations were strong. Liberty issues, however, displayed slightly irregular tendencies. Total sales, par value, aggregated $11,375,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Liberty Bond closing prices: 3½s, 99.96. First convertible 4s, $7.96; second 4s, 97.20. First convertible 4 1-4s, 97.94; second convertible 4 1-4s, 97.18; third, 4 1-4s, 97.26.

...AMERICAN CITIZEN.

...political campaign swing... ...climax, voters of ...manifesting keen in... ...personality of Gov. ...nominee of the Republican ...Chief Executive of the ...Liberty Loan address ...to a big patriotic assembly in San Francisco. Gov. Stephens characterized himself as "a plain American citizen." "There is perhaps no other phrase more descriptively happy," said one of his friends yesterday. "The Governor is typical of the best that Americanism implies. His qualities of leadership are his keen understanding of human nature, his unflinching honesty, his practical mindedness and his training in business efficiency.

"No other Governor of the State has ever been more attentive to the duties of his office. At his desk early and late, the Governor keeps in close personal contact with all branches of his administration. Like all men big in public life, he is often compelled during office hours to deny himself to casual visitors. This does not mean, however, that there is any false dignity about Gov. Stephens."

SUPPORT FOR BELL.

Among the prominent Republicans who are supporting Theodore A. Bell for Governor is Gen. Frank C. Prescott, once Receiver of the government Land Office under a Republican administration, and former Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth district. He joined the Bell forces yesterday.

"I am for Mr. Bell because I know him to be a staunch, upstanding, fearless man of large affairs," said Gen. Prescott last night. "More than any other man I believe he will give to California an administration that will put this State squarely behind the President through every act of his. He will, in fact, support the President in winning the war."

CLUBWOMEN ACTIVE.

Some of the most prominent clubwomen of Los Angeles have indorsed the candidacy of State Controller John S. Chambers, to succeed himself, and are aiding the local committee in its work to turn out a large vote for Chambers on November 5. Among these women are Mrs. Clarence Van Graham, Mrs. Ida Works Darling, Mrs. M. E. Johnson, Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, prominent W.C.T.U. worker; Mrs. Shelley H. Tolhurst, Mrs. Harriett W. Works, Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, Miss Jeanette Converse, Dr. Rose L. Burgham, Dr. M. Evangeline Jordan and Miss Elizabeth L. Kenney, who is secretary of the local Chambers committee.

INDORSED BY EDUCATORS.

Will C. Wood, State Commissioner of Secondary Schools, who is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is in Los Angeles for a few days.

Mr. Wood had a plurality of over 6000 votes over his nearest competitor at the primaries, and is very hopeful of the outcome in November. He has been indorsed by educational leaders and social workers in California.

FOR ROAD REPAIR.

A demand from the Supervisors of Ventura county, the Chamber of Commerce of Santa Paula and ranchers in that neighborhood that Los Angeles county repair the Ridge route between Castaic and the Ventura county line, sent Supervisors Dodge and McClellan and Road Foreman Joyner to the Ridge route on a tour of inspection yesterday. They reported that the road is in bad shape, and will recommend that the county spend $6000 putting it in shape.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength, and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1216 S. Orchade St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

OSTEND VICTORY GREAT TRIUMPH

Will Make Sea Travel Safer, Says Italian Officer.

Here to Inspect Harbor for Rome Government.

Coast Shipbuilding Record Praised by Captain.

"The capture of Ostend and its German submarine base is certainly a great triumph for the Allies," said Capt. Genaro Como of the Italian navy, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to inspect local shipbuilding plants for his government. For the past two years Capt. Como has been helping to rid the Mediterranean of German submarines, at one time having a flotilla of thirteen vessels under his command.

"The German submarine evil is fast being wiped out," continued Capt. Como, "and with Ostend gone and Zeebrugge crippled, German U-boats must make a long journey from the north before they can get into action. There are only a few left in the Mediterranean where a few years ago they were destroying steamers right and left. I left Genoa on a cargo boat on August 20 without convoy, and arrived safely in New York, so you can see ocean traveling is becoming safe again."

CONVOYS COAST STEAMER.

Capt. Como, was living in Calgary, Alberta, when Italy entered the war, and returned to resume his naval rank. He is now on leave of absence. He convoyed the Seattle-built steamer Westlake through the submarine-infested Mediterranean some months ago and the captain of the steamer told him of the great shipbuilding plants which were being developed on the Pacific Coast.

"The Pacific Coast has a great future in shipbuilding and in world trade," said the naval officer, "Italy, for example, has lost many cargo vessels. She must buy and build. There is no reason why she should not come to the Pacific Coast yards, and I have seen what wonderful work is being turned out here.

"Italian capital after the war will undoubtedly open up steamship lines from the Pacific Coast to China, Japan, India, Egypt, Naples and Genoa, and there is no reason why Los Angeles should not be a port for these vessels. Italian capital might be interested in establishing, for example, a cannery at this port to handle products to be carried in vessels to the Far East. It is to gather information of the possibilities of this port for my government that I am here.

"There is an appreciation of America existing in Italy today that never existed before. Your troops have been enthusiastically greeted by the KING of Italy and our people. Our government after the war will co-operate with your people in every way, and in case immigration comes it will be of the best type of Italians.

HUNS MUST SURRENDER.

"Germany is beaten, of course, and now my government, just like yours, is thinking of world business after the war. As for peace terms, President Wilson has stated them—nothing but surrender. The Allies will make the peace terms and have made them. The murderer cannot sit with the judge and help him decide. Whether Germany is sincere now or not does not matter. She must surrender."

Capt. Como will inspect the shipbuilding plants at the harbor today with Robert L. Hague, head of the department of inspection, survey and repairs of the United States Shipping Board. The captain conferred yesterday with Clarence H. Matson, traffic manager of the Harbor Commission, and secured material for his report to the Italian government on commercial and shipbuilding prospects. Capt. Como and Mr. Hague will leave on Saturday for San Francisco. They are at the Hotel Van Nuys.

LESS CREAM, CHEAPER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 17.—City Food Administrator Paul J. Pitner today issued rules for a 40 per cent. Reduction of butter fat in cream offered for sale, and at the same time he ordered a proportionate cut in cream prices. The new order is to reduce local consumption of rich cream, there being a shortage.

PALMER PLANS TO MAKE CITY WORLD PHOTOPLAY MART.

By Grace Kingsley.

Those enterprising Palmer Photoplay people, not content with teaching the aspiring young scenario idea how to shoot, using an impressively large suite of rooms in the I. W. Hellman Building for said purpose, now entertain ambitions to make Los Angeles the foremost photoplay literary market of the country.

In line with this policy, the company last week installed a manuscript sales department, with Nan Blair, formerly head of the Triangle Film Corporation's manuscript department, as manager and studio representative. Miss Blair is well known in the local colony by reason of her long experience as a writer of original stories and of continuities for a number of the foremost stars. Among others, she scenarioized "The Painted Lily," in which Olive Thomas was recently starred; adapted a series of ten "Red Saunders" stories for Roy Stewart, and has written for J. Warren Kerrigan.

Already the Palmer organization is in touch with a number of the country's leading photo playwrights, novelists and short story writers, and its new sales department will represent these authors in Los Angeles. Among other writers sending their wares to the Palmer company are Eugene Manlove Rhodes, ten of whose stories are now in the hands of Mr. Palmer; John Northern Hilliard, and Kate Corbaley, while half a dozen others are being negotiated with, with eminent prospect of their selling their stories through this organization.

While complete arrangements are being made between the Palmer corporation and recognized writers whereby the film rights to their stories, as well as their original scenario creations, will be submitted to the studios by personal representation, the new department will not only act as an intermediary between writer and producer, but also as an elimination bureau for the studios. It is the purpose of the Palmer corporation, according to their announcement, to submit to the producers only stories of genuine merit, and in this manner relieve the editorial staffs of the studios of a great deal of needless work in examining worthless manuscripts. Already several of the principal studios send all their received scenarios to the Palmer offices for examination and necessary elimination, calling special attention to the writers who show promise.

ARE CITY OFFICIALS.

San Diego School Board Not County Body, Rules District Court of Appeal.

The members of the San Diego Board of Education are municipal, not county, officials, according to a decision handed down yesterday by the District Court of Appeal. The opinion of the court was sought following the refusal of H. L. Moody, auditor of San Diego county, to furnish certain information to the City Council in regard to expenses necessary in connection with a proposed election to recall members of the Board of Education. He claimed they were not municipal officers and the recall provisions of the city charter did not apply to them.

The court held that the right to recall members of the Board of Education, equally with the right to elect them, was vested in the city of San Diego and that the charter recognized them as municipal officers.

FILM STAR BETTER.

Bottle Pickford Reported Past Critical Stage from Affliction of the Throat.

Lottie Pickford, sister of "Little Mary," stands a good chance for recovery, it was announced yesterday by the Sisters' Hospital, where she is a patient. She is a sufferer from a complication of diseases, and for a time little hope was held out for saving her life.

All during the day yesterday, however, Miss Pickford's condition gradually improved.

Mary Pickford, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, left New York, and will arrive here Saturday. The mother's condition, it was stated in a telegram from Mary Pickford, from nerve shock, is precarious, and it is possible that she may have to enter a hospital on her arrival. Jack Pickford, a brother, is in the office of the United States cable censor at Washington. He may come West should there be a change.

DISOWNED IF LOAN FAILS.

"Don't let rumors of inefficiency in war work over there affect you, for it is all enemy propaganda," was the message brought yesterday from France by Dr. Charles C. Selecman, former pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, who went overseas several months ago and returned to this city yesterday.

"And should Los Angeles fail to put across the Liberty Loan, the men in the trenches and in service will disown their people," he declared. "The story of Belgium and France has been told, but for some reason you over here do not seem to recognize its significance."

Dr. Selecman has been in France and England as a representative of the Y.M.C.A., and the War Work Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the front, he slept in shell-proof dugouts, worked among the wounded, was in three gas raids, and a monster air raid in Paris. While in England he addressed 2000 men from Camp Kearny, who were under intensive training, awaiting call.

"All France is a-thrill with joy over the recent German defeats. Victory, they believe, is only a short way off. But every soldier is watching the Liberty Loan and waiting for the news that his trip across has been amply paid for."

The question of his returning to his former pastorate will probably be decided today at the Methodist convention at Santa Ana, Dr. Selecman stated.

Save sugar, wheat, meat, labor and fuel

AS THE builder of flesh and bone and muscle, think how much value and real nourishment there is in a bowl of Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes and Milk.

Kellogg's contains the protein starches and other carbohydrates—milk gives the fats, mineral salts, vitamines and the casein which corresponds to the lean of meat.

You can serve a family of four people with Kellogg's for the price of one egg.

It is an all-year-'round food for growing children, young folks and old folks.

Kellogg's requires no sugar—owing to the sweetness and flavor developed in the Kellogg Process.

Most people when they say "Corn Flakes" mean "Kellogg's"—the Original—the Flakes that are delicate and thin, with a flavor and crispness all their own.

That's What City Must Produce in Loan Subscriptions or Fail.

TO PRECINCT CAPTAINS.

The Liberty Loan Committee is today instructing all Precinct Committees that before turning in their records at the close of the campaign, they shall first draw off and send to headquarters a separate list of the names and addresses of those who, according to the precinct records and in the opinion of the Precinct Liberty Loan Committee, have not bought bonds in reasonable proportion to their ability and on whom the responsibility, therefore, rests for any failure of the Loan that may occur. The bulletin reads as follows:

PRECINCT ORGANIZATION.

October 17, 1918.

BULLETIN 5.

TO ALL PRECINCT CHAIRMEN:

Precinct headquarters will remain open on Saturday, the last day of the campaign, until midnight for the purpose of making sales and recording registrations. On Sunday, precinct headquarters will remain open between the hours of 9 and 12 in the morning for the purpose of recording registrations.

Collectors will call Sunday afternoon for final reports, census lists and supplies. Please have ready for them separate lists of all those persons residing in your precincts who have not subscribed to the Fourth Liberty Loan and additional lists of all those persons residing in your precincts who, in the opinion of your Precinct Committee, have subscribed inadequate amounts to the Loan. It is upon these two classes of citizens the responsibility for any shortage of the city's total quota will fall, and we wish to make a definite record of the names and addresses of these citizens.

R. H. BALLARD, Director Precinct Organization.
MRS. J. T. ANDERSON, Chairman,
Woman's Liberty Loan Committee.

A similar action is being taken by Dr. John Willis Baer, Los Angeles County Chairman, affecting all precincts throughout Los Angeles county.

we wish to make a definite record of the names and addresses of these citizens."

J. W. Calkins, deputy governor of the Federal Reserve Bank wires the following loan decision which, it is believed at local headquarters will have the effect of stimulating subscriptions from citizens who are depending upon their future income to clear their bonds:

"By amendment of the law and regulation of Comptroller of Currency national banks are now permitted to loan 10 per cent. of capital and surplus to one borrower as heretofore, and an additional 10 per cent. to the same borrower if secured by par value Liberty Bonds, and an unlimited additional amount to the same borrower if the loan of each $100 is secured by $105 face value Liberty Bonds. This means that there is no limit upon the amount a national bank may loan one borrower when it is secured by $105 face value Liberty Bonds for each $100 loaned. This permission is extended to November 1, 1919."

The returns at the close of business last night showed that $9,744 individual subscriptions had been made in Los Angeles city. In the third loan 150,000 persons were represented in the loan for an average of $200 each. This gives some idea of the stupendous task which confronts the committee and the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow.

City Treasurer Powell was authorized by the Council yesterday to purchase $100,000 worth of Liberty Loan Bonds. It was suggested that the city withdraw $1,000,000 from the reserve fund to buy bonds, but Chairman Mallard of the Finance Committee said he did not believe it could be legally done.

SAN DIEGO OVER.

San Diego went over the top yesterday. Her quota is $5,162,600, her subscriptions $5,200,000 and still rolling in while the southern metropolis motions from her pinnacle to Los Angeles to "get a move on."

The faculty and cadets of the Army and Navy Academy yesterday subscribed $70000 in addition to their previous amount.

The Victory Honor Roll continues to be the incentive which brings hundreds to Liberty Loan headquarters and the leaders expect this list of additional subscribers which is already beginning to assume the proportions of a city directory to touch $10,000,000 before closing time tomorrow night.

One of the first to arrive at the honor booth yesterday morning was Bishop Johnson with a check for $1000. The employees of the Crane Company brought another honor roll subscription amounting to $15,000, the second for this company. The American Can Company employees added a $20,000 bit.

Thirty re-subscriptions from one family were reported at Liberty Loan headquarters last night. The subscribers belong to the Stillwell clan, headed by Charles H. Stillwell of the Stillwell Hotel, No. 833 South Grand avenue, and they hope that other families may be induced to follow their examples. The Stillwells had previously subscribed several thousand dollars and yesterday the thirty members joined the honor roll by taking out another $100 bond each. The re-subscriptions were made through Mrs. Carl W. Stillwell, chairman of precinct No. 514. The members of the family all reside in Los Angeles and South Pasadena, except one, L. J. Stillwell, who is at Camp Pike, Ark.

The $3000 souvenir Liberty Loan album which was to have been awarded from the tank "Victory," will be knocked down at Liberty Loan headquarters Saturday night. All bids must be sealed and be in hand by 6 p.m. tomorrow. They must be over $50,000 and every bid is a purchase whether successful in capturing the beautiful prize or not. Several large subscribers are said to have their eye on this album.

Croatian Committee reported yesterday afternoon that they are now $100,000, or 100 per cent., over their quota—set by the Foreign Nationalities Committee.

PASTORS TO AID.

A call was sent out yesterday to every minister in Los Angeles to report at his precinct Friday morning and be prepared to spend Friday and Saturday in assisting in the Liberty Loan work. They were instructed by Chairman John Albert Eby to lend every assistance in lining up and bringing to the precinct headquarters, the people who have not subscribed, or reported at their precinct, and also those who had subscribed an inadequate amount. The closing of the churches should not be any reason why the religious organizations cannot, in this way, do an important work in this Liberty Loan drive.

Chairman R. H. Moulton announced yesterday that Los Angeles is still leading in the ship-naming contest in Division A. This division includes the two cities over 250,000 population—San Francisco and Los Angeles. If the people of this city maintain the spirit and enthusiasm they are now putting into the drive and have been for the last forty-eight hours, the name Los Angeles will be carried to the shores of France on a ship that will do credit to the State of California.

INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE.

Director James S. Riley of the industrial organization announced yesterday that every member of his organization is devoting his time to individually use every effort to raise the unit of subscriptions in the various industrial plants. The D. & B. Pump Company, upon the first solicitation of the sixty-four employees subscribed $9150. Yesterday a second call was made, and these same employees patriotically subscribed for $6200 more, which was an average subscription of $240 per employee. This is the type of work that is going to put Los Angeles over the top and every industrial plant that is in this manner adding to the honor subscriptions of Los Angeles can point with pride to their record for the Fourth Liberty Loan when the boys begin to arrive back from France. Director Riley reported yesterday that he received a $10,000 subscription from the Neptune Metro Company and also a $20,000 subscription from the American Company.

The patriotic Liberty Loan workers at the Liberty Loan headquarters, did not consider that a first subscription and all the real work that they are putting into the campaign, was enough, so yesterday they started a headquarters victory honor roll. Thirty-two names were almost simultaneously signed to the victory honor roll for a total of $23,150 additional Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

All banks in Los Angeles will be open Saturday evening until 9 o'clock for the taking of Fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions.

Saturday is announced as Pershing Day by Campaign Manager R. H. Moulton, who stated that the Liberty Loan subscriptions in Los Angeles on that day will be wired direct to Gen. Pershing on the battle front in France and will be sent by him to our Los Angeles boys on the firing line.

The Japanese Committee has piled up a total of $212,000 subscriptions from 1800 subscribers by yesterday afternoon. This includes a subscription of $60,000 from the Yokahama Specie Bank.

The Broadway Department Store has received an honor roll subscription from their employees totalling $35,750. The first subscription from the employees was $90,000. This makes a total of $125,750 from the employees of this institution or an average of $125 from each employee.

To Resist The Attack of the germs of many diseases such as Grip, Malaria, means for all of us—fight or die. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe.

The odds are in favor of the germs, if the liver is inactive and the blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spots," or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself.

It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood. All druggists, liquid or tablets.

NATURAL GAS REQUEST IGNORED BY COUNCIL.

COMMUNICATION OF FEDERAL FUEL ADMINISTRATOR ORDERED FILED.

The request of D. M. Folsom, Federal Fuel Administrator for the Pacific Coast, that the natural gas ordinance be repealed was filed by the City Council yesterday. On the heels of this drastic action, the Council adopted resolutions calling upon Dr. Harry A. Garfield, Federal Fuel Administrator at Washington, to enforce the rules of the administration, giving first preference to domestic consumers of natural gas.

"If Dr. Garfield sees that this rule is enforced, we shall not care whether the people approve the natural gas ordinance at the November election or not," said Councilman Criswell. "Such an order would give the result we expect from the ordinance."

The Council has taken a more or less belligerent attitude toward Mr. Folsom, having approved the report of Chief Engineer Howell of the Public Utilities Board in which Mr. Folsom is charged with getting information about the gas conditions from "outsiders." When Mr. Folsom requested the Council to repeal the ordinance, he pointed out that its adoption by the people might result in a conflict with the rules of the Federal Fuel Administration and that it might not be possible for the companies to serve natural gas exclusively.

As a result of the Council's action yesterday, the gas ordinance will go to the people for their approval or rejection. Owing to the fact that the Fuel Administration believes it unwise to adopt such a measure at this time, it is not believed the public will approve it. Councilman Criswell, the labor union representative in the Council, is the prime factor behind the gas ordinance and this it is believed will augur against it.

Rumors of an inquiry by Federal officials into certain alleged statements by City Councilmen and others reflecting on Mr. Folsom brought the statement yesterday from Assistant United States Attorney Young that the matter is under consideration.

FOUR BILLIONS NOW TOTAL

Liberty Loan Subscriptions Jump, but Still Behind; no Time Extension.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions, reported and unreported, probably amount now to $4,000,000,000, although those actually tabulated by headquarters here aggregate $3,607,597,350, the treasury announced tonight.

Two days remain for the raising of $2,000,000,000.

Subscription reports today added $238,000,000 to yesterday's loan total, and though this represents the biggest single day's contribution, it is short of the pro rata amount sought to bring the total to $6,000,000,000 by Saturday night. Nearly a third of the addition today, or $101,000,000, came from the New York district and sent that district more than half way toward its $1,800,000,000 goal. Owing to tardy reports from some parts of the Atlanta district, Atlanta fell to last place in the percentage column today.

Subscriptions by districts now are recorded as follows:

District—	Subscription.	Per ct.
St. Louis	$330,900,300	56.9
Minneapolis	171,160,400	84.3
Boston	461,750,000	54.8
Dallas	82,753,650	65.9
San Francisco	388,000,000	77.6
Chicago	510,963,000	62.0
Richmond	168,371,100	56.1
Kansas City	178,225,200	58.4
Cleveland	330,182,000	54.5
New York	948,102,000	53.7
Philadelphia	389,931,600	47.9
Atlanta	84,969,050	46.2

Douglas Fairbanks, motion picture actor, who flew from Washington to New York yesterday to sell Liberty Bonds, arranged by telephone tonight to return to Washington tomorrow by postal airplane and deliver his $6,000,000 in subscriptions to Secretary McAdoo. The Secretary will receive him on the south steps of the treasury at 5 o'clock.

AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The total subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan in the Twelfth Federal Reserve Bank district up to tonight was $274,239,410, or approximately 76 per cent. of the district's quota of $403,000,000. The number of subscribers reported was 1,228,585 as compared to a total of 1,373,585 in the entire third campaign.

The rank of States in the district in proportion to those subscriptions already in bank was announced as follows: Oregon, 89 per cent.; Utah, 86 per cent.; Idaho, 84 per cent.; Arizona 75 per cent.; Washington, 72 per cent.; Southern California, 70 per cent.; Northern California, 59 per cent.; Nevada, 51 per cent.

Northern California's total tonight was $68,273,900, exclusive of San Francisco's allotment of $103,000,000, with twenty-seven counties "over the top."

In the tank naming contest, open to all counties in which there are no cities competing for the honor of naming ships, Trinity led in Northern California, Imperial county led in Southern California with Orange second and Ventura third.

Los Angeles was maintaining its lead in the ship naming contest, class A. In class B the standing was Portland, Oakland, Seattle, Salt Lake led in class C with Tacoma second and Spokane third. In class D, San Diego won second place from Ogden, while Berkeley continued to lead with Pasadena fourth and San Jose fifth. The standing in class E was: Eureka, Cal., Aberdeen, Wash., Alameda, Cal., Boise, Idaho, Bakersfield, Cal.

GAINING IN NEW YORK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—More than one-half of the Second Federal Reserve District's quota of $1,800,000,000 for the Fourth Liberty Loan had been officially subscribed at 10 a.m. today. At that hour the total was $916,227,000, an overnight gain of $68,706,150.

Millions of additional subscriptions were announced during the day. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company added $25,000,000 to its previous purchases, making its total $60,000,000. The Union Pacific Railroad doubled its $5,000,000 subscription, and the Standard Oil Company added $2,000,000 to its purchases, bringing its total to $10,000,000.

Following is a message from President Wilson read at a Liberty Loan rally of the Columbia University student training corps today:

"Again the government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion.

"The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America have from the first until now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principle and objects for which our government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended."

CHICAGO STILL SHORT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Chicago's subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan amounted to $19,000,000 today, leaving the city $65,300,040 short its quota.

The largest subscription, $1,000,000, came from Sears, Roebuck, and Company increasing the grand total for the firm and its employees to $4,461,700. Julius Rosenwald, head of the company, is the only millionaire in Chicago who has bought a million dollars worth of bonds for his own account.

PHILIPPINES OVER TOP.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MANILA (P. I.) Oct. 17.—Fifty thousand persons were in line and marched in the greatest demonstration in Manila's history last Saturday, Liberty day. All nationalities were represented.

A 25 per cent. over-subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan already has been registered by the Philippine Islands.

Why Stay Fat? You Can Reduce

The answer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to force the weight down. However, in Marmola Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. A large case is sold by druggists at 75c. Or if preferable, they can be obtained by sending price direct to the Marmola Co., 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. Now that you know this you have no excuse for being too fat, but can reduce two, three or four pounds a week without fear of bad after-effects.
